Short Talk About Furniture.

The short talk about furniture is this New stock will be coming in the first of September; until then we are glad to place every piece possible. There are some chamber suits and a good many individual pieces which are for sale, and no one should buy furniture, no matter what kind, until they see what we have and will do for them in this line.

The Colored Park

The colored people held a modern park opening at their new park in the eastern suburbs of the city on Thursday evening and according to reports they had a good time, music and dancing being the prevailing features of the occasion. We are informed that some of our young white folks (well, most of them were young), attracted by the music, entered and began walking around to take a view of the whole get-up, when they were politely informed that the park was for the exclusive use of the colored people. Now, how could they be more polite about it than that; it is for them only, so we would advise our young people not to kick at the polite invitation not to attend, but leave them to enjoy the exclusive use of their park, as they have a right to do.

Ask Your Friends

Who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla what they think of it, and the replies will be positive in its favor. One has been cured of indigestion and dyspepsia, and another finds it indispensable for sick headaches, others report remarkable cures of scrofula, salt rheum and other blood diseases, still others will tell you that it overcomes "that tired feeling," and so on. Truly, the best advertising which Hood's Sarsaparilla receives is the hearty endorsement of the army of friends it has won by its positive medicinal merit.

The Confederate Veterans.

Next Tuesday there will be a large number of Confederate Veterans in camp at Wrightsville, and it becomes the duty of all our people to look after their comfort in the best manner possible. Although we feel sure that the people of Wilmington will do all that lies in their power to render them comfortable, yet, it is not reasonable that the entire burden should be left upon our sister city. So far as we have heard, Raleigh has made no contribution towards the occasion. This is not as it should be, considering that the Soldier's Home is situated here and that our city is the capital of the State. Let all who can, give towards the noble purpose. Our contemporary, the Chronicle has generously consented to take charge of, and forward all donations sent to it. Let our people respond promptly. It is a noble purpose.

A friend showed us today a very neat and cute political badge. It consisted of the representation of a presidential chair, with the enquiry, "who is to occupy it?" The answer is made by touching something like a spring, when the picture of Grover Cleveland appears. It is said that they are very numerous in the northern States. The badge was sent here from Richmond, Va.

Sudden Death.

It is with the deepest regret that we announce the death of Mr. James B. Jordan, which took place suddenly of heart disease, at his residence on West Jones street at 5:45 o'clock, yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Jordan was 57 years of age and a gentleman of the highest character in all respects. For the last twenty years he had been a trusted clerk in the well-known hardware establishment of Messrs. Thos. H. Briggs & Co., where his business and personal traits endeared him to all who knew him.

Mr. Jordan was at the store as usual yesterday morning and complained of being sick, when he was taken home. He leaves a devoted wife and two children, with whom we deeply sympathize.

He was a member of the First Baptist church, from which the funeral took place at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Messrs. J. F. Cordes, J. H. Alford, G. M. Allen, Job P. Wyatt, C. B. Edwards, W. N. Jones.

We will put in a very large stock of new and pretty goods—goods to suit Miss Lize and goods to suit Miss Prude and Mrs. Prude. By selling goods at cost all the latter part of last winter and latter part of this summer, we have gotten our stock in fine shape, and in September we will be felt.
