Boom up the Centennial and the State Fair

The need for a county in tax is much felt just now.

There is a bad mad dog scare in the vicinity of Charlotte.

The predicted cool wave did not amount to much.

Now for the State Fair and Centennial celebration

The event of the week will be the Pythian barbecue.

Don't forget the barbecue of the Knights of Pythias next Thursday.

The merry-go-round at Brooks Park is the popular thing just now.

The grand Pythian barbecue is all talk.

Pamlico has been sent to Kentucky.

The Victor fire company will give a barbecue tomorrow at Milburnie.

Meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge tonight, at 8 o'clock. Visiting brethren invited.

Hon. K. P. Battle is to deliver the centennial oration. A splendid selection.

Mr. C. M. Busbee delivered a special address to young men at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday afternoon.

The Midnight Alarm at Metropolitan Hall next Saturday night. It is one of the most sensational plays now on the stage.

There are still a great number of dogs running at large without tags. Their lives are in serious danger.

Characteristics of Hood's Sarsaparilla: The largest sale, the merit, the greatest cures. Try it, and realize its benefits.

The revenue collections for the past week in Durham were $11,474.23. Now give them a fine government building.

The Richmond and Danville Railroad Company commenced work this morning fixing up the old depot for a freight warehouse. It will be put in first class order for the purpose.

It is understood that the arrangements for Gen. Stevenson in North Carolina will embrace Asheville, September 5th, Raleigh 16th and Goldsboro, Charlotte, Wilmington and Fayetteville on the following days.

Don't forget the excursion to Richmond which leaves here next Wednesday morning. It is the last opportunity to visit the beautiful capital of the Old Dominion this season, at such reduced rates. The fare for the round trip is only $2.75.

Colonel Julian S. Carr, as President of the State Association of Democratic Clubs, has called a meeting to take place in this city on September 16th, proximo, instead of August 31st, as heretofore announced. This is found to be necessary on account of the change in the time of the visit of Gen. Adlai Stevenson and other distinguished gentlemen. Specially reduced rates on the railroad and at hotels have been secured.

Drink Otterburn Lithia water to be had at J. Hal Hobbitt's drugstore. It is a health giving and a most delightful beverage this hot weather.

Money in It.

We want a partner in the horse business in all its branches. Best opening in the State to build up a first class business. Patron must be a sober, industrious man with a capital not less than $500. Address Box 355, city.

Our New Depot.

Yesterday marked a new event in the history of our city, it being set apart for the first formal entrance of trains into the new depot. During the day a considerable crowd of people were present inspecting the building. It is most complete in all particulars with every convenience necessary. The interior is elegantly finished in fine oak and the reception rooms would do credit to most private parlors. Under the car shed there are two tracks for the Richmond and Danville and Raleigh and Gaston Railroads and the shed is enclosed with a high and attractive fence. The main entrance is under the tower in the rear of which is the colored waiting room. The gentlemen's waiting room is to the left and the next is that set apart for the ladies. In the rear, between the main building and the shed, is a spacious lobby. The ticket office opens upon the lobby and also upon the gentlemen's and ladies' waiting rooms. Across the lobby, in the rear of the gentlemen's room is the telegraph office. Electric lights, water, &c. are furnished in abundance. Altogether it is a splendid edifice and one of which Raleigh may well feel proud.

"Fritz" Emmet Coming.

Mr. J. K. Emmet the great comedian has determined the coming fall to make a southern tour. All who have seen this great actor, are unanimous in the declaration that he is the wonder of the age in the theatrical line. He will take in Raleigh during his tour although the precise date is not yet agreed upon. His special play is "Fritz in Ireland," which draws tremendous crowds on all occasions. The Cincinnati Commercial Gazette of November 17th 1891 says:

Considering the pouring rain, the attendance at Heck's last night was unusually large, and the continued and rapidly increasing popularity of young Emmet was made manifest, not only through this, but by the hearty prolonged applause that marked each well made point throughout the play. "Fritz in Ireland" is in many ways the best of all the Emmet plays, and a better presentation of this particular one of the Fritz series was never given in this country. Not only is the mounting of the piece excellent, costumes, scenery and properties all being splendid, but the acting is without exception magnificent throughout. The company is one of careful selection, some of its individuals being the best possible for a play of this kind. In this, young Emmet shows his wisdom as a manager. While an actor he easily leads all the rest; still he is awake to the fact that the day of one part performances has gone by, and sensibly enough he has surrounded himself with people clever enough to hold their own in any part, thus giving to his play the assistance of other talent than his own, thereby completing a stage picture perfect almost in every part. Encores and recalls were numerous last night and will no doubt be the rule during the remainder of his stay.

Shoes and Shoes.

We are preparing for a very heavy shoe trade this fall as you will observe by the display in show window. This big show of shoes in window are one man's make warranted shoes. Some lines of our shoes have come and when the entire shoe stock gets in we will show you good solid leather shoes at prices you have never seen shoes sold at. We have from the very finest to the low grades in ladies' and gentleman's shoes.

Yours truly,

D. T. SWINDELL.

ANOTHER WEEK

—FOR—

FURNITURE.

After this week we will talk of other goods. We tell of Furniture again, because this is a time when one can very well buy Furniture.

Soon the rush of Fall business begins and then the new stock will be shown. What we are now showing is probably as good of its kind as anything we will get, but of course we must be continually offering our patrons new things in Furniture as well as other goods, so before new lines are opened we must sell from present stock every piece possible, and to do this we make the right prices.
