LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

RALEIGH, AUGUST 24, 1892

Professor Hills, of Harvard University, who examined the stomachs of the victims of the Salisbury Beach poisoning case, reports that the deaths were certainly caused by Paris green. The affair is as much a mystery as ever.

Ben Butler is said to be sadly bent with age. His face has the look of health, but his massive frame has become an unmistakable burden. His hands move unsteadily, while his eyes appear swollen and almost hidden by the thick folds of flesh on his cheeks.

New Yorkers are constantly getting into trouble because their front doors look so much alike. Early Sunday morning a restaurant cook entered the second house from his own lodgings by mistake and was arrested for burglary. Not only this, but he had to give $1,000 bail pending further examination.

On account of failure to receive the requisite documents from the Grand Master, the new lodge of Odd Fellows which is shortly to grace our city will not be instituted until Wednesday night, Aug. 31st. Past D. P. G. M. Chas. F. Lumsden has the matter in charge and those persons on the list of applicants can get any further information concerning the new lodge by calling at his place of business on east Hargett street.

One of the interesting sights in the streets of Chicago a few days ago was a park wagon running without horses. The wagon was equipped by the president of the American Battery Company with the recent inventions of one William Morrison, of Des Moines. It was run by a 3-horse power motor and a 24-cell storage battery. Last Tuesday it made its trial trip and excited very general interest.

A man went into a grocery at Relfast, Me., the other day, ordered $10 worth of goods, and laid down a cart wheel dollar in payment therefor. "Hold on, this isn't right!" yelled the shopkeeper as the customer started off. "Oh, yes, that's all right," responded the man. "I've got permission from the Judge to pay ten cents on the dollar." He had recently settled in insolvency upon the ten per cent. basis, and expected to continue that method indefinitely.

MINISTER VERSUS MANAGER

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 23—For some time the congregation of the Englewood Baptist church and the management of the Chicago Opera House, which stands next door to the sacred edifice, have been at open war over the subject of Sunday night performances. The church enlisted the police on its side, and last night Lieut. Burdick, with a squad of men, marched upon the stage and threatened the actors with arrest if they proceeded with the play.

Their work was stopped and the audience dismissed. As the people filed out of the theater the congregation of the church, led by the pastor, greeted them with loud cheers of triumph on their success. The proprietor of the opera house says he will keep his place open Sunday nights, and the end is not yet.

RATTLESLIKE KILL TWO WOMEN.

COUDERSPORT, Pa., Aug. 20—The details of a horrible encounter with rattlesnakes in which two women were killed by the venomous reptiles has been brought here by a commercial traveler from Gold a village of this county. Several days ago Mrs. Jacob Nevins, Mrs. Sarah Harmon and three or four other women and their husbands went upon the mountains near Gold to pick huckleberries. Mrs. Harmon sat down to pluck the fruit by the side of a rock. A large rattler, unseen by her, which lay on the rock, struck the woman on the jugular vein, causing a considerable rupture. She screamed, but died in half an hour. While assisting Mrs. Harmon, Mrs. Nevins was bitten twice on the leg and once on the hand by another rattlesnake and died five hours afterward. The men in the party came to the rescue from nearby, gave the women whiskey, but to no purpose. They then killed seven huge rattlesnakes within a few yards of where the fated women were bitten and the whole party left the mountain in terror.

THE VALUE OF THE RUBY.

Paris Figaro. The ruby is valued highest when it contains the least azure. The largest ruby that history speaks of belonged to Elizabeth of Austria, the wife of Charles IX. It was almost as big as a hen's egg. The virtues attributed to rubies are to banish sadness, to repress luxury and to drive away an annoying thoughts. At the same time it symbolizes cruelty, anger and carnage, as well as boldness and bravery. A change in its cooler announces a calamity, but when the trouble is over it regains its primitive lustre.

THE DIVISION OF TIME.

London Tit-Bits. The division of time into hours was practiced among the Babylonians from remote antiquity, but it was Hipparchus, the philosopher, who introduced the Babylonian hour into Europe. The sexagesimal system of notation was chosen by that ancient people because there is no number having so many divisions as sixty. The Babylonians divided the daily journey of the sun, the ruler of the day, into twenty-four parasangs. Each parasang or hour was subdivided into sixty minutes, and that again into sixty seconds. They compared the progress made by the sun during one hour at the time of the equinox to the progress made by a good walker in the same period of time, both covering one parasang, and the course of the sun during the full equinoctial day was fixed at twenty-four parasangs.

THAT WILL FIX IT.

The New Bern Journal proposes to organize another party and call it the Fourth party. It is to be composed entirely of the "rag-tag and bob-tail," including all the dissatisfied, disgruntled, grumbling, whining and disappointed from all the other parties, that will fix it. Such a combination will take all the strength there is in the other parties and about break them up. This first plank in its platform must necessarily be a pledge to give each an office.

Mr. Robert W. Denton, an Exempt Fireman of Jackson Engine Co., Long Island City, N. Y., says that at Christmas, 1890, he could only take a small dinner, as he was in a fearful condition from Dyspepsia. The next summer he went to Europe for his health, but came home unimproved. In the fall he decided upon a thorough trial of

Hood's Sarsaparilla

And by Christmas had a hearty appetite, healthy digestion, and was perfectly well. His cure was due wholly to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

HOOD'S PILLS cure liver ills, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, and sick headache. Try them.
