CITY IN BRIEF.

The Board of Aldermen met Saturday and transacted routine business.
The A. and M. College is flourishing. It now has about 60 students.
Opening address Tuesday evening by Dr. Sanderlin.
The work of putting the tents in position in Nash Square has been progressing nicely today.
Dr. J. B. Cranfill, the prohibition party candidate for Vice President, we understand, is expected to be here and speak next Saturday. Col. R. S. Cheers will be on hand and speak.
The funeral of Mrs. Walter C. Tucker, which took place from the Church of the Good Shepherd yesterday afternoon, was largely attended.
"I would like to sound the praise of Hood's Sarsaparilla over the entire universe," writes Mrs. Longenecker of Union Deposit, Penn.
Quite an interest is being manifested in the lawn entertainment to be given by the ladies at Nash Square. A tremendous gathering seems to be in the wind.
A boiler explosion of a sawmill near Aberdeen belonging to Mr. Page, occurred on Saturday killing a young man named Robert Adams and scalding others badly.
We were informed this morning by Mr. Blake that the grass will be cut and taken off from Nash Square in full time for the Tuesday evening entertainment. This is as it should be and none will appreciate it more than the ladies.
On Wednesday night, at the Church of the Good Shepherd, there is to be a "pink and blue" wedding, when two of Raleigh's most popular young people will join hands. The time set for the ceremony is 8:30.
The Durham Sun says, "J. R. Rankin who goes to Raleigh to run a ware house, will have associated with him Robert Williamson." Raleigh should and will extend a hearty welcome and all the encouragement possible.
The ladies are having prepared for the park entertainment, which takes place Tuesday evening in Nash Square, a large quantity of barbecue and Brunswick stew by one of our best cooks. Be sure to attend, but if you can't, then send for what you wish.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

The young men's meeting yesterday, was well attended and the music was excellent. Prof. James Dinwiddie gave a very interesting address to the young men.
The meetings are becoming more popular every Sunday.
The boys meeting was well attended also.

Ladies Meeting.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association are requested to attend the regular monthly meeting of the Auxiliary Tuesday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. It is to be hoped that the whole Auxiliary will be present.

A Piano Free

Messrs. Fetter & Shober, of Louisville, Kentucky, publishers of Fetter's Southern Magazine, are doing something never attempted by any other publishers. They propose to give away a four hundred and fifty dollar piano to the first person securing two hundred yearly subscribers and will give the same style of instrument to any person sending them two hundred and fifty yearly subscribers. The magazine is one of high merit price $2.50 a year.

Personal.

Prof. J. D. Arnold, of the Asheville, N. C., Female College, was in the city yesterday and preached a fine sermon at Central Methodist church last night.

Mr. N. Y. Gulley, of Franklinton, came in on the Shoo Fly this morning to do some shopping. Always glad to see friend Gulley; even a farmer does not object to such a Gulley.

Rev. Dr. J. W. Carter, who has been absent from his charge for a short while, returned on Saturday and occupied his pulpit in the First Baptist church yesterday.

We regret to learn through the News and Observer of the death of Miss Mary Lippitt, daughter of Mr. A. D. Lippitt of Pittsboro.

Prof. A. Bauman and Mr. N. B. Broughton returned to the city on Saturday after a short absence.

Mr. George Little who is connected with Col. Turk's office in Washington, D. C., and who has been at home on a short visit in the city, returned to his post yesterday.

Mr. Iley Harwood and family left last Saturday for Baltimore, to make it their future home.

Mr. J. O. B. Little still continues very ill.

Mr. Elias Carver continues quite sick with typhoid fever. His friends are anxious about him.

We were glad to see our young friend, Mr. T. A. Montgomery on the streets on Saturday. He is looking well.

Mr. J. W. Bailey and T. J. Pence will leave for Wake Forest college tomorrow, to enter on a course of medicine.

Chronic Kickers.

There is a big lot of kickers in this country. You can find that out by reading the papers, but some of the kicking does not get in the papers. For a sample a man will go and buy a pair of shoes with out knowing the make of shoe, not knowing the kind of people he is dealing with, not caring, it seems. The shoes wear out in a short time. Then he kicks, when he should be kicked. Now we have come to the relief of the kicker. He can come to us; we will sell him a pair of Reynold's shoes and he will be so well pleased with them that the kicking will stop and the name will be stamped upon his memory so plainly that in the future he will have no trouble, but come at once to Swindell's.

The following will explain itself to the Citizens of Raleigh:

GENTLEMEN:—The State Democratic Executive Committee has arranged with Hon. Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic nominee for the Vice-Presidency, that he should visit our State about the middle of the present month. Mr. Simmons, chairman of State Committee, has, at the request of the Cleveland-Carr Club designated our city as one of the five points at which Mr. Stevenson will publicly address the people.

On the same date, the 16th of September there is to assemble here the State Convention of Democratic Clubs, and it is expected that these events will bring together probably the largest gathering we have ever had.

For the proper celebration of the occasion and the entertainment of Mr. Stevenson, and the distinguished gentlemen who will accompany him, there are certain necessary expenses, and these, the Finance Committee of the Cleveland-Carr Club have undertaken to defray from the subscriptions of our patriotic people. The committee will begin to canvass on Monday, and the undersigned, on behalf of the Committee, do hereby earnestly appeal to you for your liberal and hearty support. As Mr. Stevenson will visit other points, where extensive preparations for his reception are in progress, let us not, at the capital of the State, be behind them in our hospitality.

Imported Clothes.

The following letter speaks for itself and needs no comment. The goods referred to will arrive and be placed on sale by the end of this week:
HADDERSFIELD, Eng Aug. 1, '92.
Mr. Geo. N. Walters, Raleigh, N. C.:
The fall selections of woollens which we have made for you this season are of the finest quality that our looms have produced. They have all been made from specially selected Australian wool. You can highly recommend them for their colors and durability. In designs the quiet and subdued appear to be those demanded by the ultra fashionable merchant tailors. You will find your patterns in styles far superior to any we have made for the English market.
