The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Fair, except showers on the coast, cooler. Local forecast for this vicinity: On Wednesday, fair weather, considerably cooler. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature, 85; minimum temperature 68; rainfall 0.00

CITY IN BRIEF.

The general complaint for rain in the different sections continues. Marriage at the Church of the Good Shepherd tomorrow night. See advertisement of the Lyon Racket Store. All in need of real bargains should call at once. John H. Williamson (colored) editor of the Gazette in this city, is a candidate for Congress from this District. Mr. John Dughi, son of our friend Mr. A. Dughi, has gone to St. Mary's College, Gaston county. Success to him. We deeply regret to learn that there is no improvement in the condition of Col. J. C. R. Little. He is critically ill.

"The Kentucky Colonel" which has been having such a splendid run in New York is billed for this city on the 18th, inst.

Attention is specially called to the advertisement of The New York Millinery and Dry Goods Bazaar in the great reduction of prices.

Mrs. Rosenthal leaves next Thursday for the Northern markets to purchase a full line of millinery and dry goods. Ladies will do well to remember this.

No other Sarsaparilla has the merit in it by which Hood's Sarsaparilla has won such a firm hold upon the confidence of the people.

Delicacies, music, minstrels, juvenile, circus, Confederate camp scenes, barbecue, Brunswick stew—all these at the Nash Square entertainment which commences tonight.

North Carolina 6 per cent bonds are now held at 125 and 4 per cent consols at 99. These are fine prices and shows that the credit of the Old North State is still on the upward plane.

The work of preparation for the reception of Gen. Stevenson and others here next week is progressing finely. Raleigh will not be behind in the matter of cordial greeting.

Students still coming to the Agricultural and Mechanical College. There is a very large attendance anticipated. During the recess the new dormitory has been completed and many valuable improvements made. The institution is rapidly gaining in popularity, and we believe will soon rank most favorably with other Colleges of a similar kind in the country.

Our Lamented Dead.

Over a quarter of a century has now passed since the great civil strife ended, and the country has, happily, to a great extent recuperated from the effects of the great strife. Among all nations where civilization exists it has become a custom to reverse the memories of those who showed by gallant and patriotic deeds their devotion to country, homes and fire-sides. The cause for which the gallant South offered so many valuable lives and so much treasure, by a decree of an overruling Providence, was lost, and, as a people, we have bowed to the decree. It becomes us, however, in such a manner as best we can, to commemorate their deeds and let them pass down into history as noble patriots who came to the front to battle for what they deemed just.

In no better manner can we hand down to posterity the noble deeds of our dead heroes than by the erection of a suitable monument to their memory. To do this will require funds, and the noble ladies of our State have taken the matter in hand and are now appealing to the generous sympathy of our people.

Tonight will be opened on Nash square an entertainment in furtherance of the end in view. The programme is an interesting one, and aside from the patriotic motives involved, much enjoyment can be had.

On behalf of our noble ladies and the great cause we all love, we most earnestly appeal to all our people for aid. Let the entertainment be patronized to the fullest extent, so that such a fund may be realized as will be a source of pride to all our people.

The Pythian Band.

We learn that the committee on band for the reception of Gen. Stevenson and others in this city on the 16th, inst. have secured the services of the Pythian Band of this city for the occasion. This band is composed of gentlemen in our city, and although they are not usually open for engagements they have most generally and in a spirit of patriotism decided to act on the occasion, on the most reasonable terms, thereby relieving the committee of the necessity, of sending elsewhere for music. Their decision will entitle these gentlemen to the gratitude of all our people, and shows a determination on their part to add all in their power towards rendering the reception in all respects worthy of the Capital of the "Old North State".

Completed.

The Naval Artillery Reserve Battalion for North Carolina is now complete. There are four divisions, the first of which is at Charlotte, and was equipped last year; this year it received instructions on ship board. The three new divisions are at Fayetteville and Wilmington. Commissions as Lieutenants in the navy have been issued by the Governor as follows: Second division, James D. McNell; third division, Jno H Bernard; fourth division, Frederick Kidder.

Chronic Kickers.

There is a big lot of kickers in this country. You can find that out by reading the papers, but some of the kicking does not get in the papers. For a sample a man will go and buy a pair of shoes with out knowing the make of shoe, not knowing the kind of people he is dealing with, not caring, it seems. The shoes wear out in a short time. Then he kicks, when he should be kicked. Now we have come to the relief of the kicker. He can come to us; we will sell him a pair of Reynold's shoes and he will be so well pleased with them that the kicking will stop and the name will be stamped upon his memory so plainly that in the future he will have no trouble, but come at once to Swindell's.

A Bargain in Wools.

Walters, Raleigh, N. C.: The fall selections of woolsens which we have made for you this season are of the finest quality that our looms have produced. They have all been made from specially selected Australian wool. You can highly recommend them for their colors and durability. In designs the quiet and subdued appear to be those demanded by the ultra fashionable merchant tailors. You will find your patterns in styles far superior to any we have made for the English market.
