CITY IN BRIEF.

Dust getting fearful. Treasurer Bain is still sick. The acreage reduction of cotton in Wake county is at least 25 per cent. You can have your fortunes told at the Nash Square entertainment. Large crowd of strangers in the city. The Republicans held an exciting caucus last night. Special attention is called to C. H. Anderson's shoe advertisement. He is giving some special bargains. Vacation is about over and the streets will soon be thronged again with the happy faces of boys and girls on their way to school. Take Hood's and only Hood's because Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures. It possesses merit peculiar to itself. Try it yourself. Don't fail to go to the lawn party tonight. All the good things of life in the way of eating to be on hand, with novelties in the way of amusement. A young colored man named William Blacknall dropped dead on South Dawson street last evening. Heart disease was the cause. Charles Reynolds and the negro man Headen have been sentenced to be hung in Guilford on the 20th of October for the murder of Solathiel Swain. There was a meeting of the State Board of Education yesterday, with Gov. Holt presiding. A survey of 30,000 acres of land in Craven county by Gen. W. G. Lewis, State Engineer, was ordered. The ladies have contributed generously to make the Nash Square entertainment a grand success. Remember there will be an abundance of barbecue and Brunswick stew on hand tonight. The plans of the proposed new model barn at the A. & M. College will be drawn by Mr. W. J. Matthews, one of the best architects in the Senior class. This was awarded him as a reward of merit.

Notice.

Musical Concert.

On Thursday night next, at Metropolitan Hall, there will be a musical concert which closes the series of the Nash Square entertainments. The concert will be under the direction of Professor Frank Cunningham, of Richmond, Va. He is well known in this city, where he has many friends who will give him no doubt a most cordial greeting. He will be assisted by some of our best local talent. The price of admission will be 35 and 25 cents. Let there be a rousing crowd present.

Lawn Party.

The opening of the lawn party at Nash Square last night was a grand success in all particulars. The chief event of the evening was the address of Hon. G. W. Sanderlin, who was introduced by Mr. W. C. Stronach in a most appropriate manner. It was a most interesting discourse. At the conclusion of the speech the crowd enjoyed the delicious spread around and the many amusements provided. Let there be a large attendance during the continuance of the entertainment.

A New Scheme Among the Girls.

The young folks have invented a new scheme to raise money for charitable deeds among the poor during the coming winter. They have originated what is called an avoirdupois party. A number of young ladies and gentlemen assemble at the park. Each girl is weighed and her beau or escort on the occasion has to pay half a cent a pound for her. The assembly occurs once a week, but a new set of escorts is generally present.

Personal.

Mr. E. B. Barbee has returned to the city from Chicago. Mr. E. A. Sholar, formerly of this city, but now of Chattanooga, is in the city. Mr. John Morris an old Raleigh boy with his wife and child from Richmond, Va., is in the city visiting his father and sister, looking well. Mr. Wm. Woolcott has returned from the Northern cities where he purchased a large stock of goods. Mr. Frank Dewey has accepted and entered upon his duties in a railroad position at Norfolk, Va.

The Juvenile Circus.

By special request the Juvenile Circus gave two performances last night under their large canvass. On both occasions the tent was packed to its utmost capacity, the door receipts netting $30.11.

The young men deservingly received commendation on every hand, as it was an unusually fine performance.

The special favorite of the evening was Mr. F. H. Moseley (Prof. Spider), who received long and loud applause for his celebrated combination of the chair stretch and hoop pass, and his unexcelled backward bending.

There will be another performance tonight promptly at 8 o'clock.
