LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION

RALEIGH, SEPT. 7, 1892.

OUR SHADE TREES.

The shade trees in the city of Raleigh have added much to its attractiveness in the past, but there seems to be a decline in the manifested appreciation of this fact. Occasionally a stately oak is hewn down, and there seems to be less lingering regret than formerly.

A CRIME AGAINST SOCIETY.

For quite awhile the secular press North and South has been teeming with notices, comments and descriptions relative to that prize fight in Louisiana. This free advertisement of this brutal business is a refutation to our claim of civilization, and a prostitution of journalism.

The nation wants reform upon this line. The press has in its power to stamp out this worse than "Spanish bull fight" business and the country ought to demand that it wield it.

WILMINGTON QUARANTINE.

The Wilmington Messenger, in reply to a question asked by the Asheville Citizen, says:

"For the benefit of our contemporary, the Messenger will say that Wilmington has promptly quarantined against all European ports and the quarantine will be rigidly enforced. Our health authorities will spare no efforts to keep out the plague and Wilmington feels perfectly secure in their hands.

A communication from Benson, N. C., states that a white man named Joe Lassiter was killed on Friday by the blowing up of a saw mill at that place.

THE STEVENSON RECEPTION - THE PROGRAMME.

Upon the arrival of train the usual salute of nineteen guns will be fired from Nash Square. At the firing of first gun all steam whistles of the various manufactories will be blown in honor of the distinguished guest.

The Committee on Reception will receive them at the depot and with the Pythian Band and the Governor's Guard act as escort to the Yarboro House.

A grand reception will be held in the parlors of the Yarboro House from 10 to 11.

The various clubs and organizations will meet at Stronach's Warehouse at 10:30 o'clock. The procession will be formed on Wilmington street with the right resting on the corner of Wilmington and Cabarrus streets.

Then a line of march will be made down Wilmington to Marly, up Marly to Fayetteville, up Fayetteville to the Yarboro House, where a halt will be made to receive our next Vice-President.

The line of march will then be taken up Fayetteville to Capitol Square and Hillsboro street to St. Mary's school, where the speaking will take place.

Any further details of the day which are decided upon later will be announced in due time.

It is hoped that as Gen. Stevenson is being escorted from the station up to the hotel there will be a general outpouring of the citizens of Raleigh along Park Avenue to give him an ovation.

From intermediate points in same proportion.

DANGER EVEN WITH QUARANTINE.

Newberne Journal.

We are no physician, but it seems to us that the quarantine business in New York against the foreign vessels is conducted without that keen carefulness which should characterize learned medical men in guarding against the entrance of such a dreadful and desolating scourge as cholera.

It seems from the telegrams that vessels on which there is cholera are stopped, but those on which there is none are allowed, after undergoing disinfecting treatment, to proceed without tarrying outside the twenty days of prohibition.

The New York Herald has a telegram from Chicago to the effect that a French woman there says her brother-in-law who arrived in Chicago Wednesday came over in a ship on which there were twelve deaths from which the surgeon called cholera, and that the bodies were buried and that the vessel was passed and allowed to proceed to her dock.

WOODWORTH CITY! In the heart of the Iron and Coal District of Tennessee.

Climate salubrious, never hot and never cold. Land unequalled for agricultural purposes, and mineral resources unlimited.

Table with 2 columns: 1,000 Lots at..., $4.00 per Lot. Lists lot numbers and prices.

WOODWORTH CITY lies about 30 miles north of Chattanooga, within a few miles of the mouth of the county seat of Grundy county, and between Tracey City and the celebrated Beersheba Springs, the Saratoga of the South. It is in the center of the rapidly developing coal and iron district of Tennessee, and within its borders are found coal, iron, zinc, marble and asbestos, with various hard woods, such as oak, chestnut, maple, peach, locust, hickory, ash, pine, cherry and black walnut in abundance.

The proceeds of the sale of these lots will be used to develop the mineral resources of the property and build up a large and thriving city. Quick application for these lots should be made, as the right is reserved to advance the price without notice.
