The Weather Today.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

CITY IN BRIEF.

Go to the lawn party at Nash square tonight and see the sights.

"The Colonel" will be here next Tuesday.

The Republicans held a ratification meeting last night after the adjournment of the convention.

Messrs George H. Sears & Co., will have fresh Norfolk oysters on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week.

Wake Forest College is fast filling up with students, and the session promises to be the most successful the institution has yet had.

People who give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial realize its great merit and are glad to say a good word for it. Have you tried it?

Regular meeting of the Cleveland-Carr club tonight at 8 o'clock at the Mayor's office. All committees in relation to the visit of Gen. Stevenson and others, are expected to make reports.

The Republican congressional convention for the 4th district met at the court house in this city today. Mr. John Saunders, of Johnston county, was nominated as a candidate for congress. Thos. P. Devereux was chosen district elector.

We call the special attention of the public to the advertisement of the Rosenthal Clothing Company of which our well known friend, "Dave" Rosenthal is the chief head and centre. A special feature is the grand display to be found in this emporium of fashion, of children's and boys' suits, which has never been surpassed in Raleigh for beauty, finish and cheapness. New additions are constantly being made and Mr. Rosenthal left for the northern cities today where he will catch the cream of the market. Call and see the grand stock on hand and make your selections. You cannot do better.

We invite the special attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell, the champion furniture dealers of Raleigh. These gentlemen are fast creating a sensation in our midst in the matter of offering furniture of beautiful design and finish at such rates as cannot fail to please. They can suit the purse of everybody from the simplest pocket book to that overflowing with money. It is impossible to enumerate in an advertisement or local all the novelties to be seen at this splendid establishment. It must be seen to be appreciated. Call and make selections. New stock continuously arriving.

Lovely weather still continues.

Politics will have a rest now for a few days.

Watermelons and cantaloupes have given way to the ever popular scuppernon grape.

We learn that it is in contemplation to remove the remains of Col. J. C. R. Little to Arkansas for interment. They have been placed temporarily in a vault.

A good gentle rain would prove a great blessing now. Aside from its need to the farming interest, it would render all the surroundings in the city more pleasant. The dust is getting almost insufferable.

There was a very large crowd in attendance at the Good Shepherd church last night to witness the marriage of Mr. Fred G. Stoudt to Miss Annie Agnes Taylor of this city. A more extended account will appear tomorrow.

If the weather is favorable, there will probably be one of the largest crowds here next week ever seen in Raleigh, and it becomes all our people to pull together and make it one of the grandest occasions in our history. It should be remembered, that this is a matter in which all are interested, in order that the proverbial hospitality of our citizens may be well sustained. The reputation, not only of Raleigh is at stake, but as the Capital of North Carolina, it takes in the entire State. We hope to see such a demonstration and such a cordial display as will do us lasting honor.

Contributions of food, &c., will be thankfully received by the ladies.

Sullivan and Corbett.

The Sullivan and Corbett fight is over and several people lost money. That was their own fault. So it will be your fault and also your loss of money if you do not take advantage of the values we will offer you from now on. In styles we can suit the most fastidious in any department. In price we are confident we will have no trouble. Every department will be a solid and complete stock—nothing left out. So if you do not come and see and be convinced you, like the backers of Sullivan, will lose.

D. T. Swindell.

Concert.

The Confederate concert to be given at Metropolitan Hall tonight is an event that calls for the highest appreciation on the part of our people. The objects of the entertainment are sufficient to attract a large attendance outside of the enjoyment which may be expected. A leading feature will be the singing of Capt. Frank Cunningham of Richmond, Va., who will entertain the audience with some of his most beautiful songs. There will be much local talent present, among the ladies being Misses Mary Snow, Maud Marshall, Evie Ellis, Alice Wynne and Minnie Tucker. The Pythian band will furnish music.
