The Weather Today.
For North Carolina: Showers.
Local forecast for this vicinity:
On Saturday, fair, slightly warmer.
Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:
Maximum temperature, 80; minimum temperature 56; rainfall 0 00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The switchback at the fair grounds has been suspended until October.
Fall business is looking up considerably. New goods are coming in freely.
The election laws have all been sent out to the different counties of the state.
Messrs. Woolcott & Sons have on sale the official badges of the Cleveland Carr Club.
All members should attend the monthly business meeting of the Y. M. C. A. tonight.
Commissioner John Robinson is in attendance at the Cabarrus fair in Concord, by special invitation.
Epworth League, No. 24, will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Sunday school room of Edenton street church.
Our friend Dughi has a queer looking "warm nt" which was caught in a rat trap. The question is, "what is it?"

The regular monthly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. will be held tonight at 8 o'clock. Full attendance requested.
Students are still coming in to the Agricultural and Mechanical college, and the attendance is expected soon to run up over a hundred.
When weak, weary and worn out, Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine to restore your strength and give you a good appetite.

The board of managers of the Raleigh centennial met this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the mayor's office. The work of preparation goes bravely on.
The new officials of the Chamber of Commerce all express a determination to push matters in relation to the progress of Raleigh during the ensuing year.

Don't fail to attend the concert tonight at Metropolitan Hall. Mr. Cunningham arrived in the city from Richmond Va., this morning and will be in attendance.

The committee for the arrangement of the mass meeting proposed to be held next Monday night, held a meeting at the office of Mr. Geo. C. Heck this morning at 10 o'clock.

A few delegates to the Republican State Convention lingered in the city yesterday. They took in all the points of interest and seemed to enjoy the electric street cars hugely.

Next Tuesday night has been set apart for the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. President Johnson has appointed the regular committees and much work has been mapped out for the ensuing year.

The work of decorating for the reception of Mr. Stevenson and others will commence early next week. Any suggestions or contributions of flags, bunting, &c., will be cheerfully received and appreciated by the committee in charge.

A fine lot of beef cattle and sheep were brought to market today. On arriving at Exchange place, near the market, the sheep made a break from the drove running at a rapid rate up Fayetteville street. The small boy was delighted and aided the owners to recover the flock.

There will be a love feast service held at Central Methodist Church tonight, beginning at 8 o'clock. The fourth quarterly conference for this charge will be held Monday night after the close of the services. Dr. J. A. Cunningham the presiding elder will occupy the pulpit Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Services will be continued each night during the next week. The public are cordially invited to attend.

MASS MEETING.
The Citizens of Raleigh Called in Council.

It has been determined in view of the visit of Gen. Stevenson and other distinguished gentlemen to our city on the 16th inst. to call a mass meeting of the people of Raleigh at Metropolitan Hall on Monday evening next at 8 o'clock.

We predict a rousing crowd on the occasion to pledge the hospitality of our city in carrying out the grand program laid down.

Let it be one of the most enthusiastic assemblages that ever met in our city, so that it will be heralded forth to the world that the capital of the "Old North State" knows how to receive the strangers within her gates.
We suggest to the committee in charge to set aside the galleries for the ladies. Hundreds of them would, in all probability, lend their presence and encouragement to the occasion.
Let every business be represented. We want the active co operation of all so that the welcoming hand may not be confined to any particular element.

Make the meeting the preparatory note to the grandest ovation ever seen here.
The reputation of our city is at stake.
We must sustain the fair reputation of the "Old North State" for unbounded hospitality.
Let the distinguished gentlemen leave our borders with a full appreciation of the people of our glorious Southland.

Close up the places of business early Monday night, so that the young men can turn out in force.

Personal.

Mr. Claude Sherwood who recently went North to purchase a fall and winter stock of goods returned Wednesday afternoon. His new stock will be opened in about a week when the patrons of the VISITOR will be duly informed.
Col. F. A. Olds is enjoying a short vacation at the Littleton Panacea Springs.
Mr. J. N. Hubbard who has been quite sick, is somewhat improved.

Mr. Nicholas John, formerly of Raleigh, but now of Norfolk Va., is in the city.
Ex. Judge Womaek, of Chatham county, is at the Yarboro House.
Mr. H. M. Farnsworth has returned to the city from a trip to Groton Massachusetts. Mrs. Farnsworth will remain in Groton for awhile. We are pleased to see him looking so well.

Mr. W. S. Stallings former clerk in the office of the State Auditor has gone to his home, from where he will go North to engage in business.
Rev Dr. Wm. M. McPheeters, professor of Greek at the Theological Seminary of Columbia S. C. is in the city. He is the youngest son of the late Rev. Saml. B. McPheeters and nephew of Col. A. M. McPheeters whose guests he is.
Gov. Holt, accompanied by the Board of Internal Improvement has gone on a tour of inspection of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad.

Mrs. W. J. Ramsey and Miss Etta returned to the city yesterday afternoon after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Beaufort and New Berne.
We were glad to learn that the symptoms in the case of Mrs. N. M. Rand who has been ill for some time was thought to be more hopeful this a. m.

We met up this morning with several blue looking gentlemen who backed their judgment in the way of betting on Sullivan. They say the uncertainty of things in this world of ours sometimes is past finding out. Most of them declare that they are "off" from such business in the future.

Died

At his home near Durham yesterday at 12 o'clock, Mr. John W. Gattis aged 67. He was a brother of Mr. W. A. Gattis, of this city.

HADDERSFIELD, Eng Aug. 1, '92. Mr. Geo. N. Walters, Raleigh, N. C.: The fall selections of woolsens which we have made for you this season are of the finest quality that our looms have produced. They have all been made from specially selected Australian wool. You can highly recommend them for their colors and durability. In designs the quiet and subdued appear to be those demanded by the ultra fashionable merchant tailors. You will find your patterns in styles far superior to any we have made for the English market.
