The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Fair, preceded by clearing on the coast today or tonight, cooler.

Local forecast for this vicinity: On Thursday: Fair weather, cooler.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 84; minimum temperature 69; rainfall 0.34.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The weather continues fine. Young ladies coming in to Peace Institute.

There is no news of importance today at the Capitol.

They are coming from every quarter.

Clubs will be here from all directions next Friday.

All the banks in Durham will close next Friday so that the employees may come to Raleigh.

For the benefit of those who desire them notice is given that Democratic badges can be had at Woolcott & Sons' store.

A colored excursion arrived in the city last night from Norfolk accompanied by a first rate band. They took in all the sights today.

Joseph Ruby, of Columbia, Pa., suffered from birth with scrofula humor, till he was perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Hon. J. H. Murphy, of Iowa, will address the people of Raleigh to night at Metropolitan Hall on the issues of the day. All invited.

The premium list of the Roanoke and Tar River Agricultural Society is out. This fair will open at Weldon November 1, and continue till the 4th. Liberal premiums are offered to the farmers, stockmen, truckers and the ladies. The officers are: Thomas L. Emory, President, W. H. Shields, 1st Vice President, J. W. Sledge, Secretary and J. J. Daniels, Treasurer.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of C. H. Anderson who announces fine shoes for ladies, children and Misses. School shoes a specialty, and Mr. Anderson is prepared in this line to offer such inducements as will render them acceptable to all. A beautiful line of dress prints has just arrived, together with gentlemen's shirts, collars, cuffs, &c. Call and be suited at No 5 Hargett street. Low prices is the motto.

The Durham Sun has the following: Mr. J. R. Rankin who has been a resident of Durham for several years, left this morning for his new home in Raleigh, where he goes to engage in the warehouse business. A Mr. Williamson is associated with him and they will have their opening sale next Thursday. Mr. Rankin's many Durham friends wish him much success with his undertaking. The Visitor welcomes Mr. Rankin to our city.

Died.

After a lingering illness, at Apex, on the 11th inst., Mrs. J. R. Rogers, in her 80th year. She was a most estimable lady and much beloved.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F. tomorrow night 7:30 sharp.

Important business is to be transacted which requires every member of the lodge to be present.

Degrees will be conferred upon candidates, who present themselves. Capital and Manteo Lodges fraternally invited.

All Ready.

A meeting of the chairmen of the different committees on the Stevens celebration met at the office of Mr. B. C. Beckwith yesterday afternoon for consultation, and full arrangements for the reception were perfected. The program in all details is expected to be announced tomorrow. If the weather permits it will be the grandest occasion of the kind ever seen in Raleigh. Nothing has been left undone to make it a success.

Nice Candy.

The Durham Sun says: 'The local editor of the Sun has received an elegant box of candy and crystallized fruit from Barbee & Pope, manufacturers at Raleigh.'

This is nothing more than a well deserved compliment to our townsmen, Messrs. Barbee & Pope, who stand foremost in the ranks of manufacturers of candy in the south.

Lunch.

Some of the lady members of Epworth League have secured the vacant store in the Henry building, opposite the postoffice and will spread a lunch all day Friday for the convenience of visitors. They will be in the store from 6 a. m. until late in the evening and will serve hot coffee and steak and first class lunches at all hours. Patronize them. Prices will be reasonable.

Chamber of Commerce.

Last night there was a good attendance at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. Much business looking to active work was mapped out. Articles of incorporation were submitted and approved and a new code of laws was given consideration. A suggestion was made by Mr. J. M. Broughton that all citizens make an effort to put the sidewalks in good condition. Maj. Tucker offered a resolution commending Mr. J. T. Patrick for the very handsome display of North Carolina and other products he has exhibited in Buffalo, N. Y., at the exposition. The resolution was adopted.

Sherwoods.

The bright day brought the ladies out in numbers and the encomiums paid upon our selections are indeed gratifying. The variety of medium priced dress goods, wash fabrics and curtain draperies come in for special mention. There were fewer lookers than we expected. The new goods and reasonable prices was the attraction and nearly all became purchasers. Our first day was one of great satisfaction and take it as an omen to a reasonable success. We do not know how better to express our thanks than to say we use no decoys but represent everything as it should be and warrant every statement true made about the quality of goods.

Personal.

Misses Caddle and Annie Fuller, of Durham, are in the city.

Mr. Sherwood House, who has been on a visit to friends and relatives in Kansas, returned home yesterday afternoon. He says he had a most enjoyable time.

Mr. Caledon Hutchings has taken a position in the establishment of Claude A. Sherwood & Co. where he will be pleased to see his friends. Mr. Hutchings was for many years clerk for Mr. A. Creech in the dry goods business and is fully up in that line. Give him a call.

Col. F. A. Olds has returned from a trip to Panama Springs.

The World's Fair.

Every one within the borders of the United States will want to go to the World's Fair and the way is to save your money, for without it you can't go. Now we will help you right here if you will let us; if you want a carpet we will save you money if you want a dress we will save you money or if you want shoes, hats, gents furnishings or anything kept in a complete stock of dry goods we will save you money enough to go see the great World's Fair.

SWINDELL.

If you want to save money on shoes buy them of Woolcott & Sons.

Nice fresh table butter at D. T. Johnson's.

Imported Clothes.

The following letter speaks for itself and needs no comment. The goods referred to have arrived and are now open for inspection.

HADDERSFIELD, Eng. Aug. 1, '92. Mr. Geo. N. Walters, Raleigh, N. C.: The fall selections of woollens which we have made for you this season are of the finest quality that our looms have produced. They have all been made from specially selected Australian wool. You can highly recommend them for their colors and durability. In designs the quiet and subdued appear to be those demanded by the ultra fashionable merchant tailors. You will find your patterns in styles far superior to any we have made for the English market.

FISHER & Co.,
Manufacturers.

Our stock of dress goods, silks, velvets and trimmings for fall wear is complete, and we have some excellent values. Our millinery department is being filled with all newest styles and shapes. All our goods are marked in plain figures and one price to all. Woolcott & Sons.
