The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Threatening weather with rain. Cooler on the upper coast.

Local forecast for this vicinity: On Wednesday: Light rain.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 78; minimum temperature 67; rainfall 0.01.

CITY IN BRIEF.

There is no material change in the condition of Treasurer Bain, as we learn.

Active preparation has commenced on the fair grounds and from now on things will be lively.

People who give Hood's Sarsaparilla a fair trial realize its great merit and are glad to say a good word for it. Have you tried it?

Secure seats for "Killarney and the Rhine." They can be had at MacRae's drug store. Remember it's the great sensation of the season.

Eleven shipwrecked sailors of the ship North America, who sunk off the Japan coast, have safely arrived at San Francisco.

Called to join Rev. Dr. Pierson in Spurgeon's Tabernacle, London, Rev. M. R. Dening has resigned as pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist Church at Boston.

Seven men were instantly killed and about 20 others injured by a boiler explosion yesterday, near Comber, Ont.

Condemned to be hanged at Pineville, Mo., Desperado Bud Blunt has had his sentence commuted to life imprisonment.

Portland, Ore., is clad in bunting and evergreens to welcome visiting delegates of the Sovereign Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F.

A new commandry of Knights Templar was instituted at Oxford today. Mr. R. H. Bradley and others from this city are in attendance.

Regular convocation of Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, will be held this (Tuesday) evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance desired. Visiting companions cordially invited to attend.

The practice of throwing grape hulls on the sidewalk is a bad one and should be stopped. It renders persons liable to serious accident from falls.

Let Raleigh merchants look after space for exhibits at the State Fair. It is being rapidly taken and those who may be laggard in the matter may have cause for regret.

Our Winston friends covered themselves with glory yesterday no doubt, but, we are afraid their zeal ran away with their judgment in estimating the crowd at 80,000.

Miss Alice Ferrell left the city today for Aulander N. C. where she will engage in teaching in the Aulander Female Academy. She takes with her our best wishes for the success she so richly deserves.

There will be a meeting of the board of managers of the centennial celebration at the Mayor's office next Friday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock, at which time it is desired there should be a full attendance.

We are informed that the contemplated sale of the Progressive Farmer of this city, if it takes place will be without political significance, and will be in the nature of a business transaction arising from the administration upon the estate of the late Col. L. L. Polk.

Caraleigh now looks like a thriving village with its nice and convenient cottages. We have no doubt it will in a year or so become one of the most popular suburbs of Raleigh. In due time, we must think the street car lines will be extended to the place, which will, of course, not only render the property more valuable, but it will be a great source of convenience to operatives in the mills, and others.

Cannot something be done to improve the pavement on the south side of Hargett, between Wilmington and Blount streets. It is one of the roughest places in the city, and almost impassible at night.

The ceremonies incident to the reception of Gen. Weaver, Third party candidate for the presidency, will take place in Brookside Park on the 29th inst.

There will be a musicale at the house of R. H. Battle, Esq., next Friday evening, for the benefit of St. Mary's Guild of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

"Killarney and the Rhine" will be the great attraction at Metropolitan Hall next Thursday night. It is a roaring comedy full of wit and genuine fun. It occupies a high position on theatrical boards. We bespeak a crowded house. Secure seats early at John Y. MacRae's drug store.

Died.

This morning at 8:20 o'clock at the residence of his brother Capt. Thos. Kirkland on East Jones street, Mr. John Kirkland, aged 35 years, one month and two days. The remains will be carried to Chapel Hill for interment.

HADDERSFIELD, Eng. Aug. 1, '92.
Mr. Geo. N. Walters, Raleigh, N. C.:
The fall selections of wooleens which we have made for you this season are of the finest quality that our looms have produced. They have all been made from specially selected Australian wool. You can highly recommend them for their colors and durability. In designs the quiet and subdued appear to be those demanded by the ultra fashionable merchant tailors. You will find your patterns in styles far superior to any we have made for the English market.
