CITY IN BRIEF.

Nice rains.
Judge Avery is organizing his class of law students at Trinity College.
The Geo. Wilson minstrels will be here on the 27th, inst.
Miss Bessie Alston has returned to the city from a trip to Durham.
A new band has been organized in Durham.
All accounts agree that the cotton crop will be short.
Watermelons are a luxury of the past.
Jno. M. Sherwood, of Atlanta, Ga., is at home on a visit.
A big barbecue is talked of in business circles for early in October.
Master Claude Denson is still improving, although he is not yet fully recovered his speech.
The sun crosses the line tomorrow and the days and nights will then be about equal for a day or so.
The Republicans have established their campaign headquarters in this city.
Hon. Jno. C. Scarborough has just returned from a trip to Western North Carolina.
The "Mac Page club" is the title of a new political organization in Oberlin, composed of colored people.
The county political canvass will hardly commence before October 15th.
Any man who is seen throwing scuppernon hulls on the sidewalk—well; scare him on the spot.
Mr. Joe W. Spears, General Agent of the Geo. Wilson minstrels, is in the city.
Goldsboro is putting on its holiday garb for the reception of Gen. Stevenson tomorrow.
The Cuban party under the escort of Maj. E. G. Herrell, is fast being made up. They will leave in January next.
The manuscript of Senator Vance's letter to the people of North Carolina is now in the hands of the printer.
Mr. Wm J. Hall has accepted a situation with Mr. D. T. Swindell, and would be glad to see his many friends especially from the country.
L. H. Adams & Co. have just opened a commission house in Adams building next door to Commercial and Farmer's Bank.
Mr. B. H. Woodell, who has been absent from the city for the past two weeks, returned today.
When weak, weary and worn out, Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine to restore your strength and give you a good appetite.
Gen. Weaver is attended on his tour by his wife and another lady. It is said that Mrs. Weaver is about as well posted on political matters generally as her husband.
Applications for license to practice law, will be fewer this year than for a long time. There will be perhaps about twenty from the law school at Chapel Hill.
The interest in the Centennial is spreading throughout North Carolina. All the people of the State should delight to honor the capital on that occasion.
Judge Seymour is in the city. He will during the week file an opinion involving the right of the State to tax the Seaboard railway. He may also render an opinion on the right of the State to impose tonnage tax.

Mr. Cranfill, the Prohibition candidate for the Vice Presidency, who is announced to speak in this city next Saturday, is said to be a fine orator. There will no doubt be a large turnout to hear him.
State Chemist Battle is busily engaged preparing the many samples of grain for exhibition at the World's Fair. They are being packed in air tight boxes and undergo the process of fumigation. Some of the samples are the finest ever raised in the State.
The decision of the Raleigh Typographical Union to have a float in the centennial procession will add much to the occasion. It is a graceful and patriotic act on the part of the fraternity, who are never behind in any matter in which the honor or credit of our city is involved.
The new dormitory at the Agricultural and Mechanical College was occupied yesterday. Work on the new barn has commenced and many other improvements are being made to the grounds and buildings. New scholars are daily arriving and the outlook for a largely increased attendance over last year is most encouraging. So far we have heard mention of no successor to Prof. Kinealey.
Our friend J. E. Uzzle, formerly of Raleigh, but now of the Zinzendorf hotel, at Winston, made Gen. Stevenson a present of a rabbit's foot which he said was procured at the old city cemetery of Raleigh six years ago. "June" told the general that it was a harbinger of good luck, and promised him if he accepted it that he would carry North Carolina by 20,000. Of course time alone will only tell whether the prediction will verify or not.
We hear that a very absurd rumor has been spread in the country that there is a case of cholera in this city. This is a most ridiculous misrepresentation to say the least of it. Rarely in our history has Raleigh been healthier in all respects than now, and so far as the cholera is concerned it is about the last place we expect to hear of it, if ever. Such a rumor may be classed a cruel, and we fear, malicious hoax.
The usual croaking predictions about a hard winter before us, have already commenced. A short crop of acorns is made the excuse. An old gentleman from the country said today, that the snakes had mostly gone in their hole already, which he said was a never failing sign of severe weather in the winter. Another said that Presidential elections were always followed by cold weather of the keenest kind. He said the only way he could account for it was that it was a punishment for all the slanders uttered by the politicians.
Jewish Holiday
The Jewish new year will commence at sunset this evening and will be strictly observed by our orthodox Hebrew fellow citizens. It is indeed a sacred day with Israelites the world over, and the prayers on the occasion are of a very sacred character, being to a great extent reminders of the day of atonement which the Jews believe to be approaching. One of the particular services on the occasion of the new year is the blowing of the ram's horn, commemorative of the willingness of Abraham to sacrifice his son Isaac.
On October 1st will be the day of atonement, which is considered the most sacred in the Jewish calendar. On the preceding day, and all day Saturday, during the twenty four hours from dusk to dusk, food and refreshments of every kind, including water, are positively forbidden.
On Oct. 6th, the Feast of Tabernacles commences and ends on the 13th, the last being known as the eighth day of Solemn Assembly.
A Reward.
Lost, between the corner of Salisbury and Dawson streets and Oakdale, either on the street or cars, a pair of gold spectacles. A suitable reward will be given the finder upon their return to this office. sep23

"Killarney and the Rhine."
The blending of the Emerald Isle with the German Empire will be the feature of the amusement at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night. It will be the joining of the "sweet German accent" with the "rich Irish brogue" and it will be an occasion on which all can laugh who so desire. We can assure our readers on the authority of those who are presumed to know that it is a rich, rare, and racy performance, and, as such it should receive the greatest patronage. Let there be a large turnout.

HADDERSFIELD, Eng. Aug. 1, '92. Mr. Geo. N. Walters, Raleigh, N. C.: The fall selections of woollens which we have made for you this season are of the finest quality that our looms have produced. They have all been made from specially selected Australian wool. You can highly recommend them for their colors and durability. In designs the quiet and subdued appear to be those demanded by the ultra fashionable merchant tailors. You will find your patterns in styles far superior to any we have made for the English market.
