RALEIGH, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1892.

NO. 131

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Fair weather. Local forecast for this vicinity: On Sunday and Monday: Fair weather, continued warm. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature, 79; minimum temperature 64; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

This is the commencement of the year 5653 in the Jewish calendar.

No falling off in the scuppernon trade.

Manager Heartt has several first class opera troupes in view for the present season.

The costumes of our "grand daddies and grand mammies" will be worn at the Centennial ball.

Our friend Dughl has an Irish potato almost exactly the very image of a baboon. Call and see it. You will find it a curious critter.

There not being a full meeting of the Cleveland-Carr Democratic club Thursday night another one is called to be held Monday night at the mayor's office.

Every testimonial regarding Hood's Sarsaparilla is an honest, unpurchased statement of what this medicine has actually done.

Let all our people heartily join in pushing forward the Centennial and State Fair. These are the main events now before the people of our city.

The total expenses of the penitentiary for the quarter ending August 31st were $40,003.02. Total earnings $33,939.30. Expenses over earnings $16,043.

At the meeting of Board of Managers of the Centennial celebration held yesterday afternoon in the Mayor's office Col. J. M. Heck was selected as Chief Marshal of the occasion.

We are authorized and requested to state that the musicale which was to have taken place last night at the residence of Mr. R. H. Battle, was postponed until a future date on account of the death of Mr. Pierre Cox. The date will be announced hereafter.

The funeral of Prof. Baumann took place from the First Presbyterian Church this afternoon at 3 o'clock. There was a very large turnout including the Knights of Pythias of which order he was a member. The pupils of Peace Institute were in attendance.

Sun Flowers.

There is medical authority for the statement that the sun flower is a great absorber of malaria, and the Charlotte News advises all who can, to save the seed. It says that there has been no fever in Charlotte the past summer than usual and it accounts for it from the number of sun flowers in the place.

WHITING

Mr. Pierre Cox, son of Hon. W. R. Cox, died at the residence of Mr. Parker in Warrenton, at 11:30 o'clock last Thursday night in the 26th year of his age. The remains were brought to the city yesterday and the funeral took place from Christ Church this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The bereaved family have our sincere sympathy.

Justice Merrimon's Condition.

The following explains itself: Editor of the Evening Visitor:

In compliance with your request to inform you what Chief Justice Merrimon's condition is today, it affords me pleasure to state that he is better.

E. BURKE HAYWOOD, M. D., HUBERT HAYWOOD, M. D., Attending Physicians.

Sept. 24th, 1892.

In our millinery department is a large lot of ribbons, very wide, all shades, 20c a yard.

Special Meetings at the Tabernacle.

Prof. G. Tabor Thompson, author of "Ministry of Song" comes from New York City to be with Dr. Hall in the meetings at the Tabernacle. He is a man of great musical talent, a sweet singer and an earnest Christian. Rev. J. R. Harrison the evangelist of Virginia, a preacher of great power will also be present, and will begin his work the first Sunday in October. Prof. Thompson will be here earlier and preparatory meetings will commence on Monday at 7:30 p. m.

Personal.

Miss Lula Riddle who has been on a visit of several weeks to Durham, has returned home.

Mrs. Julius Lewis is visiting friends in Durham.

Maj. J. B. Hussy, of Washington City, former editor of the Greensboro Patriot, is in the city.

Maj. W. A. Guthrie, of Durham, is here.

Mrs. H. M. Farnsworth, who has been on quite an extended visit to Boston and other points north, returned to her home in this city yesterday.

Judge Connor is in the city and will hold court on Monday.

Dr. A. J. Buffalo and family returned from Western North Carolina yesterday afternoon.

A Near Escape.

Mr. F. P. Williams, of St. Mathew's township, this county, killed a moccasin snake in his bedroom this morning about 2 o'clock, that measured thirty inches in length. One of the children was complaining and Mrs. Williams got up and lighted a lamp and went to the bed, attended to the children, and then went to the door to get some water. On returning she saw the snake coming from under the bed where the little ones slept. It is not known how long the snake had been in the house, but it must have come in during the afternoon. It was a narrow escape for the children.

Interesting Exercises.

Special attention is called to the notice of exercises at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms tomorrow afternoon, at 4 o'clock. The State Secretary, Mr. L. A. Coulter, who is in the city, will make an address on a very striking subject—"Impossibilities." The music for the occasion and the address will doubtless be a treat to those who attend. The program is as follows: L. A. Coulter, State Secretary, speaker.

Instrumental Quartette—"Redeemed," McGranahan. Mr. J. W. Cheek, 1st cornet, Mr. C. F. Lumsden, 2d cornet, Mr. Roscoe Nunn, flute, Mr. B. F. Womble, Violinist, Mr. Wm. Cooper, accompanist.

Solo—One Sweetly Solemn Thought. Ambrose, A. H. Yerby. T. C. Williams, Jr., chorister.

Fall and Winter Shoes.

All new and fresh goods, made in advance for this season's trade. Our entire stock is made up specially for our trade by the most noted factories of this country. Remember, we sell none but the best shoes made and guarantee every pair to wear as represented. For style, fit and durability our shoes are recognized by all as the best. We can fit any man woman or child. Ask to see our line of children's school shoes. We can and will save you money.

Norris' Dry Goods Store.

Millinery New and Lovely.

We are now prepared to take orders for hats. Our new milliner thoroughly understands the business. Our new stock is in and we have special bargains. From one to three dollars can be saved on trimmed hats. We have some very beautiful things in ladies untrimmed felt hats. Will tell you later.

D. T. SWINDELL.

Our millinery department is full of new goods and we are certain to suit you in price and style.

Woolcott & Sons.

Fine bananas 25c a dozen and 30c a dozen at A Dughl's.

Great bargains in shoes at Woolcott & Sons.

Fine Norfolk oysters every night. Prepared or by measure delivered at any time at A Dughl's.

We bought our stock before the cholera scare and when stocks were more complete in first hands than they were two weeks ago, and we bought them as cheap as any of our competitors here who bought them during the scare. The fact is, goods have stiffened in price since we bought, and all you have to do is to see our goods and the prices of them will convince you that they are as cheap as the very cheapest.

Woolcott & Sons

To Please the Ladies

Is our desire. We are satisfied with narrow margins, and glad to give our trade the benefit. The ladies appreciate it, talk it, praise our goods and applaud our endeavors, supply their wants, proudly show their bargains to neighbors and friends with a conscious air that none can "beat them" in quality or price. This is as it should be and points others to the place where goods are honestly represented and so warranted, and where money is refunded without grumbling if things are not right.

Sherwood's.

California pears and peaches at A. Dughl's. Telephone 123

Six Hundred Strong.

Today we have piled on a table right at the Fayetteville street door, six hundred bolts of ribbon, of the very finest material and various new bright colors. Also white and cream from three to six inches wide. For a few days we will sell this ribbon at 25 cents a yard—$2.50 a bolt. This ribbon will give you a fair idea of how low we are prepared to sell goods this fall. Will tell you right here that every store in Raleigh has to pay more for this grade of ribbon than our present price.

D. T. SWINDELL.

Inexpensive Dress Goods.

For children's dresses we are showing two lines of dress materials at 25c per yard. One, all wool double width suiting in solid colors, the other double width, fancy mixtures. These are the slightest and best values shown at the price.

Also new gingham in small patterns and dark colors. New lines of printed cotton dress goods, fast colors, at 10c and 12 1/2c per yard. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

Our Clothing Department.

We have purchased 1,000 suits of clothing for men and boys at a great bargain. We have marked each suit in plain figures and we sell them at marked price. Each suit is a bargain. We send out no clothing on approval. Woolcott & Sons.

Imported Clothes.

The following letter speaks for itself and needs no comment. The goods referred to have arrived and are now open for inspection.

HADDERSFIELD, Eng. Aug. 1, '92. Mr. Geo. N. Walters, Raleigh, N. C.: The fall selections of woollens which we have made for you this season are of the finest quality that our looms have produced. They have all been made from specially selected Australian wool. You can highly recommend them for their colors and durability. In designs the quiet and subdued appear to be those demanded by the ultra fashionable merchant tailors. You will find your patterns in styles far superior to any we have made for the English market.
