VOL. XXVII.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1892.

NO. 132

CITY IN BRIEF.

The docket of the Superior Court this week is not very large.

Wake Superior court commenced today with Judge Bryan presiding.

Mrs J. H. Baker and children are on a visit to Mrs. C. F. Reaves in Durham.

There are we learn, several students sick at the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

North Carolina 4 per cent consols still hold their own at 99. No reason why they should not be at par.

Joseph Ruby, of Columbia, Pa., suffered from birth with scrofula humor, till he was perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Good middling cotton is now quoted at 7 1/2 cents. This is some little encouragement to our farmers and we hope it may be the forerunner of better times.

The base of the proposed Confederate monument designed by Prof Chas. B. Park, of the A. and M. College is now on exhibition at the store of Messrs. A. Williams & Co.

We are pleased to hear that every effort will be made to have the new hotel in readiness for the reception of guests by the time the legislature meets.

The revenue collections for the past week at Durham, amounted to $17,690 90. And still there is no government building.

Capt. Peyton Brown the veteran conductor who has been with his family to the western part of the State on a short vacation, has returned to the city, ready for duty.

The active members of the Y. M. C. A. are requested to meet at the association tonight at 8:30 for a short while in order to have a conference with the State Secretary.

The date of the sale of blooded stock by Capt. B. P. Williamson has been changed from Wednesday Nov. 9th, to Friday Nov. 11th, next, at which time it is presumed the result of the elections will be known and our people will have an eye more directly to business.

The revival meetings at Central Methodist Church continue to grow with increasing interest. The congregation on yesterday at both services were large and attentive and many anxious enquirers at the altar. There have been about 17 or 18 conversions. The meetings will be continued through the week and the pastor will be assisted by Rev. D. H. Tuttle of Tarboro N. C. Every body invited to attend.

Y. M. C. A. Items.

The largest crowd that has ever gathered in the Young Men's Christian Association were present yesterday afternoon to hear the State Secretary's address. There was one conversion.

Education Free.

The Young Men's Christian Association has made arrangements already that the young men of our city may learn stenography penmanship, mathematics and history. Business forms, civil government free of charge. The most competent professors have been secured to conduct the classes which will be held at night.

This opportunity is offered to members only and as the class number will be limited those desiring to join should report immediately to the general secretary. The classes will begin Oct. 1st and continue until Feb. 1st.

Meetings.

Wm G Hill Lodge, No. 218, tonight at 8 o'clock. Visiting brethren invited.

Cleveland Carr club tonight at Mayor's office. Delegates to the National Association at New York to be elected.

Centre Lodge, No. 8, Knights of Pythias tonight. Business of importance. Work in the ranks. Full attendance of members specially requested and visiting brethren invited.

Mrs. W. H. Lyon, of the Lyon Racket store, has returned from the north where she bought a large stock of dry goods, millinery, &c., for her two stores here. Her milliner from Baltimore will be here in few days.

The services at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon were peculiarly impressive. There was a good attendance and the music unusually interesting.

The attendance on the revival services at Central Methodist Church continues large. So far there have been many conversions and considerable number of enquiries. Rev. D. H. Tuttle, of Tarboro, is assisting the pastor in the conduct of services.

Gen. Weaver, candidate of the Third party for President of the United States arrived in the city at a late hour last Saturday night, and is stopping at the Tarboro House. He is accompanied by his wife and Mrs. Lease of Kansas.

The Rosenthal clothing company come to the front in our advertising columns, today, in an announcement that cannot fail to attract general attention. It should be remembered that our friend Mr. David Rosenthal is head and front of this establishment and that his experience in the business is such that he knows how to meet the wants of all our people. Read the advertisement and call and examine the immense stock. There is none better or at more reasonable prices to be found in all the Southern States.

Wilson's Minstrels.

This splendid troupe will appear at Metropolitan Hall tomorrow night, and it will be a grand event for all lovers of minstrelsy in its perfection. It is the general verdict of the press and critics wherever they have appeared that it is the foremost company now before the public. It is conceded that there is no equal in the "burnt cork" line of George Wilson, and his name is but the harbinger of wit and fun all through the South where the company has become a great favorite. It is more than likely that there will be a vast crowd in attendance tomorrow night, and all who desire comfortable seats should procure them at once at John MacRae's drug store, and, thus avoid a rush.

Funerals.

The First Presbyterian church was crowded to its utmost capacity last Saturday afternoon in attendance upon the funeral exercises of the late Prof. Baumann. The scholars of Peace Institute were present in a body. Rev. Dr. W. D. Morton officiated assisted by Rev. A. W. Cheatham. The floral offerings were beautiful especially a lovely cross contributed by Centre Lodge, No. 8, K. of P., of which the deceased was a member. At the grave in Oakwood cemetery the services were peculiarly solemn and impressive, rendered so by the young ladies of the institute who sang a most appropriate hymn and contributed each a white rose bud thrown into the grave as a tribute to their beloved instructor. Mrs. W. W. Vass and choir of the First Baptist church were in attendance and officiated. The elders of the First Presbyterian church acted as pallbearers. The funeral of the late Mr. Pierre Cox, son of Hon. W. R. Cox took place last Saturday afternoon from Christ Church, and was largely attended. The remains were interred in Oakwood Cemetery, Rev. Dr. M. M. Marshall officiating. The floral offerings were very pretty. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: Messrs. W. P. McGehee, Frank P. Haywood Jr., W. H. King, W. H. Bain, Alex. Stronach, Wm. Grimes, Thos. Badger Jr., H. W. Jackson.

Preparatory services for the special meetings to be held at the Baptist Tabernacle, will commence tonight at 7:30. Rev. Dr. Hall will be assisted by Rev. J. R. Harrison of Virginia.

Wanted. A young lady as clerk in a retail store. Apply, stating experience, to Box 274, Raleigh, N. C.

Well Directed. Our aim is to sell our goods so low that no person could have the face to ask us to take less. We like the "one price plan," with figure fixed so reasonable that if once you purchase from us your conscience would not permit you to go elsewhere. The variety and selection of our stock meets the commendations of the trading public, and our manner of refunding the money without quibbling for uncut articles when occasion requires it, secures a general endorsement. We will do the fair thing. C. A. Sherwood & Co.

Keep Close to the Band Wagon and watch out for your opportunity. Until Oct. 1st we will sell the "Fitzhugh Lee" cook stove (heaviest and best stove made) at cost. Only a few left. These goods must go, as we are soon to give our entire attention to the mechanical branch of the business, which has so increased as to demand our entire time. In future we will confine ourselves to tin and sheet iron roofing, guttering, piping, galvanized iron and zinc work, hot air furnace work, stove repairing, roof painting and repairing, &c. In fact, we are prepared to do promptly all work in sheet metals. Respectfully, se26 6t CHAS. F. LUMSDEN & Co.

One, all wool double width suiting in solid colors, the other double width, fancy mixtures. These are the lightest and best values shown at the price. Also new gingham in small patterns and dark colors. New lines of printed cotton dress goods, fast colors, at 10c and 12 1/2c per yard. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

Imported Clothes. The following letter speaks for itself and needs no comment. The goods referred to have arrived and are now open for inspection. HADDERSFIELD, Eng Aug. 1, '92. Mr. Geo. N. Walters, Raleigh, N. C.: The fall selections of woollens which we have made for you this season are of the finest quality that our looms have produced. They have all been made from specially selected Australian wool. You can highly recommend them for their colors and durability. In designs the quiet and subdued appear to be those demanded by the ultra fashionable merchant tailors. You will find your patterns in styles far superior to any we have made for the English market. FISHER & Co., se23 1t Manufacturers.

Six Hundred Strong. Today we have piled on a table right at the Fayetteville street door, six hundred bolts of ribbon, of the very finest material and various new bright colors. Also white and cream from three to six inches wide. For a few days we will sell this ribbon at 25 cents a yard—$2 50 a bolt. This ribbon will give you a fair idea of how low we are prepared to sell goods this fall. Will tell you right here that every store in Raleigh has to pay more for this grade of ribbon than our present price. D. T. SWINDELL.

Fresh Fish and Oysters. I will have fresh fish and oysters daily at Sorrell's old stand, Wilmington street. Ed Stephen.
