The Weather Today.

Local forecast for this vicinity: On Thursday: Fair weather, becoming slowly warmer.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 73; minimum temperature 49; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

There will be a called meeting of the Board of Aldermen tonight. A few lonely looking watermelons still linger on the market.

The synod of North Carolina will meet at Statesville October 18th.

There were twenty eight successful applicants for license before the Supreme Court

Gen. Weaver and party are expected to arrive here on the train that reaches this city from the west tomorrow morning at 2 o'clock.

There is still an improvement in the condition of Judge Merrimon. We sincerely hope he may soon fully recover.

The Raleigh and Gaston railroad company has declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent payable on October 1st, 1892

In connection with shows generally we would suggest that the programs be printed in larger type, as it is of ten hard to read frequently, especially when the light of the hall is dim.

The many friends of Rev. W. S. Black in this city, will be glad to learn that he has almost entirely recovered from the effects of the recent accident he suffered by the runaway of a horse

The performance of the Chick Medicine Company at Metropolitan Hall next Friday night will be for the benefit of St. John's hospital. Admission 25 cents. Gallery 15 cents; reserved seats 37 cents.

The New Berne Daily Journal of yesterday says: Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Gilbert S. Waters of this city, to Miss Maggie Seales, of Raleigh, on October 12th.

Dr. H. B. Battle, State Chemist and T. K. Bruner, Commissioner of Agriculture are in Winston, consulting chairman P. M. Wilson of the committee on collections for North Carolina's exhibit at the World's Fair.

Judging from letters received from all parts of North Carolina and other states it is almost certain that the coming fair and centennial celebration will be one of the grandest events that has ever taken place in our city. Nothing will be left undone to make it meet expectations in every respect. Let all our people unite with the officials in pushing the grand enterprise.

A good audience greeted the Geo. Wilson minstrels at Metropolitan hall last night and the performance in all its parts came fully up to expectation. "Wilson" particularly is a pronounced success in all particulars and his support is most excellent. As a "wit" he brought down the house.

The winter is fast approaching and it becomes all housekeepers to look after making themselves comfortable. In the matter of furniture there should be many changes, and there is no place in North Carolina where everything in this line can be secured at better rates than at the superb establishment of Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell, Exchange Place.

These gentlemen have on hand such a variety of goods in their line, that it is impossible to enumerate them in the small space of an advertisement. Their immense establishment must be visited to be appreciated. Here it is, that everything the fancy can suggest is presented to view and the prices are so enticing that hardly any can refrain from supplying themselves. We especially call upon the ladies to make their selections early. They will find these gentlemen always ready to show them around, and they cannot fail to be pleased with what they see. Remember the establishment is on Exchange Place south of market.

Fires comfortable this morning.

There is no material change in the condition of State Treasurer Bain.

Put on your flannel, but, if you do, don't take it off again soon.

Seats are being carried to Brookside Park today for those who desire to hear the address of Gen Weaver.

A bal poudre will be given by the young ladies of Raleigh at the armory tonight at 9 o'clock.

The Sunday School Reporter, with W. H. Thompson and R. C. Gulley, as editors, has made its appearance in Durham

The meetings at Central Methodist Church are progressing with an abated interest and there are many penitents.

Mr. Wallace Riddick, has assumed the duties of the chair of mechanics at the A & M College to which he was recently elected.

There will be a large delegation from the Cleveland and Carr club to the National Convention of Democratic Clubs which meets in New York October 6th.

Hood's Sarsaparilla absolutely cures all diseases caused by impure blood and it builds up the whole system.

The arrangements are on foot preparing for the speaking of Gen. Weaver and Mrs. Lease at Brookside Park tomorrow. They spoke in Greensboro today.

A most destructive fire occurred in Burlington a few days since. Mr. S. A. Salmon, of that place had his entire mercantile establishment burned losing $4000.

The auditing committee of the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad Co. show a decided improvement in its condition. The "old mullet road," as it has been called, is getting on its feet again.

Registration books now open. If you have arrived at the age of 21 since last election, then you should register. If you have removed your residence you should see to it that your name is transferred.

Yesterday afternoon the sheriff of Chatham, left this city having in charge James Cheatham who was brought here and lodged in jail a few days ago from Pittsboro owing to the feeling against him for alleged abduction of a young girl.

A pamphlet is being extensively circulated showing the advantages and opportunities to young men and others of the Y. M. C. A. We earnestly hope it may be productive of much good. There is no institution in our midst more deserving of success, and we hope it may have the full measure of prosperity.

The meetings at the Baptist Tabernacle which began on Monday night have been well attended and of deep interest. Dr. Hall is looking for Prof. Thompson to reach here this afternoon or tomorrow. Meetings will continue every night, and a cordial invitation is extended to strangers as well as our people to attend them.

Mr. Wm. Lemon will probably be returned to Burlington, Alamance by this afternoon's train on requisition from the authorities of that place.

There will be public speaking at the court house Saturday night, Oct. 1, by the Prohibition candidates. Every voter requested to come out and hear the issues discussed which most concerns all.

H. J. DOWELL,
Chairman Executive Committee.

A Noble Purpose.

A circle of King's Daughters was organized at Trinity Seminary, Durham, last Saturday, with 9 members. The object is to start a hospital fund, which they hope, with some outside aid, to make a success. We are pleased to hear of this movement on the part of the noble ladies who compose the circle. It is a most laudable enterprise, and all persons blessed with means should aid as much as possible. Mrs. Stewart McQueen is secretary to whom communications should be addressed.

At Sherwood's Today.

Cool mornings crowd our minds with ideas of warmer clothing, footwear, headgear, &c. Brisk, sharp days, work wonders with trading people. To yourself say, where can I best supply my wants? We beg leave to suggest Sherwood's.

A new stock, low prices, honest representations and experienced salesmen greet you. No trouble to show goods; we make it pleasant for you. No one insists on your buying. Your own self interest should induce you to inspect our stock and hear our prices before buying. Seeing is believing.
C. A. Sherwood & Co.

Our clothing stock is superb.
Woolcott & Sons.

Oh, We are so Sorry.

Several persons who have come in our store right recently through curiosity, after they had done their trading at some other store, have been made to express themselves as being "so sorry." My friend, did you read our advertisements? Yes, but I did not believe them as there is so much falsehoods advertised. Now, the idea of any one coming down town to trade; do all your trading, then go to Swindell's to see if his advertisements are true. We think this is the most foolish thing we have ever had the misfortune to know of. Do you think we would advertise something at a price when we did not have the goods advertised. None but an idiot would be so foolish. Whatever we advertise we have. Now we are selling every line of goods cheaper than any other store. Respectfully,
D. T. SWINDELL.

Imported Clothes.

The following letter speaks for itself and needs no comment. The goods referred to have arrived and are now open for inspection.

HADDERSFIELD, Eng Aug. 1, '92. Mr. Geo. N. Walters, Raleigh, N. C.: The fall selections of woollens which we have made for you this season are of the finest quality that our looms have produced. They have all been made from specially selected Australian wool. You can highly recommend them for their colors and durability. In designs the quiet and subdued appear to be those demanded by the ultra fashionable merchant tailors. You will find your patterns in styles far superior to any we have made for the English market.
