The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Fair, cooler in western portion.

Local forecast for this vicinity: On Sunday: Fair, stationary temperature.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 81; minimum temperature 57; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The "Two Old Cronies" is said to be equal to "A Breezy Time."

See notice of stockholders meeting of the N. J. Wagon Company.

Mr. Will Gruendler, of Springfield, Mass., is here on a visit to his mother.

A large crowd attended the circus at Durham yesterday.

October opened with most delightful weather.

Col Jno. N. Staples, of Greensboro, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

Several Durham families are making arrangements to spend the winter in Florida and Georgia.

A considerable number of our colored people went up to see the circus at Durham—so says the Globe.

Our Hebrew friends pretty generally observed today as a holiday, it being the day of Atonement.

All the machinery for lighting Trinity College with electricity has been placed in position.

Quite a crowd of country people in the city today and transactions in cotton have been large.

Let us all suspend politics awhile and talk about the State Fair and Centennial.

Appeals from the first district in the Supreme Court were concluded yesterday.

Mrs. J. A. Sanders and children have returned to the city from a visit to relatives in the eastern part of the state.

Don't forget that birds cannot be hunted before November 1st. If you do, trouble may arise, with costs added.

Owing to the financial difficulties it is understood that there will be no fair of the Colored Industrial Association, held this year.

There are now 280 students at the University of North Carolina. This is about the highest number since the war.

Take Hood's and only Hood's because Hood's Sarsaparilla cures. It possesses merit peculiar to itself. Try it yourself.

We had the pleasure of meeting in the city today, Mr. Jack MacKay, business manager of the Deshon Opera Co.

On Monday at 13 o'clock there will be sold at the court house door some valuable property belonging to the Smith-Morsehead estate. See advertisement.

It is announced that Bishop W. W. Duncan will hold the North Carolina Methodist conference this year instead of Bishop A. G. Hagwood, as previously announced.

The Chick Medicine Company's performance, at Metropolitan Hall last night for the benefit of St. John's Hospital, was well attended and highly enjoyed.

Rev. Dr. Eugene Daniel, the newly elected pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will occupy his pulpit to-morrow morning and evening. He is regarded as one of the finest preachers in the Southern Presbyterian church.

The usual religious worship will be held at the Y. M. C. A. building to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock. Mr. T. C. Williams will lead the meeting. A short talk for boys at 2:30 o'clock by Mr. T. C. Williams, Jr. Lively music and good singing may be expected. Every young man of Raleigh is respectfully invited.

The reunion of veterans at Cedar Fork takes place Friday, Oct. 7th and not 17th, as some papers have it. Let everybody go.

There will be a speaking by prominent gentlemen of the Prohibition party at the court house tonight at 8 o'clock. Public invited.

Now that the summer season is over we hope the street car folks and others, interested, may look up some winter sport for Brookside Park. How about a skating rink? We have heard it suggested as just the thing.

Attention Rescue-Fire Company.

Regular monthly meeting of your company next Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Died.

Yesterday afternoon, at the residence of Capt. W. H. Day, in this city, Mrs. Tempe Williams Hall wife of Mr. Richard S. Hall. The funeral took place from the residence this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Marshall officiating.

Sunday at the Tabernacle.

Rev. J. R. Harrison, the evangelist of Virginia will assist Dr. Hall to-morrow, and preach morning and night. Prof. Thompson of New York city will have charge of the music. The public all cordially invited.

Married.

This morning at 2 o'clock Mr. J. A. Holleman of the State Chronicle reached the city, and wending his way to the Yarboro House was united in marriage to Miss Nannie Kerner, of Kernesville. It was a private marriage with the exception of three witnesses. We extend to our young friend the most cordial congratulations, and hope that he may have no troubles to Chronicle through life.

The Deshon Company.

All the talk now is about the great operatic event of the coming week when the Deshon Opera Company will present at Metropolitan Hall the celebrated "Erminie." The Deshon Company is undoubtedly one of the finest that has ever visited the Southern States, and Manager Heartt deserves praise for placing it before the amusement loving portion of our people. It is composed of about 40 persons, and carry their own orchestra, which is simply grand. Frank Deshon the foremost of the troupe is widely and most favorably known in the musical world, and critics everywhere accord to him the highest praise. In all the principal cities of the Union, this company has won golden opinions from the press and public.

Two Old Cronies.

W. C. Anderson's unique comedians, in the new and greatest of all musical farce comedies, "Two Old Cronies," a charming musical farce comedy extravaganza in three good acts, without a brain exhausting plot, but replete with music, high class comedy and fun galore, however more plot than any other alleged farce comedy, will be presented with an entire new company, headed by such eminent lights as E. M. Ryan, John Sheehan, Gussie Hart, Mlle. Elvira Faucette, Minnie Layton. The fascinating Hollywood Sesters—Lotte and Babe—Nettie Revere Frederick Carberry, the golden voice tenor, Lindsay Morrison—Wesley Shendain, Will Ahem, Paul Jansen and the Cronies Quartette. Everything will be new and sparkling—songs, dances, music, jokes, costumes and scenery, introducing the greatest of all successes, the widows and serpentine dance, which is creating so much talk throughout the country, and the great mechanical change. In one second the entire scene changes from a full rigged ship set to an Indian camp on the plains. Mr. Anderson has neither spared time or expense to make this surpass all former productions of the "Two Old Cronies." Remember it can only be played in this city for one night, and the lovers of a good entertainment should not fail to witness it.

Think of Our Bargains.

No other store can show them. We can. We do, and will continue to sell goods much cheaper than any other store. As we do not expect any trade for love or friendship, of course we must rely on the true merits of our business, and we are confident that our store is a popular place for those who value a dollar. Of course there are cranks whose presence are less tolerable than a dead rat or a pile cat, and when these same unwelcome intruders are around our store the atmosphere becomes very frigid. D. T. SWINDELL.

Inexpensive Dress Goods.

For children's dresses we are showing two lines of dress materials at 25c per yard. One, all wool double width suiting in solid colors, the other double width, fancy mixtures. These are the slightest and best values shown at the price.

Also new gingham in small patterns and dark colors. New lines of printed cotton dress goods, fast colors, at 10c and 12 1/2c per yard. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

Imported Clothes.

The following letter speaks for itself and needs no comment. The goods referred to have arrived and are now open for inspection.

HADDERSFIELD, Eng. Aug. 1, '92. Mr. Geo. N. Walters, Raleigh, N. C.: The fall selections of woollens which we have made for you this season are of the finest quality that our looms have produced. They have all been made from specially selected Australian wool. You can highly recommend them for their colors and durability. In designs the quiet and subdued appear to be those demanded by the ultra fashionable merchant tailors. You will find your patterns in styles far superior to any we have made for the English market. FISHER & Co., Manufacturers.
