SOME VERY OLD LAWS.

We are in possession of some very old laws of North Carolina—away back yonder in 1785, '87, '91, '91 and 1801 and '06. They are very interesting to look and compare them with the laws then and now and the printing and binding reminds one of old times sure enough.

Some of these laws were printed in New Bern, others in Denton and some in Raleigh.

On the 19th day of November, 1785, "an act for establishing a militia in this state," was passed. All white persons from 18 to 50 years composed the militia.

Militiamen were paid for their services in those days. A lieutenant colonel, for actual service, received 15 shillings per day; a major 12 and a "sixpence," a sergeant, trumpeter, drummer and fifer five, and the men who killed and were killed, the privates, got four.

A law was passed at this session (1795) allowing the commissioners of Wilmington to lay off streets and to build market houses, and to dig cellars under the markets to be rented out to help raise revenue for the city. Butchers had to pay a percentage on all the meats they sold.

An act was passed Dec. 29, 1789, "for the relief of officers, soldiers and sea men who were disabled in the service of the United States during the late war."

On the same day an act was passed imposing "a ground rent, not exceeding 20 shillings annually, on all piazzas and porches in the town of Tarboro."

In 1785 the public printer was allowed the sum of £500 a year salary.

Bounties were paid for killing wolves, wild cats, panthers, bears, crows and squirrels in several counties, Wake among them. For killing a wolf 20 shillings were paid, and for a wild cat three.

In 1790 a law was passed "to restrain all married persons from marrying again whilst their former husbands or wives are living."

Horse stealing was made a felony in 1790, the "punishment being death without benefit of clergy."

Hillsboro had a new court house built in 1790.

Henry Emanuel Lutterlow, in 1790, was allowed by lottery, to run five years, to raise money to enable him to bring foreigners in this state.

The University of North Carolina was given power in 1801 to raise money by lottery.

Militia service was established in 1778.

In 1806 auctioneers were appointed by commissioners in several counties and they were required to give a bond in the sum of £5,000.

Concord was incorporated in 1806. Dueling was prohibited by law in 1802.

An act fixing the permanent residence of the Governor in Raleigh was passed 7th of December, 1802.

A SPLENDID ARRANGEMENT.

It affords us great pleasure to state that the railroads are more fully than ever before determined to add all in their power to the success of our coming fair and centennial. The time is now short, and for the information of our people we print the following which may be considered as official:

In addition to the regular schedules, a special train will leave Goldsboro every day of the fair, viz: October 18, 19, 21, at 8 o'clock a. m., and will arrive in Raleigh at 9:45 a. m. This train will leave Raleigh at 4:40, and arrive at Goldsboro at 7:25 p. m. A special train from Greensboro will also leave every day of the week at 7:25 a. m. and arrive at Raleigh at 10:30, returning will leave Raleigh at 5:30 and arrive at Greensboro at 8:45 p. m.

The schedule of the Oxford and Clarksville railroad under the Richmond and Danville management will remain as it is, arriving at Raleigh at 10:10 a. m., and leaving Raleigh at 8:15 p. m.

Mr W. A. Turk, who has been particularly kind and especially effective in arranging the schedules, writes to the fair management the following: "We are endeavoring to arrange special schedules for the A. & N. C., and the A. C. L." This connection will make thorough connection from Beaufort, Wilmington, Weldon and all eastern points. The schedule from Greensboro will make connection from Danville, Reidsville, Charlotte, Asheville, and all western points. Col. Turk also writes: "We will print 15,000 tickets which we will distribute in the most judicious manner possible, to all of our agents in North Carolina, and hope that persons attending your fair will have no trouble in securing tickets on our lines."

We will issue copies of our advertising matter of the several special trains as soon as practicable. We will also have local notices of the rates from all principal points in the State put in leading papers."

Mr H. M. Emerson of the A. C. L., has also acted very kindly toward the State fair management. He has already issued bulletins of special rates and writes as follows: "We will advertise low rates to the Raleigh fair and see that ticket agents are amply supplied with tickets to handle this business. We are now in correspondence with the R. & D. railroad, relative to special train service, and trust we will be able to arrange to accommodate all desiring to make the trip."

It will be seen from this correspondence that the railroads will do the handsome and proper thing by the public for the coming State Fair. The rates are one cent a mile. The fair will be the greatest and most interesting ever held in North Carolina and this is the year for everybody to attend it. H. W. Ayer, will give any particulars.

Justice Davis.

There will be a preliminary meeting of the members of the bar of North Carolina held in the Supreme Court room on October 17th, for the purpose of arranging to pay a proper tribute of respect to the memory of the late Justice J. J. Davis.

Mr. A. D. Leonard
Of Utica, N. Y., suffered severely from Liver and Kidney troubles, causing great pain and That Tired Feeling. Other medicines failed to do him any good, but so successful and satisfactory was Hood's Sarsaparilla that he has taken no other medicine and is now well. The best known kidney and liver remedies are so happily combined with tonics and alteratives in Hood's Sarsaparilla that it is an unequalled remedy for all troubles with these important organs, overcomes That Tired Feeling and makes the weak strong.

WOODWORTH CITY lies about 30 miles north of Chattanooga, within a few miles of Dalton, the county seat of Grundy county, and between Tracey City and the celebrated Beersheba Springs, the Saratoga of the South. It is in the centre of the rapidly developing coal and iron district of Tennessee, and within its borders are found coal, iron, zinc, marble and asbestos, with various hard woods, such as oak, chestnut, maple, hickory, locust, hickory, ash, pine, cherry and black walnut in abundance. The village of Wroth, with several hundred inhabitants, contains Churches, schools, stores, Post-office and telegraph station, and a number of manufacturing industries, all of which are located on the property and form part of Woodworth City.

The proceeds of the sale of these lots will be used to develop the mineral resources of the property and build up a large and thriving city. Quick application for these lots should be made, as the right is reserved to advance the price without notice.
