

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVII.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 4, 1892.

NO. 139

Notice.

There has been some change in the news boys of the Visitor, and we would take it as a favor if any of our patrons failing to receive their papers should inform us of it.

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Fair, weather probably cooler in western portion. Local forecast for this vicinity: On Wednesday: Fair weather north-west winds.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 78; minimum temperature 59; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Maj. R. S. Tucker has gone North on business.

Rox sheet for "Erminie" now open at John Y. MacRae's drug store. Secure seats at once.

The State Normal and Industrial school at Greensboro, was formally opened today.

The headquarters of the centennial managers will hereafter be at the office of Mr. George Heck.

Look out for the "Two Old Cronies," they are "raisies" and no mistake. Saturday night next is the date.

All the railroads are preparing to do their best in the matter of transportation during the fair and centennial.

The highest temperature for the month of September in this city was 87 on the 8th. The lowest was 50 on the 27th.

The sad news has reached here that Rev. J. T. Crocker was killed by the Richmond and Danville Vestibled train near Jamstown yesterday.

Rev. Dr. Daniels, the new pastor of the First Presbyterian church is stopping for the present at the Yarbboro House. His family are with him.

When weak, weary and worn out, Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the medicine to restore your strength and give you a good appetite.

Much interest is being manifested in the ladies department of the State Fair. Floral hall will be well represented. Entries have already been received.

A musicale will be given by the ladies of the Church of the Good Shepherd at the residence of Mr. R. H. Battle to-morrow, Wednesday evening.

The celebration of the Centennial of Missions at the First Baptist Church last Sunday was a most interesting event. There was a large crowd in attendance.

We stated yesterday that Miss Maggie Ferrall had left for the purpose of attending school at Bell Cross Female Academy. We should have stated that she is the principal of the institution.

We invite the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Whiting Brothers in this issue. They specially desire to place before the public the fact that their stock of ladies, misses and childrens shoes is now in store and being offered at such prices as cannot fail to suit. Call and see for yourselves.

The New York dry goods and Millinery Bazaar comes to the front in an attractive advertisement. At this establishment all the novelties of the season can be found at such prices as are bound to suit the public. Call at 21, Fayetteville street and make your selections. All fresh goods, new designs and in the latest taste and fashion.

The office of Mr. Henry Lipps, Jr., superintendent of Maintenance &c. which for some time has been located in Raleigh, will now be in Greensboro under the new order of Capt. Green. This movement has been rendered necessary by the addition of about two hundred miles of road. Mr. Lipps has made many friends in this city, who will regret his departure.

We acknowledge an invitation to attend the fifth annual fair of the Alamance county association Oct. 11th.

We return our sincere thanks to Mr. A. W. Moye the gentlemanly assistant clerk of the Superior Court for courtesies shown us at the late term.

The New York World says: "Two Old Cronies" is the name of an amusing farce-comedy which began a two weeks' engagement at the Windsor Theatre last evening. Messrs R. M. Ryan and John Sheehan, two well-known light comedians, impersonated The Two Old Cronies, the former in the make up of an eccentric German professor and the latter in the character of a light hearted and jovial Irishman. Besides these principal actors, there were a number of artists of more than ordinary ability which took part in the performance.

Y. M. C. A. Notes.

To night the class in stenography will be organized at the room of the Y. M. C. A. It is desired that all who wish to enter should be present, as none can enter after the class has been organized.

Mr. H. H. Crow has been appointed assistant secretary of the Association and he will hereafter call on members for dues. The gymnasium will be open to-night. Full attendance desired.

The Floats.

There was an important meeting of the "float committee" of the centennial celebration held at the Mayors office yesterday afternoon. The work of preparation is progressing most favorably in all respects and the floats of different kinds are being rapidly prepared. Mr. Randall, our efficient artist, is rendering much aid in this respect, and has in charge the three historical and allegorical floats. It is now understood that that will be about forty different trades and processions represented.

An Important Matter.

All the newly married folks, all the old married folks, all who expect to get married, and, in fact almost everybody should have a neatly furnished house. There is always something about the furniture of a residence to render it an object of interest. Now Raleigh is blessed in this line, because we have an establishment here that fills the bill in each and every particular. Messrs. Thomas and Maxwell, two of our most enterprising citizens, are prepared to furnish to our people everything in their line at the most reasonable rates. These gentlemen have supplied a long-felt want in Raleigh, and at their vast emporium you can get all the novelties of the day. Call and see them. They are polite and accommodating, and you will witness such an array of desirable furniture, &c., as will be most pleasing to the taste. Don't forget it. They can be found on Exchange Place, North side of the market.

At the Tabernacle last night.

Dr. Harrison preached on "purposes," last night, using Job, 17: 11. He noticed Job's wealth, his family, &c., and the possible purposes he had with respect to same, and how they were broken up. He called attention to the plans and purposes of men today and how few of them were carried out. God's fixed purposes were noticed in contrast. He proposed the salvation to lost man and gave His Son. He proposed reward to all who should accept Him and punishment to those that reject Him. God's purposes would be carried out. During the evening a large number asked for prayer and some four or five professed conversion. A deep, spiritual feeling pervaded the whole services and many were the manifestations of tenderness and desire for a better life.

A sweet solo sang by Prof. Thompson with the singing generally made a good impression.

Carpets and Rugs.

Now is carpet season right now, and we are more than prepared for it. We went to New York intending to buy eleven roles of carpet. We bought 175 roles. Why? the carpet dealers realized that Southern and Western merchants would be scared to go to New York on account of Cholera, and they were frantic, crazy to sell, thought they should have to carry the carpets over. Never was money more potent. See our carpets. D. T. SWINDELL.

The School Children.

Fix the children up for school. They are the first to occupy new Dresses, Shoes, Stockings and Hats. Fathers say they are tougher hardier and less liable to take cold. Mothers say the children shall look nice when they go out, that settles it.

Improving the appearance and furnishing additional pleasure and comfort to the wearer has been our study.

We have a nice line of woolen goods from 25c. up. All kinds of School Shoes, Hats and Caps for the lads and lassies.

Don't mind what others say about low prices, you cannot afford to buy until you have inspected our Stock, seen our Values and heard our Prices. C. A. SHERWOOD & CO.

First Class Restaurant.

Mr. Dughi's new restaurant for ladies and gentlemen, which he has fixed up in such style and taste, on Fayetteville street, just south of Bobbitt's drug store, is fast gaining popularity, and is becoming one of the famous resorts of the city. It is destined to become to Raleigh what has long been needed in the way of a first class establishment where all the delicacies of the season can be procured at short notice and in a style to suit the most fastidious epicure. The following bill of fare is offered:

Oysters (12 in a fry), 35c
Oysters, stewed, 25c
Beef and pork steak, 25c
Ham and eggs, 25c
Lamb chops, 25c
Tripe, 25c
Chicken fried or broiled, 35c

(This establishment is not open on Sundays) Fried oysters, or oysters by the measure, will be delivered at residences at any time on notice.

Dress Goods.

Probably if you should travel the South over you would find few stores that show a larger or more stylish stock of Dress goods and trimmings as we are carrying this season and we know we must sell low if we sell at all. Now it will certainly pay you to try us first even if you are not intending of buying of us, it will post you and keep others from over charging you. Truly, D. T. SWINDELL.

Privileges at the Fair Grounds.

The stands and privileges for restaurants, oysters, refreshments, &c., at the fair grounds will be rented at auction, on Wednesday, Oct. 5th, at 3 o'clock p. m. Parties interested will do well to correspond with the secretary of the state fair at once.
