CITY IN BRIEF.

Bracing mornings and nights.
Hon S. B. Alexander is in the city.
Secure seats for the opera tomorrow night.
There are now 290 students at the State University of North Carolina.
Manager Huff of the electric street railway is absent on the most important mission of his life.
The annual fair at Maxton opens on the 26th of October and will continue until the 29th inclusive.

There will be quite a competition in the matter of prize poems for the centennial occasion.
Now put on the combination colors of oriole and red. These are adopted for the centennial.

Ten million pounds of leaf tobacco were sold in Durham during the past twelve months.

First-rate weather now for getting the roads in good condition for the approaching winter.

Durham wants a new Union Depot. As our neighbor is far up in the pictures, as a railroad centre, she should have it by all means.

Remember the musicale to be given by the ladies of the Church of the Good Shepherd to night, at the residence of Mr. R. H. Battle.

Mr. J. A. Norris has tendered his resignation as a member of the board of County Commissioners of Wake county.

The address at the opening of the State Normal and Industrial school, at Greensboro, will be delivered to day by Rev. Dr. J. L. M. Curry.

Friday the 21st inst, has been set apart as "Columbus" day, and will be duly celebrated in different parts of the country.

There has been a rush today to secure seats for the opera tomorrow night. Call at MacRae's and secure them.

The discharge of Mr. Lemon at Burlington was on the ground of want of jurisdiction of the offence charged.

It will be a grand sight to see the oldest residents of Raleigh in the centennial procession. All honor to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is an honest medicine, honestly advertised for those diseases which it honestly absolutely cures.

There will be a meeting of the board of stewards of Central M. E. church tonight immediately after prayer meeting. Every member is earnestly requested to be present.

Mr. J. M. Weathers, of the Savannah, Florida and Western Railway, is in the city visiting his relatives and friends. He will remain here until Oct. 23d when he will leave for Lenoir, Caldwell county, on a very important mission, which will be announced in the paper later on.

If you want to vote at the coming election it might be well enough to look and see if your name is on the books. Remember if you have become of age since the last registration, you must register, before you can vote. If you have removed here from another county, or have removed from one Township ward to another, you must look after it. It is an entirely new registration, but in the above cases it requires new entries.

AMUSEMENTS.

Deshon Opera Company
The opera season opens tomorrow night at Metropolitan Hall with the production of "Erminie," by the famous Deshon Opera Company, which stand unrivalled in the musical world. It will be the first appearance of the company in Raleigh, but it's fame has preceded it. As there is a large crowd anticipated it would be well for all desiring to attend to secure their seats at once. They can be had at MacRae's drug store where the box sheet is now open.

Two Old Cronies.
The Philadelphia Record says "Two Old Cronies" was produced at the Arch Street Theatre last night with new people and new business. The entertainment last night bristled with taking songs dances and incidents, including an accident by which a shapely miss fell on the stage while kicking a booby over her head, and a neat somersault by Lotta Hollywood in a divided skirt. E. M. Ryan was very amusing, and John Sheehan, as Duff, scored a success on his first appearance in the role here. The sisters Hollywood in the cast were an attractive feature, as was pretty Elvira Frenocelli as Puck. Will Ahem played three characters in a satisfactory manner.

A Big Day.
The 12th of October will be a big day at the University this year. It is the 97th anniversary, the 40th anniversary of the discovery of America, and the 40th birthday of President Winston.

The day will be celebrated with great rejoicing at the university. At 11 o'clock exercises will be held in the chapel; there will be appropriate readings from the Bible, singing of the University hymn by the Glee Club, and an address by Superintendent Graham of the Charlotte Graded school. In the afternoon athletic sports will be celebrated on the athletic grounds, and at night President Winston will give a reception to the students and faculty of the University, the visitors, and citizens of the village.

The friends of the University everywhere are cordially invited to be present and enjoy the day.

Journalistic.

The Daily Workman of Greensboro has been purchased by Mr. W. S. Roberson and we hear that the conduct of the paper will hereafter be under his charge assisted by our friend Mr. J. L. Michaux. The Workman has long been a fixed institution in Greensboro, and we have no doubt it will meet with due appreciation in the future as in the past. Long life to it.

Bound Over.

The two little colored boys who were arrested a day or so ago for the robbery of a large number of articles from various residences, were bound over today in the sum of a hundred dollars each for trial before the Superior Court. They are about 13 or 18 years old, but are far advanced in crime, and the mayor very properly decided to make an example of them.

Now is carpet season right now, and we are more than prepared for it. We went to New York intending to buy eleven roles of carpet. We bought 175 roles.
