Notice.

There has been some change in the news boys of the VISITOR, and we would take it as a favor if any of our patrons failing to receive their papers should inform us of it.

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Occasional showers followed by fair, weather Sunday cooler.

Local forecast for this vicinity: On Sunday: Showers Saturday evening or early Sunday morning followed by clearing weather, colder.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature, 76; minimum temperature 63; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Only ten days more and Raleigh will be in its glory.

Don't fail to see "The Two Old Cronies" tonight.

Laugh and grow fat—go to see the "Two Old Cronies" tonight.

Very few applications for refunding taxes are now coming in.

And now the number of students has run up to 290 at the University of North Carolina.

The officials of the State Agricultural Department are very busily engaged shipping fertilizer tags for the fall crops.

Preparations for the trip to Cuba the coming winter under the chaperonage of Maj. Eugene G. Harrell, are progressing favorably.

There will be no fair of the colored Industrial Association held this year. There seems to be some difficulty relative to money matters.

"Handsome is that handsome does," and if Hood's Sarsaparilla doesn't do handsomely then nothing does. Have you ever tried it?

The loss by the recent fire at the Yarboro House has been adjusted. It was placed at $167.95 for the building and $50 for the range.

Secretary Ayer has gotten every thing in splendid shape and says he is going to have such a fair as the people of North Carolina will be justly proud of.

There are now 215 convicts in the penitentiary. Of these 115 will be sent in a few days to the farms on the Roanoke, thus reducing the number to 100, the smallest in 23 years.

The Goldsboro Argus has entered on its 16th, semi-annual volume. The Argus is now seven years old, but a sprightly youngster with a long life before it. We wish it continued success.

Hon John C. Scarborough will address the Cleveland-Carr club on Monday night next at 8 o'clock at Metropolitan Hall. Let there be a large turnout to hear him.

FRANK STRONACH,
President of the Club.

It is suggested that all the pieces of business be closed on the opening day of our centennial. There should be no exception. It should be a general holiday so that everybody could take part in the grand procession.

Charlotte C. Vass, an old servant in the family of Maj. W. W. Vass, died yesterday, aged 72. She was a faithful old servant and her loss will be much missed. Funeral will take place from the First Baptist church, colored, at 8 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Remember that the grand opening of the millinery department of the Lyon Racket Store will be next Tuesday and Wednesday the 11th, and 12 inst. Let our ladies take notice and be on hand promptly so that bargains may be secured. It will be a grand event. Don't fail to bear it in mind.

SHOCKING SUICIDE.

Mr. David B. Avera a Prominent Business Man Cuts His Throat.

Our city this morning was thrown into excitement by the announcement that Mr. David B. Avera, a former well known business man of this city, but latterly a resident of Johnston county, near Smithfield, had committed suicide by cutting his throat.

It seems that during yesterday, Mr. Avera, who had been here for several days on business, was noticed to be in rather a dazed condition and talked at random. Early this morning about 2, or 3 o'clock he made application at the guard house for admission, alleging that some person or persons were attempting to do him bodily harm. Seeing his condition he was taken down stairs and placed on a lounge. It was deemed necessary to procure medical attendance and Dr. James McKee, was sent for. He came as promptly as possible, and, after seeing the condition of Mr. Avera had him at once removed to a room at the Yarboro House. This as we hear was about 6 o'clock. Dr. McKee remained in the room awhile giving instructions concerning the nursing of his patient. He had occasion to step just outside of the door for a moment, when suddenly Mr. Avera, seized a pocket knife he had in his possession and cut his throat, severing the jugular vein. He expired almost immediately. These are the facts so far as we have been able to gather them. Mr. Avera married a daughter of the late Governor Fowle who survives him. He was a gentleman possessed of considerable property and in the social walks of life was a man of genial qualities. We are not exactly informed as to his age, but learn from some of his friends that he was between 40 and 45 years old. Mr. Jno. W. Brown has charge of the burial arrangements, but we are not informed up to this writing, as to when or where the funeral will take place.

The Restored Flag.

Yesterday was a big day in Cedar Fork township, the occasion being the return of the war flag of Co. I, 6th N. C. Regiment, to its original command by Col. Higgins, of Ohio, who has had it since 1863. There were about 3,000 persons present, including many ladies. The flag was tendered by Col. Higgins in a neat address. Maj. York gave a fine sketch of the company from its organization to the surrender. After the ceremonies the flag was received by Maj. E. G. Harrell, in the absence of the Governor, to be placed in the State Library. Maj. Harrell's address was most touching and beautiful. The Durham band was present and discussed some excellent music and some pathetic songs were rendered.

Board of Aldermen.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Aldermen took place last night and transacted the usual routine business. It was decided to purchase a four circuit repeater for the fire alarm system. Col Heck as chief marshal of the centennial celebration made application for the use of the seal of the city upon the commissions granted to the assistant marshals, which was granted. The matter of the proper decoration of the public buildings of the city was discussed, and a committee was appointed to confer with the decorating committee of the centennial as to the amount necessary for the purpose.

A Pocket-Book Lost.

A pocket book was lost on Thursday night either in Metropolitan Hall, or coming from the hall. It contained $45; one $20 gold piece, and one $10 gold piece, two fives in gold, and five one dollar bills. A liberal reward will be paid for the same returned to this office.

Something New.

I have just been to the North State Music store and seen the new pedal extension for the organ. Why, my little Mary, only five years old, surprised me. I just raised the stool so her hands were well above the key board, and her feet rested flat on the pedals. She can finger and pedal with as much ease as I can. And they can be put on any organ. They are a blessing.

Umbrellas Recovered While You Wait.

All done in fifteen minutes and only for the price of the cover. Your name marked in new umbrellas free of cost at Sherwood's.

Lost, a gold watch charm. Finder rewarded by leaving it at this office.

Lost.

Henry E. Avera, of Chatham county, N. C., after selling his cotton lost about $45 in $5 notes somewhere on Wilmington, Martin or Fayetteville sts. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it with L. H. Adams. oc9 3t

High Grade Tailoring.

We invite the attention of the gentlemen of Raleigh to our merchant tailoring department. We are offering a stock of imported (English, Scotch and Irish) stuffs from the most celebrated manufacturers—a real city stock of goods. We sell the cloths and trimmings, the cutting and making will be done by Chris Weikel, who has a competent corps of workmen just from Baltimore. Any gentleman who intends to buy a fine suit will appreciate our showing and Weikel's workmanship.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

Have You Seen Them?

If not, go at once to the North State Music Store and see the beautiful "Extension Organ Pedals." If you have a large organ at your home your little daughter cannot use it yet. But if a pair of the extension pedals are attached to it they put the organ pedals, knee swells and key boards under perfect control of small ladies and little children. They can be attached or removed in an instant, and all the family can play with perfect ease the same cabinet parlor organ. Call and see them. Respectfully,
