CITY IN BRIEF.

Autumn in all its glory. Mr Marion Butler is in the city. Six new members were received into the Central M. E. Church yesterday. The work of remodeling and paving the sidewalks on West Martin street, near the new depot is rapidly progressing. Wm G Hill Lodge, No. 218, A. F. & A. M., will meet in regular communication this evening at 7.30. Visiting brethren invited. Catarrh in the head is a constitutional disease, and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, to effect a cure. The services at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association yesterday afternoon were very interesting and the attendance was large. The funeral of the late Mr. D. B. Avera took place yesterday afternoon from Christ Church and was largely attended. Rev. A. B. Hunter officiated.

An ordinance has been adopted by the Board of Aldermen which prohibits vehicles without springs from being driven over the paved streets at a faster speed than a walk.

Several ladies were noticed today with the centennial colors—well done, ladies, we knew you would do your part. Let it be general. It will inspire the gentleman to follow suit.

Mr. Alex Creech has accepted a position with the Lyon Racket Store, 16 Martin street, Adams building, and will be pleased to have his friends and old customers to call and see him.

Ladies auxiliary of the Young Men's Christian Association respectfully invited to meet tomorrow afternoon at the association rooms at 4 o'clock sharp. A large attendance is desired. Matters of importance to be discussed.

Let every member of the Chamber of Commerce be on hand tomorrow night. It will be a meeting of much importance in view of the near approach of the centennial. Don't forget it.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard has returned to Wilmington from an extended trip to Louisville, Ky. It is understood that he has under favorable consideration a call to the Tryon street Baptist church, of Charlotte.

Remember that the grand opening of the millinery department of the Lyon Racket Store will be next Tuesday and Wednesday the 11th, and 12, inst. Let our ladies take notice and be on hand promptly so that bargains may be secured. It will be a grand event. Don't fail to bear it in mind.

The earnest attention of the public is invited to the advertisement of Mr. W. R. Newsom family grocer 214 South Wilmington street. Mr. Newsom carries at all times the best selected stock of goods in his line to be found in Raleigh, and his prices are as low as possible. There is nothing in the grocery line that cannot be found in this establishment, and housekeepers cannot do better than to call and examine the stock. Mr. Newsom is indeed well up in his business and knows well how to cater to the wishes of the public. His motto is "live and let live" and he carries it out to the letter.

Acknowledgements.

We have received invitations to attend the Warren county fair which takes place at Warrenton, October 26th to 29th, and also to the Roanoke and Tar River fair at Weldon Nov. 1 to 4th.

Our Advertisers.

We invite attention to the advertisement of the Rosenthal Clothing Company, of which our friend "Dave" Rosenthal is the head and front. Such reductions as are announced have rarely been seen in our city, and, in fact, they are most astounding. Men's and boy's suits are offered at fabulously small prices. Call at this fashionable emporium and make your selections.

Thanks.

While on his rounds this afternoon the local reporter of this paper was called by Mr. Claude A. Sherwood into his dry goods store and treated to a beautiful piece of headgear in the shape of a "bander" from the latest style of blocks (not blocks of five) It came in most excellent time for the centennial next week. We tender to our friend "Claude" our most sincere thanks.

Sad Accident.

Yesterday morning as the little three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thaxton was being washed, preparatory to dressing, the bathing tub containing hot water, became in some manner upset scalding the little fellow so severely that he died at five o'clock this morning from the effects. He was a sprightly and intelligent child, and the afflicted parents have our deepest sympathy in their sad bereavement.

Horrible Murder.

Early yesterday morning news was received in this city that a most dastardly murder had been committed at Burlington, Alamance county.—The reports are very meagre and we have been unable to gather many particulars. From what we can gather, Mr. Matthews, a very worthy citizen engaged in the mercantile business, heard some person or persons about 2 o'clock yesterday morning picking the lock at his back door. He took a gun which he usually kept in the room in which he slept and went out of the front door. He then started for the rear of the premises through an alley. When about midway he was fired upon by the thief or thieves and killed. As soon as the murder became known the greatest excitement prevailed, and every effort made to ferret out the murderers. We learn that an arrest has been made and there is reason to believe that the right man has been secured. In escaping, the party or parties left a hat and a pair of shoes behind which may be of service in the way of identification.

If you desire to enter the class of history and business forms meet Prof. C. J. Parker promptly at the Y. M. C. A. rooms at 8 o'clock tonight.

All our goods are marked in plain figures and one price to all. Woolcott & Sons.

Something New.

I have just been to the North State Music store and seen the new pedal extension for the organ. Why, my little Mary, only five years old, surprised me. I just raised the stool so her hands were well above the key board, and her feet rested flat on the pedals. She can finger and pedal with as much ease as I can. And they can be put on any organ. They are a blessing.

We have lots of remnants which we sell at half retail price. Woolcott & Sons.

They can be attached or removed in an instant, and all the family can play with perfect ease the same cabinet parlor organ. Call and see them. Respectfully, oc7 6t R B SHAW & Co.
