ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SECRETARY OF THE STATE BOARD OF HEALTH.

In the death of Dr. Thos. F. Wood, of Wilmington, late Secretary of the North Carolina Board of Health, the State lost one of its most patriotic and useful sons. He was an able, conscientious and accomplished physician, an amateur botanist of note, editor and proprietor from its beginning of the present North Carolina Medical Journal, always in the forefront of those working for the elevation and advancement of his profession, and doing more to promote both than any man we ever had; but the nearest thing to his heart, second only to his love for his Divine Master, was the North Carolina Board of Health, which was originated by him and kept alive during the years of its feeble infancy only by his personal devotion and sacrifice of both time and money, and through it the welfare of the people of his State.

Having been honored by the Board in my election to the Secretaryship made vacant by his decease, I cannot assume the duties and responsibilities of the office he adorned without thus testifying to his high and admirable qualities, the loss of which is irreparable.

In taking up this work I feel that it would be well to remind the people of the State that the Board of Health was created for their benefit—for the purpose of acquiring and distributing as thoroughly as possible, information and instruction as to the best means of preventing disease. Any citizen of the State therefore desiring such information would confer a favor by writing to the Secretary, who would cheerfully answer his inquiries.

The subject of pre-eminent interest at present is the epidemic of cholera threatening our country. The board has watched the indications with sleepless eye, and has given the subject the most thoughtful consideration, but it has not deemed the danger imminent enough at any time to justify publications which would probably excite and alarm unnecessarily many of our people. The danger is daily growing less, and the board does not anticipate any trouble during the coming winter, but fears the awakening in warm weather of spring of the germs which may slip into the country during the cold weather, when the vigilance of the health officers at our ports is liable to be relaxed. Should its fears be justified, the people may rest satisfied that it will exhaust every means within its power to keep it out of our State. From time to time the secretary proposes to publish in all the papers in the State kind enough to print them, short practical articles on matters relating to the preservation of health. In the meantime, if you need information or advice on such subjects write to

RICHARD H. LEWIS, Sec.,
Raleigh, N. C.

APPALLING FIGURES.

Chicago Tribune.
Mrs. McSwat: "Billiger, how often do you get shaved?"

Mr. McSwat: "About four times a week on an average."

"How much time does it usually require?"

"About half an hour."

"Half an hour four times a week! That's two hours a week, four and one third days in a year, and nearly a month and a half in ten years. Think of it, Billiger. If you should let your beard grow you would save time enough in ten years."

"But look here, Lobella! Great Scott! I don't want to let it grow. Did you ever see me with a full set of whiskers?"

"No, brt—"

"Well, let it be the cause of the most heartfelt joy and gratitude you ever experienced, Lobella, that you never did! With a full beard, madam, I look like a cocoanut in a fit of delirium tremens. I tried it once, years ago. Dogs barked at me on the street, children fled from me in terror, footpads who caught a glimpse of me by moonlight or the pale, flickering rays of a street lamp dropped their sandbags and slunk tremblingly up the alleys, and I was offered $80 a week and all expenses by a dime museum man for a year's engagement. My portrait was hawked all over the country as the most hideous—"

"I don't believe any of that stuff, Billiger, and I'm sure—"

"Don't interrupt me, madam. My beard grows straight out, up, down, sideways, every bristle for itself, like the spines on the fretful chestnut burr, and it grows in every shade and color, from brindle to vermilion and back again. If you could see me once with a hedge fence all over my face you would—"

"But think of the time you lose in—"

"The time I lose! Look here! How often do you fix your hair?"

"Every day of my life, of course, but that's different."

"That's different, is it, hey! How long does it take you fix it?"

"I think you're just as—"

"You needn't answer. I know how long it takes. I've seen you do it often enough. It takes you half an hour every blessed day of your life to look after your frizzes, if that's what you call them. Think of it! Half an hour a day, three hours and a half a week, nearly eight days in a year, an entire month in four years, a whole year in forty eight years, and over two years in a century! Lobella, you'd better go and look after the baby."

WOODWORTH CITY lies about 30 miles north of Chattanooga, within a few miles of Altamont, the county seat of Grundy county, and between Tracy City and the celebrated Beersheba Springs, the Saratogs of the South. It is in the centre of the rapidly developing coal and iron district of Tennessee, and within its borders are found coal, iron, zinc, marble and asbestos, with various hard woods, such as oak, chestnut, maple, beach, locust, hickory, ash, pine, cherry and black walnut in abundance. The village of Gruettli, with several hundred inhabitants, contains Churches, Schools, Stores, Post-office and telegraph station, and a number of manufacturing industries, all of which are located on the property and form part of Woodworth City.
The proceeds of the sale of these lots will be used to develop the mineral resources of the property and build up a large and thriving city. Quick application for these lots should be made, as the right is reserved to advance the price without notice.
