

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVII.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 12, 1892.

NO. 146

Notice.

There has been some change in the news boys of the Visitor, and we would take it as a favor if any of our patrons failing to receive their papers should inform us of it.

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Threatening weather and light rain.
Local forecast for this vicinity: On Thursday: Fair weather.
Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:
Maximum temperature, 73; minimum temperature 50; rainfall 0.00.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Put on the colors, ladies.
We are glad to hear that Mr. Miles Goodwin is improving.
Our tobacco trade is booming up considerably.
Cotton continues to come in very freely. Prices rule from 8 to 8½c according to grade.
Evangelist Fife is now conducting a series of meetings at Mocksville. Large crowds attend.
"Is it hard to pass an examination for the Bar in Raleigh?" "It's pretty hard on Sundays, unless they're dead sure of you."

No flowery rhetoric can tell the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla as well as the cures accomplished by this excellent medicine.

Let the suspension of business next Tuesday be general. But very few if any now living will be at the next centennial of Raleigh.

One of our normal school poets has written an "Ode to the Harvest," which begins: "The south wind whispered in the cornfield's ears."

There are now 900 convicts on the penitentiary farms, 99 in the prison, 50 at Castle Hayne, and 75 at work on the canal near Weldon. Total 1,124.

At a meeting of Manteo Lodge, I. O. O. F. last night Past Grand Sire Busbee and Grand Representative Edwards gave highly interesting accounts of their trip.

Messrs. W. C. & A. B. Stronach, with their accustomed energy will have a Japanese tea house at the fair, and will dispense the delicious beverage and cocoa free of charge.

Let all the assistant marshals for the centennial call at the office and obtain their commissions. They will have to call in person and get them, as they are required to sign their names.

Our friend Mr. Alex. Richmond left today for Southern Pines for the double purpose of attending to some plumbing business for Dr. Sweat and inhaling the pure air, incident to that region, for the benefit of his health.

It is understood that the committee on city taxation, from the Chamber of Commerce, will go before the next meeting of the Board of Aldermen and discuss the question. They will also discuss the matter of extension of the corporate limits of the city.

There are now 1819 pupils in attendance on the public schools in this city. Messrs. Morson & Denson have an attendance of 123 the largest number they have ever had. Since the establishment of St. Mary's school there has been an enrollment of 9500 pupils.

There was an important meeting of the centennial managers yesterday afternoon. Most of the arrangements have now been completed, and a grand time is in sight. A committee has been appointed to request the pastors of the city to hold centennial services next Sunday night.

Messrs. Leach & Stronach, committee on regalia and saddle blankets for the centennial celebration, inform all the marshals that they have given the contract for the regalia to Madame Beson, and the contract for saddle blankets to Woolcott & Sons, where they can call and get the same. Regalia 45c and saddle blanket at 80c.

Boy Missing.

Arthur Jones, a colored boy, eleven years old, ran away from his mother, Mary Harris, August 1st. No tidings of him since. Mother very anxious, and any news of his whereabouts thankfully received. Address 21 Hayti street.

A Good Show.

The Denver Daily News says: Richards & Pringle's Georgia Minstrels, which began an engagement at the Opera House last night, is a model minstrel show, and demonstrates that the colored minstrel is capable of giving as an attractive as well as more faithful personation of the southern negro. This company will exhibit in Raleigh next Monday, Oct. 17th.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge No. 64 I. O. O. F. tonight 7½ o'clock sharp. Work in the degrees, matters concerning the centennial and other important business to be attended to. Members of the lodge specially requested to be on hand. Manteo and Capital Lodges and visiting brethren cordially invited.

THOMAS, P. C.
Recording Secretary.

The Firemen and Help.

Many of the firemen belonging to other organizations that will take part in the centennial parade next Tuesday, and hence we cannot get a sufficient number to take charge of both the old and new apparatus. We will be glad to have the aid of all ex-firemen or citizens. All will aid us in the parade will please report to the Chief or Assistant Chief, or to foremen, R. E. Lomeden, Walter Woolcott or C. M. Lambeth, who will give them full particulars of parade, &c. The apparatus will not be carried out of city limits, and all taking part in the parade will be admitted free to the fair.

Respectfully,

E. B. ENGELHARD,
Chief Fire Department.
J. R. FERRALL,
Assistant Chief Fire Department.

Meetings at the Tabernacle Church.

These meetings continue with unabated interest night after night. The attendance does not fall off, and at every service the power of God is present to save. More than fifty persons stood up last night for prayer, while several professed conversion. It is a touching scene when a friend rejoices over the conversion of a friend; a mother is made happy over the salvation of her boy, or the Sunday school teacher's face is lit up with gladness when the last of the class comes to the Saviour. Such events are taking place nightly at the Tabernacle. Rev. Mr. Harrison preaches every night, and Professor Thompson sings the gospel. There is now a great desire to reach non-church goers and the unsaved. Service every night at 7:30 p. m.; afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Church of the Good Shepherd.

Next Sunday will be observed at the Church of the Good Shepherd in this city as "Centennial Sunday."

In the morning a service will be held commemorative of the first consecration of an Anglican Bishop on American soil. A sermon will be delivered by the Rector on "The Centennial of the American Episcopate."

In the evening, at half past seven the service will be in recognition of the Centennial of the city of Raleigh, which is to be celebrated next week, and reference will be had also to the great Columbian celebration, which is being observed this week in New York, and for which special services were held in the churches of that city last Sunday. A special programme of music will be rendered at each of these services. The public is cordially invited.

The Odd Fellows will have a beautiful float in the parade next week.

The registration books will be closed on October 29th, at 12 o'clock noon.

The centennial headquarters have been beautifully draped in the prescribed colors—next.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co's Specials

High Grade Tailoring.

We invite the attention of the gentlemen of Raleigh to our merchant tailoring department. We are offering a stock of imported (English, Scotch and Irish) stuffs from the most celebrated manufacturers—a real city stock of goods. We sell the cloths and trimmings, the cutting and making will be done by Chris Weikel, who has a competent corps of workmen just from Baltimore. Any gentleman who intends to buy a fine suit will appreciate our showing and Weikel's workmanship.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

We can save you money if you will buy your shoes of us
Woolcott & Sons.

Have You Seen Them?

If not, go at once to the North State Music Store and see the beautiful "Extension Organ Pedals." If you have a large organ at your home your little daughter cannot use it yet. But if a pair of the extension pedals are attached to it they put the organ pedals, knee swells and key boards under perfect control of small ladies and little children. They can be attached or removed in an instant, and all the family can play with perfect ease the same cabinet parlor organ. Call and see them. Respectfully,
OCT 6t R. B. SHAW & Co.
