

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVII.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1892.

NO. 147

Notice.

There has been some change in the news boys of the Visitor, and we would take it as a favor if any of our patrons failing to receive their papers should inform us of it.

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Showers in eastern portion, fair in western portion; east winds.

Local forecast for this vicinity: On Friday: Fair weather warmer. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 66; minimum temperature 53; rainfall 0.07.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Mr. John Devreux, we are glad to learn is better today.

Gov. Holt expects to leave for Chicago on the 17th inst.

The bicycle feature of the centennial parade will be fine.

Don't fail to decorate. It has a splendid effect. So cheap, too.

Look on the books and see if your name is there. You can't vote unless it is.

Cotton pickers are now in their glory. Thirty five cents a hundred is now paid.

Master Claude Denson who has been sick for a long time, is rapidly convalescing.

Already about twenty-five fine blooded race horses have been entered for the fair.

Prof McCarthy who was recently injured by a train at University Station, is improving.

The prices of admission for the Jarbeau performance will be $1.00-50 cents for gallery.

Vernona Jarbeau is the dramatic sensation at Metropolitan Hall commencing next Tuesday night.

Now is the accepted time to do good work upon our county roads. The winter will soon be upon us.

Pawnee Bill's great Wild West Show will arrive here Monday next. It will be in the grand parade Tuesday.

We are pleased to see our old friend Mr. Miles Goodwin is able to be at his post again after a short attack of sickness.

If you can fill the position of a drug clerk and desiring situation, call on the secretary of the Young Men's Christian Association.

The directors of the New Berne fair have decided to hold it, commencing Feb. 20th next and ending the 25th of the same month.

It is not what its proprietors say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story of its merit. Hood's Sarsaparilla CURES.

Mr. T. R. Bruner, commissioner of exhibits at the Worlds Fair has gone to Rutherford county to make some special collections of gold ores.

There are four ex mayors of Raleigh living. They are Messrs. W. D. Haywood, Wesley Whitaker, Alf A. Thompson and W. H. Dodd. We suppose these gentlemen will be assigned distinct places in the procession next Tuesday. It might be well also to assign places to all ex-aldermen (or commissioners as they were designated formerly). All this will go towards making up the eclat of the occasion.

It is expected that the city will be crowded with people next week. Many families will no doubt have friends from a distance, and in such cases some little extra preparation is necessary. In this connection we call attention to the large establishment of Messrs. W. C. & A. B. Stronach, where all the delicacies in their line can be selected. There is no better place in the city. Call and make selections. The stock is first class in all particulars and suitable for everything in the way of preparing first class accommodation.

A Raleigh Boy.

The Richmond Market Journal says: Our young friend, J. N. Gorman, son of "Nichols and Gorman, are with us" (late of Raleigh, N. C.) has made his mark on our tobacco market, and something else besides that reaches away down in his pockets. He merits it all.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge No. 64 I. O. O. F. tonight 7:30 o'clock sharp. Work in the degrees, matters concerning the centennial and other important business to be attended to. Members of the lodge specially requested to be on hand Manteo and Capital Lodges and visiting brethren cordially invited.

Another Murder.

Yesterday morning M W Bodenhammer, a young lawyer, of Kernersville, was shot by C. B. Hasten, a business man of ability, but who had been ruined by dissipation. Hasten then shot himself in the left breast dying in a few minutes. He was drunk. Bodenhammer had accused Hasten who had been tried for embezzlement. Bodenhammer will die from his wounds.

Our Roads.

We quote the following from a communication of Mr W C McMackin in the Chronicle, which we most heartily endorse:

The road tax system of personal service and commutation should be abolished. A money tax is far more equitable than this personal labor system and much less burdensome. Then those who are skillful in other pursuit might remain at their favorite work and pay only their simple share of the road tax and not double as now. This subject demands special attention. Railway circles have had their share of the state money and convict labor and now let the farmers and inhabitants of the rural districts have their assistance by building them good roads.

I believe that all prisoners, whether for life, for years, months or days should be employed upon the roads for the general good. Think of it. How many miles of road could the eleven hundred convicts now in the state penitentiary build per year? Road reform benefits all and injures none. It will fill the school rooms, the churches and guarantee a full vote. Push the idea of good roads.

Board of Aldermen.

At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen held last night, the following important resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the following taxes be and the same are hereby levied for the current year:

1. On all real and personal property within the corporate limits of the city, including money on hand and solvent credits, and upon all other subjects taxed by the General Assembly, ad valorem, except incomes, a tax for general purposes of ninety cents on every one hundred dollars valuation of property, and a tax for general purposes of $2.70 on all persons who were residents in the city on the first day of June, 1892, or within sixty days next preceeding that day, and otherwise subject to poll tax; and a special tax of thirty three and one third cents on the one hundred dollars valuation of property and one dollar on each taxable poll, to be appropriated and set apart for the payment of interest and principal at maturity of the bonds of the city as provided by law.

2. That the license taxes upon the various occupations and vocations authorized by the charter of the city of Raleigh, and set out in the ordinances, be imposed and collected for the current year.

Have You Seen Them?

If not, go out into the North State Music Store and see the beautiful "Extension Organ Pedals." If you have a large organ at your home your little daughter cannot use it yet. But if a pair of the extension pedals are attached to it they put the organ pedals, keys, bells and key boards under perfect control of small ladies and little children. They can be attached or removed in an instant, and all the family can play with perfect ease the same cabinet parlor organ. Call and see them. Respectfully,

R. B. SHAW & Co.
