AN EYE BALL SPLIT IN TWO

A Distressing Accident to Little Alice Love.

Last night between 8 and 9 o'clock during the progress of the fireworks program on Moore square, a most distressing accident occurred.

A young daughter of Mr. E. R. Love, named Alice, aged 9 years, was sitting in the lap of her brother, A. R. Love, on the steps of the Tabernacle church, corner of Person and Hargett streets. Mr. Love says that his sister had her eyes upturned watching the descent of an exploded rocket. Suddenly she gave a heart-rending scream which caused a general rush to her from her mother and father who were a short distance off. It was at first thought that the scream was the result of fright, but on investigation it was found that her face and the upper part of her dress was almost covered with blood. Physicians were at once summoned and it was discovered that her left eye ball had been split in twain and torn from the socket. Besides this, the left corner of her mouth had received a severe wound, the flesh torn open and laid bare to the length of about an inch. The little sufferer was at once removed to the residence of Mr. J. C. Hirdsoog, but soon after conveyed to the home of her parents.

The eyeball has been entirely removed by Dr. Lewis, and while of course, the loss of sight will be a source of deep distress to the afflicted child and her parents, we must congratulate them upon her near escape from perhaps death.

This morning she was taken with vomiting, but we suppose this may not be unfavorable as it may be the result of the shock. We sincerely hope she may soon be out again.

The Fair.

The attendance at the grounds yesterday was the largest ever known on the second day. It can now be conceded that the exhibition is a complete success, reflecting the highest credit upon Secretary Ayer and all concerned in the management. The attendance yesterday at 12 o'clock is estimated at 10,000. The Wild West Show continued the great centre of attraction. It commenced at twelve o'clock and continued for several hours. The races commenced at 3 o'clock and were most exciting there being some splendid entries.

Died.

Yesterday afternoon at 4:20 o'clock the infant daughter of Mr. John M. and Uva E. Wyatt. The funeral took place this morning at 10 o'clock from the residence.

The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Carter, assisted by Rev. Mr. Hurley. The following gentlemen acted as pall bearers: W. R. Dewar, Chas. White, Wiley Betts and H. M. Shaw.

The Fireworks

The display of fireworks at Moore Square last night was very fine so far as the pieces were concerned, and witnessed by a large crowd. The only drawback to the occasion was the delay, which caused considerable restlessness among the crowd. The re-arrangement of the state house was grand, and was the masterpiece of the display. The attendance was estimated at about 13,000 people.

The Weather Today

For North Carolina: Fair; cooler in northwest portion Friday.

Local forecast for this vicinity: On Friday: Fair weather, cooler.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 82; minimum temperature 60; rainfall 0.00

The Indian cradle in which their babies sleep and the buffalo calf skin in which the little "tots" are wrapped, ought to be seen by all means. They are at the fair grounds.

CITY IN BRIEF.

No break in the beautiful weather. Cotton receipts were rather light today.

The "old Tornado" is on exhibition at the fair.

The county candidates will be at Auburn tomorrow.

Our delegation to Chicago is meeting with a fine reception.

Next in order comes election day. It is not quite three weeks off.

The Georgia Railroad has a fast train called the "Nancy Hanks."

If you want to get a good mess of Saur Krout, go to E. M. Utzman's.

All the towns along the lines of railway are represented here today.

The Supreme Court is now engaged in appeals from the fourth district.

The press at a distance are teeming with praise of our grand celebration.

Mayor Badger's levees have been slim this week considering the vast crowd in the city.

Tomorrow (Columbus day) being a legal holiday, Sunday hours will be observed at the post office.

Another big day. Several excursion trains arrived this morning and the city is alive with people.

Don't fail to see Vernona Jarbeau tonight, or you will regret it. Remember it is the last performance.

Rev. J. R. Harrison will preach his farewell sermon at the Baptist Tabernacle tonight. He will leave tomorrow.

In the excitement of the fair and centennial, don't forget your taxes. Sheriff Page will write you a receipt with pleasure.

The use of the street sprinkler has been given to Secretary Ayer for the purpose of sprinkling the track, &c. at the fair grounds.

Dyspepsia victims find prompt and permanent relief in Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones the stomach and creates an appetite.

The centennial ball at Stronach's auditorium tomorrow night will be a grand occasion. All the costumes will be of "ye olden times."

A large batch of opinions were handed down yesterday afternoon in the Supreme Court. They were mostly cases from the eastern part of the state.

Call at the beautiful reception stand of Messrs. W. C. & A. B. Stronach at the fair grounds and get some of their hot cocoa and tea. It is splendid and free to all.

Our friend Dughi has had a rush this week. He is a lively business man and knows just how to suit the people. His saloon is fast gaining in popularity, especially with the ladies.

The splendid pictures representing Sir Walter Raleigh before Queen Elizabeth are suspended over the stage in Metropolitan Hall. They are surely worth seeing. Let the hall be filled to overflowing tonight, so that "Vernona Jarbeau" may have a grand farewell ovation.

A gentleman, who we judged was from the North, remarked on the street this morning that Raleigh seemed to have more "git up and git" than any town he had yet seen down this way. He said the folks were just as clever as they can be. Of course, as John Neathery would say, "That's all right."

Death of Mr. J. E. Whitaker.

This gentleman died at his home in Goldsboro yesterday morning aged 70 years. Mr. Whitaker was well known in Raleigh where he had many friends. He was a printer by trade and for many years was mail agent on the Atlantic and N. C. Railroad. At the time of his death he was in the Goldsboro postoffice as money order clerk. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn their loss.

"Jarbeau"

This celebrated actress and her splendid company will make their last appearance tonight at Metropolitan Hall, in the beautiful and roaring comedy of "Starlight." No lover of dramatic entertainment should fail to witness it. Rarely have the people of Raleigh such an opportunity. Let the house be filled tonight to its utmost capacity.

The Platoon.

The vote on the physicians phase continued yesterday as follows: S. B. Jones, Charlotte, 30; Jas. McKee, Raleigh, 9; W. H. Cobb, Jr., Essequig, 2; W. H. Whitehead, Raleigh, 1; H. H. Jones, Wake Forest, 4; J. H. Hodges, Fayetteville, 2; P. E. Bines, Raleigh, 1; R. H. Stancil, Margarettsville, 6; J. Y. McRae, Raleigh, 1; W. I. Royster, Raleigh, 5; R. A. Moore, Moncure, 1; W. J. Jones, Goldsboro, 1; Dr. E. B. Haywood, Raleigh, 5; H. Strickland, Stedman, 1; Joe Hill, Acadea, 1; W. H. Bobbitt, Raleigh, 52; Hubert Haywood, Raleigh, 1; R. L. Payne, Lexington, 1; J. J. Sammerville, Salisbury, 1; J. P. McCombs, Charlotte, 1; J. W. McGee Sr., Charlotte, 6.
