VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28. 1892.

NO. 6

CITY IN BRIEF.

Fine, healthy weather.
Heavy frost this morning.
Meeting of Phalanx Lodge tonight
"Little Nugget" captivates all classes.
Mr. J. S. Wynne has a little boy quite sick.
Gen. W. P. Roberts of Gates county is in the city.
Hog killing time is looming up in the near future.
Very heavy frosts are reported in the surrounding country.
The marriage license market is looking up. Five were issued yesterday.
Gov. Holt has returned from Chicago and gives an interesting account of his trip.
Rev. Dr. Black who was injured some time since, is now able to walk without a crutch.
The Acid Chamber house of the Caraleigh Mills that was burned last summer has been rebuilt.
The Greensboro North State has been sold to satisfy a mortgage. It was purchased by J. T. Wray, Esq., of Reidsville.
The committee appointed to prepare suitable resolutions relative to the late Justice Davis will report on the 16th of November.
It is not what its proprietors say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story of its merit. Hood's Sarsaparilla CURES.
The Wellon fair will open next Tuesday and will continue four days. The attendance is expected to be quite large, and the exhibits numerous.
Rev. W. G. Clements and Rev. J. A. Jones will leave in a few days to attend the Eastern Virginia Conference of the Christian Church—so says the Durham Sun.
"Little Nugget" is a farce comedy which appears here tomorrow night. The Pittsburg Leader, April 21st, says: "Its power to please is exhaustless and is headed by the most noted and favorite Irish comedian, Herbert Cawthorn."
The exercises at the Agricultural and Mechanical college to night will be of an interesting character. Prof. D. G. Hill will deliver a lecture entitled: "An attempt at an analysis of laughter, or the dissection of a joke." Public invited.
The Edgecombe Guards is practically a thing of the past. Without officers and without men it cannot have even a paper existence much longer unless His Excellency Gov. Holt finds that two men, one a captain and the other a corporal, make a legal company.
Attention is called to the advertisement of the "Lyon Racket Store" in this issue. This establishment has on hand one of the most superb lines of millinery ever offered in this city. In addition to the inducements offered in the way of bargains, "The American Magazine" is given to every lady that spends $1 at the store. This is a splendid offer. Let the ladies turn out in force and inspect the stock. There is none better in the State.
We invite the special attention of our readers to the advertisement of Mr. W. R. Newsom, one of the leading grocers in our city. Mr. Newsom has in store and constantly arriving one of the finest and most select lines of everything pertaining to the grocery business ever brought to Raleigh that he is offering either to the trade or retail customers at such prices as are rarely met with. Here can be found the most tempting array for the table and housekeepers would do well to call before buying elsewhere. There is no better house of the kind in the State and none at which more accommodations can be had. Call, and see for yourselves.

The Weather Today.

Local forecast for this vicinity:
On Saturday: Fair, Warmer.
Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:
Maximum temperature, 54; minimum temperature 38; rainfall 0.00.

Epworth League.

The regular meeting of Epworth League will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the S. S. rooms of Edentop Street Methodist church.
All the members are requested to be present promptly as committees are expected to have full written reports.

Chrysanthemum Show.

It has been decided to have the annual chrysanthemum show this year to take place next month at Stronach's war-house and will be held for the benefit of St. John's Hospital. It is hoped that our people will take an interest in the matter and see that the exhibition comes up to the highest expectation. The precise date will be made known hereafter.

A New Train.

It is rumored in railroad circles that about November 15th next a vestibuled train will be put on between Jersey City and Chattanooga, Tenn., running over the W. N. C. railroad through Asheville. The train will be made up of four cars, combination baggage and dining car, day coach and two sleepers. It will be the fastest train ever run over the road, the time from Salisbury to Point Rock, 190 miles, being less than six hours.

A Dandy Design.

Our friend Mr. A. B. Stronach is usually up to the times in all kinds of novel arrangements. His latest "get up" is a memento of the political furor now agitating the country. It consists of an ink nia, surmounted by a gay looking rooster, which is seemingly ready to flap his wings over a victory. Just beneath the rooster is a flower of pure white with a yellow boll in the centre. Then comes the centennial badge, following which is a fine picture of Grover Cleveland. The bottom of the design is finished up with the left hind leg of a graveyard rabbit, which "Alec" declares is to give tone and good luck to the entire "make up." It has been suggested to "Alec" that the rooster is in a too confident attitude and should be so arranged that, if necessity requires it, he can hang his head in disappointment, mortification and shame, but our friend won't hear to any such change. He says that if the fortunes of political warfare should cause him to down his colors, he will "go the whole hog" and take the rooster off altogether. He confidently expects that by Wednesday morning, November 9th, at day break, just about sunrise, the news will be such as to cause the inanimate bird to snuff the breeze of life and crow so loud as to cause a general rush of police to the establishment. At any rate "Alec" says he will fly his colors until the last tick of the telegraph shall be hushed. "Will" shares all the enthusiasm, but looks on in silent wonder.

We nearly forgot the Tammany button which occupies the space between Cleveland's picture and the rabbit's foot. "Alec" says this "caps the climax" of success.

As the election day approaches, the excitement gets greater. Next week the woods will be full of applicants for the dear People's favor.

A large number of people have gone out to-day to attend the Democratic barbecue at Leesburg.

It is the general remark that we have never had a prettier fall in this section than the present.

The roads generally are in a good condition to stand the winter.

Millinery, Millinery.

When you get a hat from a millinery establishment you want style combined with quality, and style and quality you will have; but at the same time you do not object to getting the style and quality a dollar or two less than you have been in the habit of paying. We are doing a rattling good business at Swindell's millinery, and it is because we are prepared to sell fine millinery at a lower price than any other millinery house in Raleigh. Our trimmer from Baltimore thoroughly understands millinery and the new styles.
