BRILLIANT MARRIAGE AT LENOIR.

One of the most charming weddings that has occurred in Lenoir for a long time was solemnized at the Presbyterian church there Wednesday morning, October 26th. The bride was Miss May Jones Beall, the distinguished young North Carolina artist, a woman of most lovely disposition and sweet Christian graces. The groom was Mr. Columbus Malcolm Weathers, the most popular locomotive engineer of the Savannah, Florida and Western Railway, and a young man of fine disposition and exceedingly clever.

At eight o'clock the church was crowded with friends and relatives of the bride and groom, and as the familiar strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Belle M. Wood, of Statesville, sounded the bridal procession entered as follows: Ushers, Guy Kirby and Louis Beall. Attendants, Miss Carrie Stowe, of Lenoir, first bridesmaid, with Mr. T. O'Brien, of Waycross, Ga.; Miss Ellie Harper, of Lenoir, with Mr. D. F. Kirkland, of Waycross, Ga.; Miss Annie Beall, of Lenoir, with Capt. O. A. Hamlin, of Chester, S. C.; Miss Carrie Harper, of Patterson, N. C., with Dr. R. L. Ramsey, of Salisbury, N. C.; Miss Nellie Harper, of Patterson, N. C., with Ernest Martin, of Raleigh, N. C.; Miss Bessie Beall, of Lenoir, with Mr. G. L. Bernhardt, of Lenoir.

The bride passed down the aisle on the arm of her brother, Mr. Harper Beall. She met the groom with his brother, Mr. Kim W. Weathers, as best man. The Rev. C. A. Monroe performed the ceremony. All the bridesmaids carried bouquets of red or yellow chrysanthemums—the bride a bouquet of pure white chrysanthemums. The church was tastefully and prettily decorated with cedar, evergreen and flowers peculiar to this mountain region. At the gates near the pulpit stood two little flower girls, Jessie Newland and Mary Cloyd, who played their part in this drama of life very nicely indeed.

The couple received a large number of beautiful and costly presents. The present from the bride to the groom was most beautiful and appropriate. It was a magnificent oil painting painted by the bride, entitled the "Triumph of Columbus." It was much admired. This painting will be exhibited with the North Carolina exhibit at the World's Fair in Chicago.

A most delightful reception was given the bride and groom, and attendants by the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary H. Beal at her beautiful home, "Fairfield," one mile from Lenoir and overlooking their pretty town, on Tuesday evening, which will long be remembered by all present. The house was brilliantly illuminated and potted plants, ferns, chrysanthemums, and rhododendrons were to be seen in all their variegated colors everywhere. The supper was every thing to tempt the palate and such a one as could only be expected from this most hospitable home. Music, mirth and melody held full sway, and after having spent the most pleasant evening in our life we repaired to our hotel, with that all important question "Is life worth living," fully answered in the affirmative.

The bride and groom left on the 9 o'clock train for various northern points and will of course go to that mecca of all newly married couples—Niagara Falls. They will be absent three or four weeks, when they will return to this city for a short stay with the groom's relatives, after which they will make their home in Waycross, Georgia.

IMPORTANT

On Saturday, the 29th day of October, the law makes it the duty of the registrars and judges of election in each precinct to attend at the polling places with the registration books, from 9 o'clock in the forenoon, until 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The books will be open to the public during that time, for inspection and for objections and challenges. If a voter is objected to the word "challenge" is written opposite his name; and the election board shall appoint time and place, "on or before election day," for the trial of the challenge, notice being given to the person challenged. See Section 2577 of the law.

Four negro children were left locked up in the house by their parents in Sumter, S. C., recently. The house was burned up and the children with it.

The Guilford Battle Ground Company has published in admirable form the masterly address of Judge Walter Clark on the life and services of General William R. Davie, delivered last July, and the pamphlet has an additional value because of the portrait of Gen. Davie that embellishes it. Judge Clark is rendering the State valuable service by his literary work as well as by his judicial labors.

A circumstance which makes it probable enough this continent may be over-crowded in two hundred years is the announcement that a few days ago at Quebec twelve brothers and five sisters had their pictures taken in a group. They are the children of a couple, both living, named Coleman, are all grown and have families.

A French scientist obtained the remarkable yield of 42 tons of potatoes per acre by treating the seed tubers with sulphate of ammonia. He steeped the potatoes for 24 hours in a solution of six pounds of sulphate of ammonia and 25 gallons of water. He then allowed them to stand and drain for a day, in order that their buds might swell, before planting them.

WOODWORTH CITY lies about 30 miles north of Chattanooga, within a few miles of Atlanta, the county seat of Grundy county, and between Tracey City and the celebrated Beechaba Springs, the Saratoga of the South. It is in the centre of the rapidly developing coal and iron district of Tennessee, and within its borders are found coal, iron, zinc, marble and asbestos, with various hard woods, such as oak, chestnut, maple, beech, locust, hickory, ash, pine, cherry and black walnut in abundance. The village of 10,000, with several hundred inhabitants, contains Churches, schools, stores, Post-office and telegraph station, and a number of manufacturing industries, all of which are located on the property and form part of Woodworth City.

The proceeds of the sale of these lots will be used to develop the mineral resources of the property and build up a large and thriving city. Quick application for these lots should be made, as the right is reserved to advance the price without notice.
