THE MINISTRY OF WOMAN.

How beautiful the ministry
 Of woman's gentle hand!
 How soft love's attributes, that spring
 At her divine command!

For weal or woe, for good or ill,
 About a man's careless life
 She weaves the blossoms of her heart
 As mother, maid or wife!

She leads his feet up from the pit!
 She bids his spirit rise!
 Sometimes by her superior will,
 Sometimes by pleading eyes!

Or else she lures him from the heights
 To darkest depths below!
 From peace and joy and love and heaven
 To bitterness and woe!

O! woman! Lovely womankind!
 Be careful how you play
 The role of queen, in this your realm,
 To him whom you may sway!
 —New York Ledger.

DO THEY ALWAYS FACE THE EAST?

Greensboro Record.

One of the ministers at the hanging Thursday mentioned a curious circumstance which he said he had often heard of but could not vouch for. He said he had been told that when a man was hanged, it made no difference in what position he stood when the trap was sprung, he was sure to be found with his face towards the east when the body ceased to move.

The attention of ex-sheriff Boon, who has been present at so many executions, was called to the matter, but he said he had never paid any attention and could not remember.

The first person the writer saw hanged was "Bill" Parker, a white man, who was expedited out of this world by ex-sheriff Stafford about twenty years ago. He "kicked" so hard at his fate, stooping down to shorten the fall, and in many ways trying to keep his neck from being broken, that everybody who witnessed it became so excited, little notice was taken of his position, but it is our recollection that he faced the east when death released him.

Charles Blackman, who was executed here some time ago, stood looking directly south when the trap fell. When he ceased to move, his face was towards the east. The two men just hanged were facing west, but turned half around and were found with their faces due east.

That Tired Feeling

Which is so specially overpowering when the seasons change, and that prostration following severe attacks of illness, are overcome by Hood's Sarsaparilla, which imparts the strength and appetite so much desired. Hood's Sarsaparilla has accomplished wonders for people who were "all run down."

Hood's Pills have won high praise for their easy yet efficient action. Try them.

ELECTION RETURNS.

According to the New York Sun the Australian ballot system prevails in a more or less complete form in the following twenty eight States of the Union: Arkansas, California, Connecticut, Delaware, Indiana, Minnesota, Maine, Michigan, Missouri, Montana, Maryland, Nebraska, New Hampshire, North Dakota, New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Tennessee, South Dakota, Illinois, West Virginia, Wisconsin, Washington, Wyoming and Vermont.

All these States except New York, New Jersey and Connecticut provide for a "blanket" ballot. The Australian rule of putting candidates' names on the ballot in alphabetical order under the titles of offices obtains in California, Massachusetts, Montana, Minnesota, Kentucky, Nebraska, New Hampshire, Oregon, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Washington, Wyoming and Vermont. The Belgian system of grouping party tickets (where a party device or symbol is used) is followed in Delaware, Indiana, Maine, Maryland, Missouri, Ohio and Wisconsin.

It follows quite certainly that the count of ballots on election night will be almost unprecedentedly tedious and slow. Election officers (except in a few of the States named) will not be able to separate "the straight tickets" into heaps and count them boldly, but will have to call off and tally each candidate's votes.
