LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

RALEIGH, OCT. 31, 1892.

The following are the counties in which Federal supervisors of elections have been appointed: Bertie, Brunswick, Camden, Beaufort, Bladen, Craven, Cumberland, Currituck, Edgecombe, Green, Halifax, Hertford, Johnson, Jones, Lenoir, Martin, Nash, Northampton, Pamlico, Pitt, Robeson, Vance, Wake, Warren, Washington and Wilson.

Michigan reports a strange case of a girl fourteen years old who has just gained the power of speech, having been dumb since her birth, and who has talked two weeks without stopping. If this story is true, medical men better hustle away to Stanton, Mich., and study this phenomenon, for the girl is in danger of talking herself to death.

There is a new swindle in New York that is unusually ingenious. A well dressed man will approach another who is smoking, and with courteous words and gestures will ask the latter to purchase an excellent cigar that he has, in order that he may obtain a dime to pay car fare. After the exchange has been made the obliging victim finds that the cigar is a vile five center. The soft voiced stranger is making money.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

DUG UP A LOT OF DYNAMITE.

The Philadelphia Record says, the pick of an Italian laborer at work on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, near the crossing at Old Second St., on Saturday brought it to light a dynamite cartridge. This was followed by the discovery of several others, until 98 sticks had been unearthed.

Contractor McThomas, who is in charge of the work, was notified, and as a matter of course, instructed his men to work very cautiously. More cautiously still were the police under Lieutenant Patterson instructed to haul the explosive to the twenty fifth district. A more elastic conveyance than patrol wagons had to be selected for this delicate service.

The theory advanced as to the presence of the dynamite cartridges at that place is that thieves stole them from construction trains supposing them to be salable lead, and buried them when they found out their dangerous nature.

HATCHING CHICKENS IN ADOBE HOUSES.

Charlotte News
Spring chickens ought to be abundant in Charlotte within the next few weeks, if the circulations of Mr. F. C. Lighte do not miscarry. He has established a poultry farm on the northern suburbs of Charlotte, and now he has three incubators in full blast, and will shortly put in a fourth. His arrangement for hatching chickens is a novel one, the hatching being done in mud, or adobe, houses, of which he has constructed three. He has the artificial heat applied to a thousand old eggs now.

HE TOLD OF HIS CRIME.

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Oct. 29 — Persuaded that Edward J. Livermash, who was on trial for the attempted murder of Darius Etheridge, might be induced to reveal in Court, under hypnotic influences the particulars of his attempt on Etheridge's life, it was determined yesterday by his counsel to make the experiment. For a prisoner, wonderful evidence to be used in his defense was the result.

THOUGHT HE WAS A KING

Livermash became cranky about a year ago, and his first escapade was to masquerade as a negro in San Francisco, but he was arrested and fined. He had carried on, successfully several country newspapers and had married the daughter of a rich farmer. After his arrest he became moody and talked of people who were plotting against him. Finally he went to Cloverdale, near this place and made a savage assault upon old Etheridge, who he declared, had promised to bequeath him a fortune. He put six bullets into the old man, but luckily none inflicted a mortal wound.

When arrested Livermash pretended he mistook Etheridge for the police judge who fined him in San Francisco. He talked incoherently, and at times declared he was King of Siam. Four months ago his attorney brought him before the insanity commissioners and he was sent on to the asylum. Last week he was released, and when suit was brought against him witnesses told the story of his vagaries, the chief witness being his wife.

CONFESSES HIS CRIME.

It was at this point that his lawyer hit upon the bright idea to put Livermash into the hypnotic state in court and let him live over again the incident of the night of the attempted murder. Dr. Gardner, who has acquired great influence over Livermash, hypnotized him by means of waving a shining disc before his eyes. Experts for the prosecution tried to see whether he was shamming by running a needle through his ear, but he never winced. His face was pale as that of a corpse and his limbs rigid, but he heard every question asked, and gave in minute detail what he did the eventful night, as well as what he thought. It was a horrible sight to see this apparently lifeless figure relating things as improbable as any of Stevenson's wildest tales of fancy. Finally the subject began to escape the doctor's control. He gave orders as the King of Siam, whereupon the doctor woke him.

NOT A RESPONSIBLE AGENT.

Dr. Gardner stated that Livermash was a victim of auto-hypnotism. That is, he could throw himself into a state which resembled somnambulism, during which he was not responsible for his actions. It was in such a state he attempted murder and he was dangerous unless under control of a stronger nature. The trial is exciting great interest.

When Eyraud was on trial in Paris counsel wished to put Gabrielle Bompard into the hypnotic state in order that she might rehearse the murder tragedy, but the Court refused.

In retaliation for the statement by Dr. Lombroso, the Italian scholar, that "it is almost impossible to find a perfectly sincere woman," a leading woman's club in this city has solemnly resolved that "it is as natural for the average man to lie as to eat." The worst of his heroic deliverance is that in loving to lie they love what is false, and that they love women can be proved by statistics from the Garden of Eden down—Richmond State.
