Peace Institute.

Next Friday night the first series of concerts for the winter season will be given at Peace Institute chapel at 7:30 o'clock. It will be under the direction of Prof. Karl Schneider and the selections will be admirable. Children and young boys will not be admitted.

Knights of Pythias.

This noble order, we are glad to learn, is in a flourishing condition. Last Friday evening a convention was held in Castle Hall which was well attended. The room has been beautifully renovated and elegantly furnished. The walls are adorned with emblems of the order and the floors nicely carpeted. Tonight Central Lodge meets and there will be work in the ranks.

Personal.

W. H. Wheeler, Esq., of Winston, was in the city last Saturday.
We were pleased to see Mr. Jno. S. Hampton on the street today.
Miss Rosa Stanton has gone to Norfolk and Baltimore to spend the winter with her brother.
Miss Linnie House and Lula Lancaster has gone to Wake Forest to spend a few weeks with friends.

Gov. Holt has appointed Charles McNamee of Asheville, a delegate to the Southern Inter State road Congress to meet in Murphy, Nov. 15th.
Capt. T. W. Jones, of the tenth cavalry U. S. Army, has been ordered here to succeed Lieut. Shipp. He is a graduate of West Point and has seen much service among the Indians.

Frances Willard claims that the amount of force exerted at a given moment to compress the waists of women by artificial methods, world aggregated, turn all the mills between Minneapolis and the Merrimac, while the condensed force of their tight shoes, if it could be applied, would run many trains.

Fine Concord, Martha, Isabella, Delaware and other varieties of grapes at A. Dugh's.

Sale of Valuable Real Estate.

By authority of a consent judgment of the Superior Court of Wake county in an action entitled W. K. Davis and N. P. Jones, Ex'rs, and others vs Louisa L. Cosby and others, entered for the purpose of making assets to pay certain legacies and charges set forth in a judgment in the aforesaid action, I will, as administrator of Mary A. Morehead, deceased, and as commissioner appointed by the court, on MONDAY, 5th day of December, 1892, at twelve o'clock m., at the court house door of Wake county, sell to the highest bidder the following described real estate belonging to the estate of said Mary A. Morehead, deceased, to-wit:
First, The store house and lot on the west side of Fayetteville street, now occupied by John S. Pessard as a drug store, fronting 28 feet on Fayetteville street, and running back west 210 feet to Salisbury street, including wall privileges as now enjoyed.
Second, The store house and lot on the north side of East Hargett street, now occupied by H. H. Crocker as a dry goods store, fronting about 22 feet on Hargett street, and running back north 81 feet with wall privileges which belong to said lot.
Third, The store house and lot on the south side of Hargett street, now occupied as a grocery store by J. F. Redford, fronting about 6 feet on Hargett street and running back south about 31 feet with all rights appurtenant to said lot.
The lots above described will be sold for one-third cash, balance six months from sale day, with interest at 8 per cent. Title reserved until purchase money is paid.
