VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 1, 1892.

NO. 9

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Fair, followed by showers in the east. Showers in the west.

Local forecast for this vicinity: On Wednesday: Increasing cloudiness, with rain slightly warmer.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 55; minimum temperature 40; rainfall 0 00

CITY IN BRIEF.

"All Saints Day."

Cotton receipts are rather light just now.

The Railroad Commission is not in session this week.

The Rocky Mount fair will open on Wednesday next the 9th inst.

The county canvass closed today with speaking at Rogers' Store.

A spirited revival of religion is still in progress at Durham.

Lots of people went gunning today, the bird law having expired by limitation.

A young man from Syria is in attendance as a pupil at Guilford College.

Seventh district appeals will be called in the Supreme Court on November 10th.

The election is one week off from today. Much political hustling will be done in that time.

The next session of the Presbyterian Synod will be held, at Ta bor on Oct. 31st 1893.

"A Breezy Time" at Metropolitan Hall next Tuesday night. At the close of each act the election news will be read out.

A great celebration took place at Charlotte today. Tonight there will be a grand torch light procession. All political.

Blow, blow, blow! That disagreeable catarrh can be cured by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the constitutional remedy.

Arrangements are being made for the returns from the election next Tuesday night. Bulletins will be posted as early as possible after the close of the polls.

Work is fast progressing on the new hotel at Durham. When completed it will be a beautiful and commodious building. It belongs to Col. J. S. Carr.

Mr. J. Thad. Richardson has accepted a position with the Lyon Racket store, and would be pleased to have his friends to call and see him.

Don't forget the proposed constitutional amendment when you go to vote. It proposes to provide for the election of solicitors by the entire people of the State, instead of by districts as heretofore.

We hear that there has been some changes decided upon in the building of the new hotel in this city. There will be two dining rooms, one on the second floor, and the other fifty feet square, on the fifth floor. There will be no bar room attached to the establishment.

In addition to the fine inflicted by a Justice of the Peace for illegal hunting, it is now threatened that a civil suit will be brought against Rev. Thos. Dixon, of New York. He will, if it goes against him, have to pay about $800. It is the opinion of many that this is the result of prejudice against Mr. Dixon for criticism of the municipal affairs of New York.

Appropriate services were observed in the Episcopal churches today in honor of "All Saints Day." At t. Mary's school the alumni made a presentation to the rector, Rev. Bennett Smedes, in memory of his father, Rev. Dr. Aldert Smedes. At the church of the Good Shepherd, the service presented by Mrs. Niles in memory of her mother, Mrs. Lyman, will be consecrated.

Died.

At her residence, near Hillsboro, at 6:08 o'clock, p. m., October 29th, Mrs. Sallie R. Collins, widow of the late Joseph Collins, and daughter of Col. Cadwallader Jones.

I. O. O. F.

The members of Litchford Encampment, No. 26, are requested to meet at Odd Fellows' Hall Wednesday, November 24, 7 p. m., to visit Capital Lodge, No. 147 in a body. Patriarchs of McKee Encampment are cordially invited to be present. JOHN S. KEITH, Scribe.

Cleveland-Carr Club.

There will be an important business meeting of the Club tonight at the courthouse. This will be the last meeting before the election and every member is urged to be present. The courthouse ball will be rung at 8 o'clock. The Campaign Glee Club will be on hand and sing some appropriate songs. Addresses will be delivered by Messrs. Josephus Daniels, N. B. Broughton and others. FRANK STR. NACH, President. C. S. LAMBETH, Secretary.

Childhood.

This is the title of a new magazine to be published in New York city, commencing on the 25th inst. It will be edited by Dr. George William Witherburn and Mrs. Florence Hull. It will be a high class periodical in all respects, and devoted mainly to matters relative to the moral, intellectual and physical development of childhood. It will contain thirty-two double-column pages, and will be published monthly at ten cents a number one dollar a year. Address "Childhood," 230, West 132d St., New York city.

Found Dead.

The Charlotte News has received a dispatch of date, Oct. 31st, from New York city, as follows:

Thomas Hill, a resident of Hillsboro, N. C., was found dead in bed early this morning at his boarding house, 89 Clinton Place, where he had stopped about a week. A packet of letters found among his effects indicated that he had come North for the cure of the alcohol habit, and that he had previously been an inmate of a Keeley Institute. His death was due to consumption. An unsealed letter to his wife was found in his room urging her to come to New York, as he could not last long.

Personal.

Hon. W. R. Cox was in the city yesterday.

Col. Jno. N. Staples, of Greensboro, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

The many friends of Senator Vance will hail with pleasure the news that he is rapidly recruiting his health.

Gov. Holt has gone to Alamance county where he will make his first regular speech of the campaign.

Mr. J. S. Carr, of Durham, has presented Davidson College with ten shares of stock in the Durham fertilizer company. The shares are of $100 each per value. This is a noble gift—but, then, Jule Carr is a noble man in all respects.

The portrait of Judge Henry Seawell has been presented to the State library by his grand daughter, Miss Miriam Seawell, of this city.

Mr. W. S. Stallings who for two years was a clerk in the State Auditor's office, has accepted a place as book keeper with the North State Music Company, where he will be well pleased to see his many friends.

Maj. Jno. Devereux, who has been sick, is considerably improved.

R. M. Pearson, of Asheville, has been appointed by the Governor one of the local Vice Presidents of the National League of Good Roads which was organized at Chicago two weeks since. The first meeting will be held at Washington in December.

Sailor Hats.

No hat so completes a simple toilet for a lady as a jaunty little sailor hat. Now, lady, listen: you can buy these same nice straw sailor hats for 10 cents at Swindell's. Now this same Swindell is always on the alert to save you money and this is the plainest proof. All other stores charge you 25c for these same hats. You pay 10c for them at Swindell's.

Bologna sausage cheap by the case at D. T. Johnson's

Make it Go.

You can make a dollar go farther and buy more in Swindell's store than at any place in our reach. Then why not make it go; no ill can come of it. In millinery goods especially can you make a dollar do double duty. Think of it. Straw sailors 10 cents each, and all shapes in felt hats 25 cents each. Make it go at Swindell's.

A Present Free to You.

"The American Magazine" will be given to each lady who spends 50 cts at Swindell's if she will take the trouble to ask for it. This is a beautiful book of interest. Ladies' straw sailor hats 10c each. Nice carpet 20c yard. Rugs 15c each.

SWINDELL'S.

A Card.

To the dressy people of Raleigh and surrounding country:

I will say that I am now prepared to make up suits to order in the very best manner and style. The material will be furnished by the firm of W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. I also do cutting and making if goods are furnished. Respectfully, C. WICKLI, No. 124 Fayetteville street, opposite Tucker's.

Sherwood's.

We have been painstaking in our selections. Our stock is composed mainly of good, serviceable, medium priced goods. Not the cheapest nor the highest, but just that class of goods so largely used, yet so hard to get when you want it.

Tailor made coats—the best fitting and lowest priced. Two stocks sold. An order is out for third. We are rushing the dress goods at close prices. Second stock of underwear expected every day. The manufacturers have put out styles never so attractive, and we are ever on the alert to get the best for our people. C. A. Sherwood & Co.

Inexpensive Carpets.

We have never shown a more complete line of inexpensive carpets than at present. These carpets were all bought and delivered before the recent advance in price and our patrons will be allowed every advantage in price that we secured. Desirable patterns in strong, good wearing ingrain carpets at 35c, 39c, 35c, 40c, 45c and 50c. Of these we have styles to suit halls or bed rooms, and we can promise to give every one who wishes an inexpensive carpet the best possible value. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.
