

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 4. 1892.

NO. 12

CITY IN BRIEF.

Splendid rain last night. Regular meeting of the board of aldermen tonight. Get ready to vote, and then vote early—but not often.

Many buildings are in course of erection in different parts of the city. Chief Justice Merrimon's condition is said to be somewhat improved today.

The L. L. Circle of Kings Daughters meet at the Park Place, Saturday at 4 p. m.

See advertisement of C. A. Sherwood & Co., who have latest patents of trunks for sale.

Master Alfred Upchurch, one of the carriers of the Visitor, is confined at home with sickness.

A nice bridge has been built by the county convicts over Walnut creek, on the Holleman road.

The Messrs. Stronach request their friends to drop in when passing, and learn the wonders of their "kem kom"

Mr. E. M. Cheek left yesterday evening for Burlington to attend the funeral of his sister Mrs. D. L. White.

(Scrofula, whether hereditary or acquired, is thoroughly expelled from the blood by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

Work is now in progress on two new railways in the State. One is the Norfolk, Wilmington and Charleston and the other the Egypt extension.

The last meeting of the centennial managers took place at the mayor's office this afternoon at 4 o'clock for the purpose of winding up matters in a financial way.

Attention is directed to the announcement of Mr. Frank Stronach, city auctioneer, who will sell some valuable personal property at auction at 12:30 o'clock tomorrow.

An old citizen remarked today that he knew of but one precedent for this weather, and that was way back in the early forties when all the fruit trees commenced a second budding.

There was a meeting in Metropolitan Hall at noon today, addressed by Marion Butler and others in the interest of the Third party. There were comparatively few present, composed of persons of all shades of political opinion.

We have received a well gotten up card of invitation to call upon the managers of the Youth's Companion at their new home in Boston, Mass. Should we at any time go to the "hub," we will avail ourselves of the opportunity.

We hear complaints that mischievous boys or others are in the habit of writing obscene words on fences, walls, &c., in some parts of the city. Such acts are outrageous and the perpetrators if discovered should be severely dealt with.

Winter is coming and the poor little orphans at Oxford and Thomasville will need winter clothing and food. Reader, have you sent them anything yet? If not, do so at once. "The Lord loveth a cheerful giver." Give as God has prospered you.—Littleton Courier.

Attention is called to the Lyon Racket store where one of the best assortments of everything in the millinery and dry goods line can be had at the most reasonable rates. Call and make your selections now before the goods are thoroughly picked over. You will find the prices in accordance with the times.

Chief Justice Merrimon yesterday united himself with Edenton Street Methodist church and received the rite of baptism. The ceremony on account of Judge Merrimon's sickness, took place at the residence. The pastor Rev. Mr. Cole, officiated. Miss Mand, the youngest daughter, also united herself with the church.

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Fair, preceded by showers in the east. Cooler Saturday.

Local forecast for this vicinity: On Saturday: Clearing weather, slightly cooler.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 76; minimum temperature 60; rainfall 0.57.

Died.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning, at Mitchell's Mills, Wake Forest Township, Wake county, of cancer of the breast, Mrs. Geneva Mitchell, wife of Mr. Wiley Mitchell and daughter of Mr. Elias Pace of Raleigh. She was a lady much beloved by all who knew her, and her loss will be sadly felt.

The little four year old son of Mr. J. S. Wynne who has been sick for some time, died early this morning.

The Durham paper Box factory now has in connection with it a mattress making department.

Mysterious.

Charles Wilson, editor of the Advance, at Wilson, N. C., has disappeared most mysteriously from his home there, and so far all efforts to trace him have failed. Wilson was to have left Wilson on the 4:30 o'clock train last Monday morning for Greenville, N. C. In his room was found an unfinished letter which he had written to a lady friend, and in the last paragraph he stated that he must close, as it was then 2 o'clock. He did not go to Greenville, and no trace whatever of his whereabouts have been obtained, though telegraph wires have been diligently used. Foul play is suspected.
