RALEIGH, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1892.

NO. 15

CITY IN BRIEF.

All politics today.
What shall we talk about now?
Business at a complete standstill today.
Everybody on the tip-toe of expectation for news.
Congressmen were chosen today in forty one states.
Judge Connor was in the city yesterday afternoon.
There was nothing doing at the cotton exchange today.
The internal revenue collections for the 5th district last week were $7,883.83
It is gratifying to state, that the health of Senator Ransom is improving.
A moderate cold wave would be a welcome visitor about this time - It is coming.
Judge John Collier who died a few days since in Atlanta, Ga., was a native of North Carolina.
Mr S F Telfair, the governor's private secretary, has gone to Washington, Beaufort county, to vote.
The Goldsboro Argus says there were six judges in that place yesterday, on the way to their homes to vote.
Just received a Miss Maggie Reese's new line of caps for infants and small children Also a full line of ladies soft felt walking hats, at all prices.

The person who took the hat at the court house last night is known and if returned at this office no questions will be asked

Catarrh in the head is a constitutional disease, and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, to effect a cure.

The little son of Mr J C L Harris who was burned accidentally a few days since is much improved. It was not seriously injured.

Several important changes are talked of in the operation of the electric street cars. One idea, we hear, is to do away with conductors and introduce boxes for depositing the fare.

There was an Episcopal service in the academy building at Cary Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. Mr Pittinger, and a delegation from the Church of the Good Shepherd of this city.

Ladies having in charge the chrysanthemum show have not been able to make as many calls for contributions as they desired. It is requested that such contributions be sent to the old stand of Messrs. McGee & Mosley on Wednesday and Thursday.

Mr. James Lunsford one of the oldest and most highly esteemed citizens of Durham county died suddenly at his home near Flat river yesterday morning. He was about 81 years old and lived all his life on the place at which he died. He had many friends and acquaintances in Raleigh who will regret his death.

Alderman House who, we believe, is chairman of the park committee, asked for and obtained Sunday night authority to place another workman in Pullen park. We hope our friend will now go diligently to work and have the park in "apple pie" order by next summer. By that time, perhaps the street car line may run there.

The following, taken from an Ohio exchange, is about the most unique thing in the way of a "dun" we have seen. Says the editor:

All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to this office are requested to call and settle. All those indebted to this office and not knowing it are requested to call and find out. All those knowing themselves to be indebted and not wishing to call are requested to stay in one place long enough for us to catch them. All those not indebted are requested to call and become indebted."

The Election.

Up to the time of going to press the election in this city proceeded quietly with a large increase of the vote over former years. So far as we have been able to ascertain from reports there has been a very large gain for the Democratic side, on the county ticket, many of the colored people casting their votes for the straight Democratic ticket. No news of a reliable character had been received from the country precincts. A dispatch from New Hanover county received about noon states that the vote in Wilmington had been largely increased and a Democratic gain over the vote of 1888 is predicted.

Dispatches received at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon states that Gov. Flower estimates the Democratic plurality in New York State at 50,000.

Watson is certainly beaten for Congress in Georgia. Very heavy rain prevails.

Died

At his residence in Charleston S C. on Saturday last Mr. E W. Egan. He resided in Raleigh for some time as manager of the Hygienic Ice Plant and left for Charleston about a month since. He was about 37 years old and had many friends in this city who will deeply regret to hear of his death.

At Tarboro on the 7th, inst the infant son of Pierre B and Elizabeth H Cox. The funeral services were held from Christ church this morning at 8:45 o'clock.

Arrested.

Henry Rogers the notorious outlaw of Durham, has been arrested on Tangier Island, Maryland, and brought back. He was incarcerated in Durham jail yesterday afternoon. There was great feeling manifested against him, but it was agreed to let the law take its course. The arrest was made by the Chief of Police, Mr Jake Woodall.

The Weather Today.

Local forecast for this vicinity: On Wednesday: Fair weather, with rapid fall of over 30 degrees in temperature during next 24 hours.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a m today:

Maximum temperature, 73; minimum temperature 62; rainfall 0.37.

Everybody on the watch out for news

The oyster trade is receiving a set back on account of the warm weather.

Go to Metropolitan Hall tonight and see "A Breezy Time." You can enjoy a splendid comedy and at the same time hear the election returns read out.

Mr. Claude Wilson, editor of the Wilson Advance, who mysteriously disappeared a short time since and who it was feared had been foully dealt with, has turned up safe and sound.

COAL - Jas. Baker can furnish the very best red ash anthracite coal. Special rates very low during the next ten days. Yard on South street, near N C Railroad. no7 66

FRESH MEAT MARKET - If you want to get some of the finest sausage you ever eat, and the finest mountain beef and pork, go to the glass front next to Messrs. Soence Bros, on Martin street, and Mr D J Ellis will wait on you with pleasure. He makes the purest sausage in the city. Go and see him. no3 66

NOTICE.

FOR CONSTABLE. - I hereby announce myself as candidate for township (Raleigh) or stable. I served four years in the southern army and four years on the police force of this city. In both capacities I served faithfully with an open hand and a clear conscience to do the right in the sight of God and man, and if elected I will do all in my power to serve the general public as I did while on the police force and in defending our homes and firesides. In the late war I served under Wm Harrison, mayor; Wesley Whitaker, mayor; Joseph Holden, mayor; Gen John Gorman, mayor. My bondsmen were Mr Ned Harris, Benjamin Cheatham, Henry Davis, Thomas Bradford. Please don't forget the name of B H Dunston. Respectfully,

oc29 td B H DUNSTON, Raleigh township,
