

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1892.

NO. 18

CITY IN BRIEF.

Ice this morning.
W. W. Fuller of Durham is in the city.
Cabinet making will be the next in order.
Thanksgiving turkeys are coming in fast.
Goldboro is to have a grand torch-light procession.
Wilmington is making grand preparations for welcome week.
Candidates will soon put in their appearance by the thousands.
Holiday goods are already being displayed in many of the stores.
There was a considerable improvement in the cotton receipts today.
Now that the election is over, go to the sheriff and see about your taxes.
Remember that this is the last day of the Chrysanthemum show. Help out.
Chief of Police Heartt was well enough to resume his official duties today.
We are pleased to hear that there is material improvement in the condition of State Treasurer Bain.
Prof. Von Hermann of the weather service has gone to Washington City on a twenty days leave of absence.
The trains on the Seaboard Air Line will enter the union depot at Atlanta on the 15th inst for the first time.
The game of foot ball at Trinity Park, Durham tomorrow between the University and Trinity College teams will be called at 3 p. m.
It is not what its proprietors say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story of its merit. Hood's Sarsaparilla CURES.
A handsome stove has been placed in the reading room of the Y. M. C. A. The association now has fifty two papers and magazines on file.
There will be a meeting of McKee Encampment No. 15, tonight. Members of Litchford Encampment and visiting patriarchs invited. Refreshments.
It is said that a new telegraph line will be built from Raleigh to Richmond at an early day for the accommodation of the press, so great is the business.
A wag remarked on the streets this morning that the returns are all in except from Canada, which is very close—just across the river from New York state.
At a meeting of the stockholders of the Durham and Northern Railroad held yesterday afternoon, in this city, the old board of directors and the present officers were re-elected.
The Norris dry goods store will offer tomorrow great inducements in ladies ribbed vests. Just read the advertisements in this issue and note the unprecedented prices offered.
McKee Encampment, No. 15, meets tonight at 7:30 o'clock. R. P. degrees will be conferred, after which refreshments will be served. Members of Litchford Encampment are cordially invited.
The perpendicularity of a monument is visibly affected by the rays of the sun. On every sunny day a tall monument has a regular swing leading away from the sun. The phenomenon is due to the greater expansion of the side on which the rays of the sun fall.
Another large crowd attended the Chrysanthemum show yesterday and last night. The proceeds are to be devoted to St. John's Hospital and it becomes all our people to patronize it to the fullest extent. Oysters and all the delicacies of the season to be had at reasonable rates. Don't fail to attend. Remember the place, Mosley & McGee's old stand, Fayetteville street.

Death Warrant.

Governor Holt has issued a warrant for the execution of George Rest, a negro sentenced for murder in the Superior Court of Craven. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court which affirmed the judgment.

Sale of Stock.

The sale of blooded stock owned by Capt. B. P. Williamson took place today at the old stables of W. C. Mc Mackin, on East Morgan street, commencing at 12 o'clock. Prior to the sale a parade of the stock took place through the principal streets headed by the Raleigh colored band. The prices obtained were generally satisfactory.

Wilfred Clarke.

This versatile and popular comedian supported by a splendid company will commence a two nights engagement at Metropolitan Hall next Monday night in the roaring comedy entitled "Fit for Tat." The Tribune of Rome, Ga., says: "Wilfred Clarke as Paul Rosch in 'Fit for Tat,' a farcical comedy, proves himself an imitable actor. His facial expressions are wonderful."
The press throughout the country teem with his praise.

R & G Railroad.

There was a well attended meeting of the stockholders of his road, held at the office of the company in this city yesterday. The stockholders of the R & A. L. also had a meeting. The annual reports of the officers of both corporations were submitted and made most gratifying exhibits. All the old directors and officers were re-elected. There was a reorganization of the stockholders of the Pamlico railroad from Hamlet to Cheraw and Mr. Wm. Moncreu was chosen president. It was agreed to make important extensions of the road.

A Popular House.

The establishment of Mr. Chas. Bretsch, on Fayetteville street, in the block this side of the capitol, is fast gaining public favor, and as a resort for ladies and gentlemen is equal to any in the city. He keeps at all times a first class assortment of oysters which he offers to the public, either prepared or by the measure. His restaurant is a quiet retreat and the management is unsurpassed. The confectionery department is well furnished with the freshest candy of the best kind. Call and see him. You will be well received and waited upon in the most polite manner.

Turner's N. S. Almanac.

This old and reliable almanac has reached the fifty seventh year of its publication, the edition for 1893 having made its appearance. It has for so long a period been a household necessity in North Carolina that it really seems superfluous to sound its praise. It can justly be recorded that the present edition, in many respects, is the best ever issued. Aside from its calculations which are the conceded "stand by" of all our people, it contains a mass of useful information far surpassing the issues of former years. Its annual record of events and deaths of elderly persons and citizens of prominence, is unusually full, while the suggestions to farmers and others constitute a fund of most valuable information. The almanac can be had of merchants, bookkeepers, druggists and postmasters, or of the publisher, James H. Ennis, Raleigh, N. C. Price, single copy, 10 cents, sent postpaid.
