

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1892.

NO. 24

CITY IN BRIEF.

Lots of people are going hunting next Thursday.

Some first class shows are booked for the near future.

North Carolina six per cent bonds are now selling freely at 122.

Dr. John M. Worth, of Ashboro, former State Treasurer, is in the city.

The toy business is already looming up in anticipation of Christmas.

A force of hands is engaged in repairing the street car track at several points.

Miss Evie Perkinson left the city yesterday afternoon to visit friends in Fayetteville.

Quite a storm of wind and rain passed over the city this morning, between 7 and 8 o'clock.

L. S. Overman, of Salisbury, has qualified as executor of the will of the late Chief Justice Merrimon.

Bear in mind the entertainment of the King's Daughters next Tuesday. It will be an enjoyable event.

The offices in the capitol and other State buildings were closed today as a mark of respect to the late Treasurer Bain.

Scrofula, whether hereditary or acquired, is thoroughly expelled from the blood by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

The Cumberland county fair is a pronounced success in all respects. The exhibits are far more numerous than ever before.

A large number of prominent gentlemen arrived in the city yesterday, afternoon and this morning to attend the funerals of Treasurer Bain.

Delegates of the Masonic fraternity from Greensboro and other places, are here, in attendance on the funeral services of the late Treasurer Bain.

Owing to the death of Treasurer Bain, the german which was to have been given tonight by the Allegro club, has been postponed until Wednesday night next.

We are pleased to learn that the attendance at the Raleigh Male Academy is larger than ever before. It is a most admirable school and worthy of the most extensive patronage.

Mr. Thos. A. Montgomery, of this city, has been promoted to the position of chief clerk in the office of W. A. Turk, General Passenger Agent, vice Mr. Bunch, who has been transferred to another field of duty.

In the Supreme Court yesterday the case of the State vs. Brogden from Wayne, was affirmed. This is the case of appeal by the counsel of Willis Brogden, brother of Ex-Governor Brogden, who was recently sentenced to the penitentiary for murder.

Now that the election is over and matters have resumed their normal condition, can't our city fathers search the records and see if there is not something on docket about the extension of Morgan and other streets? It strikes us there is some motion not yet fully carried out.

Although there was rather a small audience at Metropolitan Hall last night to witness the rendition of "Wait Till The Clouds Roll By," yet all present were highly delighted. The company, in all respects, is a good one and we highly commend it to the public. Mr. Wills, as Peter Synder, is a most decided success.

The Norris dry goods house has an advertisement in this issue of interest to gentlemen and ladies, and especially to mothers. The stock of shoes is large and of such quality as must suit the pockets of all. Mothers who desire shoes for children attending school should call and examine the stock, as there is no place in Raleigh where a better selection in that line can be made.

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Hoist cold wave signal; temperature will fall 20° to 34° by 8 p. m. Saturday.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 67; minimum temperature 48; rainfall 0.10.

Entertainment.

Our people should by no means overlook the oyster supper to be given this evening at the residence of Mrs. A. F. Fowler, 417 South Dawson street, under the auspices of the ladies aid society of the Raleigh Christian church.

Married.

Yesterday afternoon at the Branson House, in this city, Mr. John Q. Adams, of Atlanta, Ga., led to the hymenal altar, Miss Myrtle Branson, daughter of Rev. Dr. Levi Branson. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Cunningham assisted by Rev. J. B. Hurley. A number of friends and acquaintances of the family were present. The contracting parties left on the 6 p. m. train for Lynchburg Va., on a bridal trip.

Concert.

Tonight at 8 o'clock the young ladies of Peace Institute will give a concert to which the public are cordially invited. Boys and girls under 14 years of age will not be admitted. There will be a reception by the young ladies and the faculty in the parlors after the concert. Tickets to the reception will be required at the door from all young men who desire to call.

The World's Fair.

It is a matter of congratulation that the North Carolina Board of Managers of the World's Fair are making material progress in their work. It is now certain that the exhibit from our State will surpass those made at New Orleans, Atlanta, or Boston. There was a meeting of the executive committee yesterday, and considerable business had been mapped out, but owing to the death of Treasurer Bain an adjournment was made.

A Good Chance.

Our readers are invited to read specially the advertisement of Mr. L. C. Bagwell, who announces that he has taken the agency for enlarging pictures. This is a first-rate chance for all who have photographs or small pictures of friends and relatives to have them enlarged. Mr. Bagwell can furnish all, who so desire, with samples of the work, and he guarantees to render complete satisfaction in every case. Either call on him at his establishment corner Blount and Martin streets or address him a postal. Remember that no money will be required until the pictures are delivered.

Interesting and entertaining exercises are promised at the meeting of the Epworth League at Central church tonight. We are requested to state that every member of the church is urged to be present and the public cordially invited. Exercises begin at 7:30.

Capt. T. W. Jones, of the 10th, U. S. Cavalry, who was detailed from the war department for special duty in the Adjutant General's Department and will, when necessary assist in the Inspector General's office.

It is said that there is a comet fast approaching the earth and some of the knowing ones state that it will appear in a few weeks about as large as the full moon. There is no danger in it, however.
