

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1892.

NO. 29

Postponed.

The spelling bee and gymnastic display which were to have been given this evening, has been postponed until Dec 1st. An elaborate program will be arranged.

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Fair weather, warmer.
Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a m today:
Maximum temperature, 85; minimum temperature 21; rainfall 0.00.

Unconstitutional.

A law was passed by the last Legislature of North Carolina that required every package of seed sold in this State to be stamped with the year in which they were produced. We thought, and still think this law a good one for the protection of our truck farmers as they were often imposed upon by having worthless seed palmed off upon them. It now seems, however, that Federal Judge Goff of the United States court, in chambers at Baltimore has released on HABEAS CORPUS, Simon W. Sanders, a merchant of Wilmington, who was arrested for violation of the law, and the said Judge Goff has declared our law unconstitutional and void. It really seems that the conflict between state and federal authority will never be properly settled, especially in the matter of any southern State regulating its own domestic matters, in its own way. Pity but what some definite line cannot be drawn.

Perhaps as the Christmas holidays will soon be here, that you desire to lay in a supply of first class groceries. If so, there is no place at which you can make better selections or more to your advantage than at the well known establishment of Mr. W. R. Newsom, on South Wilmington street. Here can be found as neat and as fresh a stock as is found in Raleigh and the prices, too are such as to meet the pockets of the people.

Miss Maggie Reese is now prepared to furnish the ladies with all the latest novelties in the millinery line. Never before has she had a better stock to select from. As Christmas is coming on there is no better place at which to procure handsome presents for your wives, daughters, sisters, cousins, aunts, and sweethearts. Remember the place, 209 Fayetteville street.

The alarm of fire sent in from box 23 today between 1 and 3 o'clock was caused from the slight burning of a partition in a wooden house on East Martin street in which a colored woman named Jole keeps a restaurant. The flames were subdued before the arrival of the fire department, which responded promptly. Very little damage done.

Don't forget, when you are hungry to find out the superb restaurant of Mr. Ohas. Bretsch. His oyster saloon is unsurpassed for elegance and the freshest bivalves can always be obtained done up in the style that suits you. Families will be supplied at all times on short notice. Telephone 103.

Mr. J. M. McGowan, of Wilmington, who has been in the city for a few days, has returned home. He requested us to state that the rumor of his mother's sickness was incorrect. She is as well as usual.

In this city, at her residence on East Worth street, last night of peritonitis Lucy Johnson Scruggs wife of Dr. Scruggs (colored) aged 28.

Stand your ground, no matter how the shooting stars may fly around. They are grand and beautiful with no harm in them.

Parties wishing dirt can get a lot by sending tomorrow morning to the Baptist Tabernacle on Person street side.

Dr. J. J. Mott, of Statesville, was in the city yesterday.

A Happy Thanksgiving Surprise.

The church and congregation of the Tabernacle gave their pastor and wife a genuine surprise party last night. About 8 o'clock not less than from 150 to 200 persons gathered at Dr. Hall's residence on North Person street, having had some previous meeting place, and soon filled the rooms and made the home bright with their presence. Nor was the visit all, the abundance of good things covered the tables, and filled the pantry and drawers. It was one of the best gift sociables ever made a pastor and wife, and was very greatly appreciated, and all had a most enjoyable time. The pastor and wife extend heartiest thanks to the many friends for their great kindness.

The Tobacco Outlook.

We had a short interview this afternoon with our friend Capt. J. E. Pogue, relative to the tobacco outlook in Raleigh. He gives the most encouraging reports, among which is the statement that there have been sales at the war-houses daily during the past week aggregating about fifty thousand pounds. Capt. Pogue thinks there will be a gradual but steady increase and that Raleigh is now commencing a big boom in this direction. The prices received here have been satisfactory, and it is now clearly demonstrated that there is no better market than ours for the weed. This is cheering intelligence. We can assure our friends from a distance that our merchants will do as well with them in all respects as those of any other town in the state.

It is but an endorsement of the Visitors proposition, when we state that an insane negro woman was brought here from the country last Wednesday afternoon and placed in jail for safe keeping for want of room in the Eastern asylum at Goldsboro. The legislature should take this matter in hand at once. There is urgent necessity. Of course these insane persons cannot receive such treatment as is necessary in a county jail, and we learn that there are many such cases in the different counties.

Some persons suggest as a good plan to settle the matter of the Raleigh postoffice is to have primary meetings at which the democratic citizens could designate their choice. This might work if there were but one or two applicants, but in cases where a dozen or so men are to be voted for neither would hardly obtain a majority, and a plurality vote would not represent the wishes of the people. Better leave it to the powers that be.

The mails of our members elect to the General Assembly are getting very heavy, so much that some of them are seriously thinking about employing typewriters for answering the letters.

The woods were full of hunters yesterday and the slaughter was general all along the line. It was not as heavy however, as many hoped for. It was rather too cold for comfort.

It will be soon time for our newly elected county officials to hustle around looking after their bonds. The first Monday in December is the day.

It is officially known that over ten thousand of the people of Eastern North Carolina are engaged in the fishing business.

Quite a handsome sum was realized at the doll's show Wednesday night for St. Mary's Guild and St. John's Hospital.

The outlook now is that the Governor's Guard will attend Cleveland's inauguration.

The cold wave is general throughout the country—the comet charged with it.

Got it in the neck yesterday—the turkey.

ANOTHER FIRE at WINSTON

Hotel Zinzendorf Destroyed.

Dispatches yesterday afternoon announce the total destruction of the Zinzendorf hotel at Winston. The fire occurred about 11 o'clock in the morning and was caused from the laundry. A high wind was prevailing at the time and soon the entire building was in flames. Some of the furniture was saved and most of the private effects of the guests. The loss, exclusive of insurance, is estimated at from $20,000 to $35,000. No loss of life. The directors have decided to rebuild at once.

"From Bar Room to Pulpit."

It is rare that our people will have the chance to enjoy a better intellectual treat than that to be afforded by the lecture of Rev. Sam Small, to be delivered at Metropolitan Hall next Monday night, entitled "From Barroom to the Pulpit." It is conceded on all sides that Mr. Small is one of the foremost lecturers of the country and can well be ranked as a prototype to Rev. Sam Jones in popularity. The subject matter of which he will treat at his coming lecture is one capable of much enlargement and it is handled with powerful effect. The reputation of Mr. Small is sufficient to attract a large audience, and we can anticipate an overflowing house. The price of admission has been placed at 50 cents and seats can be secured at the drug establishment of W. H. King & Co.

SATISFACTION Is guaranteed to every consumer of HOOD'S Sarsaparilla. One hundred doses in every bottle. No other does this.
