LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION. RALEIGH, NOV. 26, 1892.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Mr. B. F. Montague is somewhat better this morning.

The next term of the Federal Court will be held at Charlotte, commencing Dec. 13th.

The offerings at the Church of the Good Shepherd on Thanksgiving Day, amounted to $70.40

Mr Josiah Jones who has been in Concord for a few weeks past has returned home, in quite feeble health.

We learn that the new arrangement of the street car system is working well, so far.

See advertisement of a new corner store for rent near the Union depot, also one large office and six nice rooms for offices or bed rooms.

The papers in different sections of the country give accounts of the meteoric display last Wednesday night. It seems to have been general.

It is not what its proprietors say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does that tells the story of its merit. Hood's Sarsaparilla CURES.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Mr. John A. Mills, who announces oak wood at $2.25 per cord. Let those needing fuel take notice.

Let the merchants remember that Christmas will soon be here, and, in order to let people know what they have it will be necessary to advertise. Don't hide your lights under a measure.

Can't the house in which Andrew Johnson was born be definitely fixed and be removed to World's Fair at Chicago. It would, at least, cause some sensation.

We hope our friend, the Superintendent of the capitol, will use efforts to have another bell placed in capitol square, for use on all proper occasions. It used to work well in old times.

Some of our Brooklyn friends are anxiously looking to the day when a belt line of electric railway will run through that suburb. It would be a great benefit to the inhabitants of that locality which is growing each year in population.

It is hoped that the ladies will have better luck in raising funds for the Virginia Dare monument building than they did for the North Carolina building at the World's Fair. The "Dare" fund is to be raised from appeals to the ladies of the entire nation.

There was a conference at the Agricultural department yesterday afternoon concerning the matter of the State's exhibit at the World's Fair. Gov. Holt presided. We hope that something definite was agreed on, and we hope further, that Gov. Holt will press upon the General Assembly the necessity for a considerable appropriation. We still further hope, that the appropriation will be made direct, with no whipping around about it.

Our tax payers should remember that schools are to be taken care of. In order that this should be properly done, a prompt collection of taxes for the purpose is necessary. Those liable to taxes are not coming forward promptly as they should as it is stated that out of $12,985 assessed in this township, only about $1,500 has, so far, been collected. Sheriff Page is desirous to turn over funds to the schools, and we hope our tax payers will realize the situation.

ODD FELLOW'S COLUMN.

Grand Secretary Woodell will be absent from his office for two weeks after Tuesday morning next. He goes to Eastern N. C. visiting Knotts Island, Coisjock, Moyock Belcross Shiloh, Etenton, and then crossing Albemarle S and will visit lodges in Hyde and Tyrrell counties.

It is very gratifying to note that our Orphan Home at Goldsboro was remembered substantially by many of the brethren sisters and lodges on Thanksgiving Day. Wilmington, Raleigh Mt. Airy and other cities sent in nice contributions for the comfort of the orphans.

The three words that constitute the three golden links of Odd Fellowship, Friendship, Love, Truth, have something in them that touches a man's heart. No man becomes so well off that he can dispense with his friends. We can have too few friends but we can never have too many. True friendship will aid us on in life more than anything else. The golden chain is complete, uniting us in brotherly love, helping us to fight the battles of life side by side and binding us to the throne of the Eternal.—Three Links.

The six largest Odd Fellow lodges in the world are in the jurisdiction of Massachusetts, and their membership is as follows: Bay State, of Lynn, 737; Howard, of Charlestown, 392; Hampton, of Springfield, 648; Bunker Hill, of Charlestown, 641; Quinsigamond, of Worcester, 601, and DeSoto, of Springfield, 504.—I. O. O. F. Record

Tribute of Respect Adopted by Scaton Gates Lodge No. 34 I. O. O. F.

Let us pause a few moments. A fearful reality renders our sensibilities and our eyes reluctantly open to the sad truth that our beloved Brother, Past Grand Donald W. Bain is dead. Peacefully and calmly he passed away, on the evening of November the 16th at 5:35 o'clock, leaving behind a precious legacy—a good name. Not a living soul on earth has aught against our departed Brother. An honest man, the noblest work of God.

The church of his choice; the great state of his nativity; the fraternities in which he held membership all loved, trusted and delighted to honor him.

We rejoice that he lived among us; but we mourn his early demise, as our quivering lips attempt to pay a slight tribute to his memory.

"And he has left, as priceless legacy A spotless fame, a tender love and pure, A deep devotion to our noble cause And living faith that sight shall ever endure"

Our hearts go out in tenderest sympathy to all who are, by this dispensation of divine providence, so sorely afflicted, and we tender to them our heartfelt condolence. As we all drink from this cup of sorrow, we will realize that while "His ways are past finding out," that he also, "doeth all things well." And that one by one we shall soon be called to follow our departed Brother.

We know how much he will be missed—as a citizen, state officer in his church and in his lodges; but we bow in humble submission, knowing full well that he has only exchanged this life for one which is far better.

"There is no death; the stars go down, To rise upon some fairer shore; And bright in Heavens jeweled crown, They shine forever more"

May the gentle spirit of our departed Brother linger lovingly near us; whisper to us sweet words of comfort and hope; becom us onward to a nobler life here below, and upward to that home "not made with hands eternal in the heavens."

Resolved, That this tribute be spread upon our records and a copy sent to the family of our deceased Brother, and also furnished our city papers for publication.

B. H. WOODKILL, K. D. HODGES, A. M. POWELL, Committee. City papers please copy.

A Balking Horse.

A writer says that whenever a horse driven by him has balked, he has got out of his carriage, gone to the horse's forefoot, lifted it from the ground, and struck the shoe a few blows with a stone. He has never failed to start a balking horse in this very simple way.

OUR CITY ADVERTISEMENTS.

This is the season when fuel becomes a necessity and everybody is looking around for the best place to secure it. Messrs. Jones & Powell are veterans in the business and carry at all times the most popular grades of coal and wood. In the matter of coal, people have different ideas, some having a partiality to one kind and one to another. They, therefore, can suit you in all grades. Call and make your selections, or you can order by telephone.

Miss Maggie Reese is now prepared to furnish the ladies with all the latest novelties in the millinery line. Never before has she had a better stock to select from. As Christmas is coming on there is no better place at which to procure handsome presents for your wives, daughters, sisters, cousins, aunts, and sweethearts. Remember the place, 299 Fayetteville street.

Don't forget when you are hungry to find out the superb restaurant of Mr. Chas. Bratsch. His oyster saloon is unsurpassed for elegance and the freshest bivalves can always be obtained done up in the style that suits you. Families will be supplied at all times on short notice. Telephone 102.

The colored fair has ended. The attendance was slim and the exhibits small. The stockholders of the Industrial Association have elected the following officers: President, E. E. Smith, of Greensboro; Vice President, Thomas Donaldson; Treasurer, C. N. Hunter; Secretary, John H. Williamson.

Mrs. Haves says the friends at the disposal of the mission are very low, and they are much in need of articles.

Rev. William Hollinshead Of Sparta, N. J., voluntarily says: "To Whom it May Concern: "Unasked I deem it my duty to a suffering humanity whose bodies and souls I would have healthy, to tell them of the value of Hood's Sarsaparilla. While living in Ohio one of my children was greatly

Afflicted With Boils having 30 on her limbs, and being unable to walk. I had heard of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and bought a bottle, half of which cured entirely. Two years after, another child was afflicted as badly. I used the other half bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla with like results. About four years after, the child first afflicted was again tormented like Job, and I bought a bottle (on Sunday at that) and again a cure. I gave some of the medicine to a poor woman and two children; they were helped as were mine. Through a testimonial sent to C. I. Hood & Co., inquiries came from all the country, asking if it was a "bona fide" testimonial, and of course I wrote all that it was, and have the knowledge of Scores and Scores Of persons helped or cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Mild cases of rheumatism have yielded to it. Biliousness and bad liver have been corrected in my own family. This is the only patent medicine I have felt like praising. I speak not for C. I. Hood, but for the Jobs who are impatient and are tormented beyond endurance. Nothing I know of will cleanse the blood, stimulate the liver, or clean the stomach so perfectly as Hood's Sarsaparilla Any person wishing to know more, enclosing a stamp will be informed. Yours for the health, happiness and virtue of humanity." WILLIAM HOLLINSHEAD, pastor of Presbyterian Church, Sparta, N. J. Hood's Pills cure habitual constipation.
