LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

RALEIGH, DEC. 3, 1892.

CITY IN BRIEF.

The death of Jay Gould has had a bad effect on the cotton market which is rather weak today.

It is reported that the tools with which the recent robbery of Wyatt & Co's store in this city, was attempted, were stolen from a machine shop.

Scrofula, whether hereditary or acquired, is thoroughly expelled from the blood by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

Rev. Dr. S. S. Lambeth, brother of city clerk Lambeth is here. He is a resident of Richmond and a prominent minister of the M. E. Church.

The commercial dealers are rapidly registering their brands. Of these there will be over three hundred. A million tags have been received at the Agricultural Department.

Mr. Battle hit the nail on the head last night when he said that if the city lines are to be extended to last a generation they could be extended in every direction and with the same equity—if not, why not?

State Geologist.

Prof. Holmes, our State geologist is now at Chapel Hill, and will probably remain there for a month or so preparing special reports for publication. The development of some of the minerals in the western country will be looked for with much interest, and the search for iron ores has been very successful. It is probable that the coming legislature will increase the appropriation for geological purposes.

Important Case.

A case of much importance is now before the Supreme Court of this State. It comes up from the county of Duplin and is to decide the question as to whether the tax for school shall be made sufficient to keep them open four months in the year as required by the constitution, no matter if it does exceed the 66 2/3 cents on the $100 valuation of property and $2.00 on the poll. Another question is to settle the matter as to whether the school taxes shall be disbursed as now in the counties where they are raised, or shall be sent to the State Treasury and thence disbursed pro rata among the population. The matter has been before the Legislature twice.

Complimentary.

The following are the complimentary resolutions submitted at the Board of Aldermen last night by Mr. Pogue for the fire committee:

Whereas, Captain J. R. Ferrell, because of the press of business, did tender his resignation as assistant chief of the fire department and the same having been accepted by the Board of Aldermen; therefore, be it Resolved, that the Board of Aldermen and the fire committee express to Captain J. R. Ferrell their appreciation of the interest always shown the city and the fire department, and the zeal and ability displayed in the performance of duty.

U. S. Circuit Court.

The following cases were disposed of yesterday afternoon:

State of North Carolina vs Zack Ebdes, from the Superior Court of Duplin county for murder; set for Wednesday next at 10 o'clock.

U. S. vs Aaron Deans, Nash county; dealer in liquor without paying special tax; guilty; 30 days imprisonment and $100 fine.

U. S. vs Hubert Warren; defaulting U. S. witness; judgment against defendant for costs.

U. S. vs Henry Bond and surety; judgment according to sci fa to be discharged upon the payment of costs.

U. S. vs W. A. Messer, George Stancil, Duke Sexton, Dol Stephenson, Oll Johnson; sci fa cases; defaulting U. S. witness; sci fas dismissed.

W. O. Winslow vs S. Q. Collins; motion for new trial denied.

How to Put It.

An exchange has the following, which is the whole truth. Did you ever think of it? Suppose every business man in the town took as much interest in the upbuilding of the town as the newspaper men. He works for the railroads, manufactures, schools, churches, good streets, better roads and a hundred and one other things for the general good; he urges, pleads, scolds, badgers and covets around generally until he gets what he sets out for. Imagine his feelings, then, when some lame, spring heated kind of a fellow comes prosches him because he doesn't boom things enough, and nine times out of ten that same fellow has never paid one cent toward supporting the paper, and the paper he reads with unmarked regularity is either borrowed from his next door neighbor or picked up from the counter in the store at which he trades.

Board of Aldermen.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Aldermen took place last night, at which the usual routine business was transacted. The street committee report favorably upon the proposition to extend the Union depot shed across Harrington street, and the closing of that thoroughfare. After discussion the matter was re-referred.

The committee on extension of the city limits reported in favor of the extension to Cox Avenue on the west, to Mordecai's on the north and just beyond the Soldiers Home on the east a quarter of a mile all around except on the south.

[Why the committee refused extension on the south, is not exactly apparent.]

The report of the committee was cosponsored by Messrs. Battle and Ashley, and it was laid on the table. Alderman Pogue offered resolutions suggesting that the fire committee be authorized to have four tap bells for each company, in the houses of such members as may be determined and one bell in the house of the engineer. Mr. Josephus Daniels was elected to fill the vacancy on the township school committee.

ODD FELLOW'S COLUMN.

Election time is coming again. Begin to cast about for the very best men you've got—and as far as possible, choose only men who are in the community in such a way as to have a tendency to elevate the order in the eyes of the public. Vote for no man on personal grounds only.

The grand secretary is on a business trip to the east—working up new points—and carrying words of encouragement and good cheer to those who are working in old fields. He always meets with a warm reception in those parts.

An old maid was nearly drowned because she refused to embrace a buoy thrown over to her. She was so modest that she would not embrace even an opportunity. This does not bear specially upon Odd Fellowship—but we think it well enough to keep our members posted as to the large amount of modesty that still exists. Even some of the more sedate sisters have a small modicum left.

The work of our order is one of humanity—and this fact should be ever borne in mind. If the aching hearts that need a kind word, or a pleasant smile, or the weary bodies that need rest and shelter, were visible to the eye as they are passing to and fro, we would realize how much our sympathy is needed—and how helpful kind expressions and kindly acts may be.

We are glad to note that Past Grand Sire Babbe is taking his wonted interest in the Order. He never was an Odd Fellow for revenue, or for office, but has always borne his part in the subordinate lodge and the camp work. Since his retirement from the Grand Sireship he is going to be as firmly a fixture in our lodge work, not objecting to take the lowest position as he ever was. Such timber as that ought to be the kind always from which to select, not only Grand Sires, but Grand Masters and Noble Grand, too. It is no wonder his administration as Grand Sire should have been crowned with such unparalleled success.

We are pleased to learn that affairs at the Orphan's Home in Goldsboro are moving along nicely. Quite a number of contributions were received there as Thanksgiving offerings.

With all its multitudinous works of love in this state, Odd Fellowship has never undertaken a greater than that of caring for these orphan children. It is the best expression that has been given to the public of the real, practical benevolence of our order, and it gives a definite purpose to set before our members. Grand are our principles, and most beautiful are they taught and impressed on our hearts and minds in our progress into the order. Most beautiful is our lesson of fraternity, but let us not fail to remember that unless it be embodied in its acts of humanity, fraternity is but an empty name. This is scriptural doctrine, enforced by our teachings. If a brother be naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you say unto him, Depart in peace! be ye warmed and filled! Notwith standing ye give him not those things which are useful for the body, what doth it profit? These reflections are all drawn out by the thought that during the cold and dreary winter season these little ones at Goldsboro are going to need many things to make them comfortable and happy, and we, who are more fortunate are to see that they are provided for.—Let us then be liberal, and not only pray for them but pay for them—giving to them not grudgingly but as God has prospered us.

OUR CITY ADVERTISERS.

D. T. Johnson.

It depends upon the appetite. If you enjoy the good things of life and wish to obtain them, you must look around. Now Christmas will soon be here with all its accompanying good cheer, and it becomes all householders to look up something for the occasion. In the heavy and heavy grocery line there are many useful and needed articles to be procured and to keep up with the times, you must have them. In making your purchases suppose you call at the well known establishment of D. T. Johnson, East Hargett street. Here you can see in the greatest profusion all the good things of life and at the most moderate rates. Call and see for yourselves.

W. C. & A. B. Stronach.

Christmas is getting here at a rapid rate, and all who are looking out for the good things of life should not fail to cast an eye towards the celebrated grocery establishment of Messrs. W. C. & A. B. Stronach where they will find a tempting array to suit the palate and purse of all. It would require a large sized pamphlet to enumerate all the luxuries to be found at this house which may, with the greatest propriety, be called the "Solace's House." There is certainly no place of the kind in North Carolina where all the varieties and novelties in their line can be procured. Call and make selections at once.

Woolcott & Sons.

Have you been to Woolcott & Sons. If not why not. They have one of the most beautiful assortments of everything suitable for Christmas presents ever brought to this market, and it would be well to call before the stock is picked over. Don't forget!

Ellington, Royst & Co.

The house should be fixed up to suit the times. If it is out of repair, things don't look right. Remember that Ellington Royst & Co. have at all times sash, doors, blinds, shutters, laths &c. Don't forget also that they are furnishing first rate lumber, wood for fuel and lime, cheaper than it can be purchased elsewhere in the city.

Rosenthal Clothing Co.

Don't forget in your rounds the landslide at the Rosenthal clothing house, of which Dave Rosenthal is the leading spirit. Remember it won't do to appear during the holidays in a shabby suit of clothes. Go to the emporium and let "Dave" fix you up in fine style at a most reasonable cost.

J. W. Evans.

The attention of the public is called to the advertisement of Mr. J. W. Evans whose place of business is at the corner of Morgan and Blount streets. He pays special attention to the repairs of carriages, buggies, delivery wagons, &c., and his work at all times will be found neat and durable. Persons having work in his line cannot do better than give him a call.

Whiting Brothers.

Messrs. Whiting Bros. are thorough in all the times in everything pertaining to their line. In the matter of shoes, ladies' misses and child dress, hosiery, rubber coats and other conveniences incident to the winter season that are unobtainable by any house in the city. Look over our stock now, and prepare for Christmas.

W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co.

The preparations of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co. for the Christmas holidays are immense and at no time in its history has this celebrated establishment had a more complete selection. Already crowds are beginning to look over the stock to find something suitable for presents and the family circle. Let all who are on the search for genuine novelties call and make selection. The variety to choose from is composed of all the novelties of the day.

Charles Bretsch.

Don't forget when you are hungry to find out the superb restaurant of Mr. Charles Bretsch. His oyster saloon is unsurpassed for elegance and the freshest bivalves can always be obtained done up in the style that suits you. Families will be supplied at all times on short notice. Telephone 102.

Miss Maggie Reese.

Miss Maggie Reese is now prepared to furnish the ladies with all the latest novelties in the millinery line. Never before has she had a better stock to select from. As Christmas is coming on there is no better place at which to procure handsome presents for your wives, daughters, sisters, cousins, aunts, and sweethearts. Remember the place, 209 Fayetteville street.

Johnson & Barber.

The point of attraction for those desiring furniture of every description and of the latest and most approved patterns, can be said to centre in the establishment of Messrs. Johnson & Barber, on East Martin street. These gentlemen carry a most superb line, too numerous to mention in detail and can only be realized by a visit. Call and make selections now for Christmas before the stock is picked over.

Thos. H. Briggs & Sons.

In your rounds looking for something of use and interest for the Christmas don't fail to call on Messrs. Thomas H. Briggs & Sons. It would be a poor holiday season indeed if hunting were not a part of the program and these gentlemen can give you complete outfit in that direction of the best quality for a reasonable price. Their stock of goods embrace a great variety that is useful in the family circle. Call and look over the stock. You can rely on being pleased.

Thomas & Maxwell.

Christmas will be here in quick time. Just about four weeks off, and, it will run down before you think of it. Now you should prepare to give the household a surprise, and you cannot do so in a more effective or reasonable way than by going to Thomas & Maxwell's furniture emporium and purchasing a nice parlor or bed room suit, a beautiful reclining chair, a set of china, or some of the other novelties that are so much in demand in every family and which are too numerous to mention. It would be well to call early and make selections before the stock is overhauled. There is no place in North Carolina that carries a more complete stock in their line. Don't forget the place. South side of Exchange Place opposite the market.

Jones & Powell.

This is the season when fuel becomes a necessity and everybody is looking around for the best place to secure it. Messrs. Jones & Powell are veterans in the business and carry at all times the most popular grades of coal and wood. In the matter of coal, people have different ideas, some having a partiality to one kind and one to another. They, therefore, can suit you in all grades. Call and make your selections, or you can order by telephone.

The increase in the strength of the State Guard during the past fiscal year has been 25 per cent. The total of the force is now about 2,000.

The Good Derived from HOOD'S

Sarsaparilla

All Run Down With Dyspepsia

The peculiar combination of stomach tonics and alterative remedies in Hood's Sarsaparilla cannot be equalled, and this superiority explains the wonderful success of in cases of Dyspepsia, Indigestion and similar troubles. Mr. T. A. Wheelock, a well known citizen of Burlington, Vt., writes:

"Six months ago I was badly run down and unable to attend to business. The principal trouble seemed to be due to indigestion and aggravated dyspepsia. I had no appetite,

Nothing Tasted Good

and what I did eat distressed me. Added to this was a nervous disturbance. Physicians that I employed failed to reach my case. I grew worse, lost flesh and almost hope. One day I ran across a testimonial for Hood's Sarsaparilla stating what it had done in what seemed to be a case similar to mine. I got a bottle and in three or four days saw that I felt better. Before I had finished the first bottle, was greatly improved. Rested better, felt better, and knew I was

Better All Over

I continued with the medicine, and have taken two bottles and now feel better than at any time for the past five years. Feel as hearty as when a boy. Have regained my flesh, have good appetite, can sleep well, and my nerves are in excellent condition. I would not value a thousand dollars for what it did for me." T. A. WHEELLOCK, Burlington, Vt.

Fully Indorsed

"We have sold Mr. T. A. Wheelock several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and have heard him tell in high terms of commendation what it has done for him. I know that he has recommended to many others here. Our customers generally speak well of it." F. L. TAFT & Co., Pharmacists, Burlington, Vt.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
