

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 7, 1892.

NO. 39

U. S. Circuit Court.

The case of Mrs. Lois A. Crabtree vs the Old Dominion Steamship Company for damages, was today set aside for the trial of the indictment of Zack Rhodes, for murder, from the Superior Court of Duplin county. After examination of witnesses and charge of judge the case was given to the jury.

Lyon Racket Store.

This establishment is not behind any other in the arrangement for the Christmas holidays as will be seen by a visit and inspection of the huge stock now on hand and being daily received of novelties of all kinds. There is no better place in the city for the purchase of suitable gifts for family and friends. The rush will soon be great, so it would be well to call early.

Returned.

Bishop Lyman has returned to the city from a tour to the western part of the state during which he visited Salisbury on Thursday November 17th, Asheville November 20th, and Henderson county November 27th. He will leave next Friday for New York to attend a meeting of the board of managers of the general missionary work of the church. He will return here about the 20th, inst.

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Local rain in west portion, warmer. Local forecast made at station for this vicinity: On Thursday: Slightly warmer, threatening weather, rain, wind shifting to north west Thursday night, colder. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature, 64; minimum temperature 43; rainfall 0.00.

Crowd Expected.

We are reliably informed that the attendance on the Baptist Convention which assembles in this city tomorrow, will be even larger than anticipated and many of those who have not so far been provided accommodations. We most sincerely hope that our people will stir up in this matter. It would be no credit to the people of our city to have it said that they were wanting in hospitality on such an occasion. Our fair name is at stake in the matter. Let there be a most liberal response.

Mr. R. G. Upchurch has a crow which sometime since he wounded, breaking a wing. He has kept it as a pet and the bird now roosts at night with the hens and is apparently as well satisfied as a crow could be. He is an affectionate "critter" and shows great fondness for his benefactor, even if he did shoot him. Mr. Upchurch looks forward to the day when he will be equally as famous as the celebrated raven that Poe wrote about, or the one that Barnaby Rudge used to take with him on his rambling excursions.

Several of the military companies in the state are now making preparations to visit Washington City at the inauguration. We hope the Governor's Guard will not be behind in the matter. The City of Oaks should by all means be represented.

Returned.

Dr. H. B. Battle and Mr. T. K. Bruner have returned from Chicago whence they have been to perfect arrangements for the exhibit of North Carolina to the world's fair. We are pleased to note that much good was accomplished during the trip. More space was secured for the forestry exhibit which will be a fine one. Both gentlemen visited the space set apart and had it laid off. Now that the appropriation made by the last General Assembly can be utilized, we can reasonably hope that North Carolina will make a good showing with her sister states.

On Hand.

Friday evening next will be an event of unusual interest in the theatrical line in this city. Manager Heart has secured for the enjoyment of our people John Thompson and company, who for rendition of original comedy is unexcelled by any troupe now on the road. It has visited our city before, about two years since, and was received with the utmost delight. "On Hand, or the Comic Side of Life," is what may be termed one of the roaring comedies of the day, and is full of fun, singing, dancing, music, comedy, farce and laughter. It can be truly placed as the foremost performance that has visited Raleigh this season and we predict a house full to overflowing.

The Asheville Courier says that recently a Raleigh gentleman killed, in that county, 141 partridges in 141 shots. That is the way Raleigh folks always do. Never miss the mark.

Nash square looks like a cyclone has struck it.

The Junaluska Wine Company is selling wines at $1 per gallon; 25 cts per quart.

A. Dughi, General Agent.

Man in Jail.

A gentleman confined in the county jail, whose term is up tomorrow, was found this morn by the jailer bathed in tears, bitter, galling tears, and greatly troubled in mind and bemoaning the lack of a friend. Said the good jailer (very few good jailers), "I will help you; tell me your trouble." The agonized prisoner leaped to his feet, and his countenance beaming with joy as he said: "Can I trust you?" "Yes," says the turnkey. "Well, draw near and let me unburden my bosom of this troubled, agonizing longing of my soul," said the emaciated poor fellow: "tomorrow I go from this loathsome dungeon, and I need clothes. Go down to D. J. Swindell's store and buy me a suit of clothes. They are selling clothing at cost. Also get me a trunk, as I heard Swindell sells trunks cheaper than any one else. Then I want a carpet to take home; get the carpet also at Swindell's. I hear that Swindell's store is the favorite of all people who care to save a dollar."

From Dec 1st to Dec 25th we will keep our store open at nights to accommodate our customers who are unable to come during the day to purchase their Xmas goods.

Very respectfully,
Woollcott & Sons.
