Social Entertainment.

Last night at the rectory of the Church of the Good Shepherd a most enjoyable social entertainment took place the proceeds devoted to St. Mary's Guild. The attendance was quite large and a snug sum was realized for the purpose. All enjoyed themselves.

I. O. O. F.

Attention members of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F.

Your lodge meets tomorrow night at 7 o'clock, sharp, in regular communication. Much important business is to be transacted and your presence is required. Visiting brethren cordially invited. P. THOMAS, Sec.

The Baptist University

By general consent it was decided at the recent Baptist State Convention, that the Female University of the denomination ought to be located in Raleigh. This, is from every standpoint right and proper, because our city offers such inducements as can hardly be found in any other portion of North Carolina. We hope, therefore, that a new impetus will be given to the matter, and that before long the institution may be in a fair way to commence.

Personal.

Willie, the little son of Mr. W. C. Richardson, is sick.

Col. A. B. Andrews returned yesterday afternoon from the south where he has been on important railroad business.

Mrs. Alfred Upchurch has returned to the city from Durham where she has been to visit her daughter, Mrs. Walker.

Mr. Fab H. Bostee, is in Greensboro, attending the Superior Court. Miss Hester McGruder, who has been quite sick, is much better.

Chamber of Commerce.

There was a fair attendance at the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce last night, and an interchange of views took place relative to the matters presented for consideration. The subject of an extension of the corporate limits of Raleigh underwent much discussion resulting in a decision that the movement was inexpedient at this time. The question of making application to the legislature for power to issue bonds to the amount of $50,000 was widely discussed and defeated by a small vote.

The Board urged the extension of Morgan street.

Death of Capt. London.

The death of this gentleman, who is so well known in Raleigh, and throughout N. Carolina, took place recently at Birmingham Ala. of pneumonia. The following from the Wilmington Messenger will be of interest to his many friends. He entered the United States Military Academy at West Point in 1869, and in 1873 he graduated with distinction, being commissioned as second lieutenant of the Fifth Cavalry. He was assigned with that command to service at the West, and was an active participant in several wars on the frontier. For gallant and meritorious conduct he was breveted first lieutenant. Soon afterwards he was promoted to captain and served with his command up to a couple of years ago, when he was detailed on recruiting service in Philadelphia and New York. Capt. London about two months ago was assigned to the command of a company in the Fifth Cavalry and was granted leave of absence until February. About six weeks ago, some time in November, he was here on a visit to his father, and from here he went to Birmingham on a visit to his brothers, Messrs. A. T. and John London.

The session of the Methodist Conference commenced today at Goldsboro, with Bishop Duncan presiding. There is a great demand by the little ones for stockings of large size.

Examination.

The Committee appointed by the General Assembly to investigate the accounts in the treasury department are now at work. W. P. Turner, of Iredell is chairman of the committee. The following are the members. Z. V. Walser, of Davidson, J. J. Long, of Columbus, W. H. McClure, of Clay, J. Q. A. Bryan, of Wilkes.

Election Of Officers.

On Monday night the 12th, inst. Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218 A. F. and A. M. elected the following officers for the year 1893:

Worshipful Master—J. C. Drewry.
Senior Warden—R. C. Redford.
Junior Warden—J. R. Harris.
Treasurer—J. A. Briggs.
Secretary—Nat. L. Brown.

Our Insane.

In the report of the Attorney General it is stated that in the state, there were eleven prisoners that became insane after being sent to county jails. The report does not of course, state whether these persons became insane from being incarcerated in jail, or whether such insanity was the result of crimes committed. In either event, it is a rather bad showing, especially as it is known that our Insane Asylums are already crowded to excess.

Would it not be well enough to hold a special meeting of the board of Aldermen to settle the matter of the jurisdiction of the Park committee, so that comments on the matter may cease. They have either done right or wrong in their action at Nash square, and the board of Aldermen should decide. This course would relieve the committee, and doubtless put a stop to criticism.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. W. V. Williams, of the drug firm of Williams & King to Miss Nellie Utley, daughter of Mr. W. M. Utley, the ceremony to be performed by Rev. Mr. Hurley, of the Central M. E. Church at 8:30 p. m. on the 21st, inst.

Rumors of a general exodus movement among the colored people from this city, are floating around. The fate of many who have gone before would seem to be a warning against the prosecution of the "craze." It seems to come by spells.

People We've Met.

A woman enters Swindell's store, Steps to a clerk who stands near the door, Asks him to show her the latest style, And she pulls over the goods meanwhile. Says she: "I want a dress for my niece; Will you please show me that under piece? Oh! I didn't see it was a polka spot; That is too dear the one she's got. That piece with stripes would just suit me, It's just as pretty as it can be; But she wants something better to be sure, With a sort of vein running through. She don't want too dark nor yet too light, Not a striped piece, nor yet very bright. I think she'd like what you showed me last. But do you think the colors are fast? Cut off a sample before I decide, I'll take home a piece and have it tried. I have a dress like this last fall, And the colors did not wash at all, I like those patterns there on the end, I'll take a few samples for a friend. Now one off this if you'll be so kind, And one off this if you do not mind. They're the nicest styles I've seen this year. I most always do my trading here; I've got a piece that came from here. I've forgot the price—'twas pretty dear—It's sort of dark, plain gray. Do you think you have it along this way. The dress is spoiled if I can't get more. Label these samples with a bill, I'll know where I got them if you will. I'll take them home; if she thinks they'll do You'll see me back in a day or two."

The store will be appropriately draped during the clerk's funeral. Poor fellow! he died dead. "And she never came back!"—to Swindell's store.
