VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 15, 1892.

NO. 46

I. O. O. F.

Attention members of Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F.

Your lodge meets tonight at 7:30 o'clock, sharp, in regular communication. Much important business is to be transacted and your presence is required. Visiting brethren cordially invited. P. THEM, Sec.

Funeral.

The funeral services of Edwin, the two year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Moseley of Durham, whose death occurred at the Yarboro House yesterday, took place this morning. The interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. The stricken parents have the sympathy of our community.

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Cloudy or foggy, possibly light rain near the coast. Colder Friday morning.

Local forecast made at station for this vicinity:

On Friday: Continued foggy or cloudy with light rain, variable winds. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 65; minimum temperature 49; rainfall 0.03.

A Wrong Calculation.

Since our Wild West Show exhibited here during the state fair, all sorts of athletic exercises have been tried by our youngsters and some of mature age, have even attempted to test their limbs in the new art Kicking, climbing &c., seem to be the favorite amusements, some from mere love of sport, and others from necessity. Frequently, however there is a lack of calculation as the following episode will show. A few nights since one of our most estimable and good natured young men, after the turmoil and business of the day, concluded to pay his best girl a visit. Like lovesick swains often do, he rather overleaped the time, and when he reached home, it was in the small hours of the morning. All the homefolks were asleep and he did not wish to disturb them. He therefore made a survey of the front porch and concluded he could climb the post, crawl on the roof and enter by the way of one of the windows. So far, so good, but he failed to take into consideration the projection of the eaves of the porch, for, when he reached the top of the post and attempted to get on the roof, his clothing became entangled in the edge of the projecting eaves and he could neither ascend nor descend. In this predicament he cried out lustily for help, even imploring his best girl to come to his relief. His alarm awakened his room mate who extricated him from the dilemma. Next morning he was absent from business, on the plea of "somnambulistic epidemic." During the next day in his delirium, he pealed forth the popular ditty.

"My gal, she lives in Baltimore Street cars run right by the door.

To this he adds the latest version of "Ta ra ra boom de ay." He will never climb again.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs W. C. & A. B. Stronach, who are now "on top" in the matter of preparation for the Christmas holidays. These gentlemen carry every conceivable article in the fancy and heavy grocery trade that can possibly be found on the market. Their candy, orange, raisin, and nuts have a reputation in the city and state enjoyed by few establishments. An enumeration in our contracted space would be impossible. A visit to the house is absolutely necessary to find out the vast assortment. All who are fixing up for Christmas will be in their own light, not to call at once. No such variety has ever been seen here before. Remember that there is nothing in their line that cannot be furnished.

The cancellation of mortgages continues active. It is a sign of better times.

The Colored Asylum.

The report of the colored Insane Asylum at Goldsboro, has been received for the year ending November 30, 1892, and it is a document of much interest. There had been admitted 79 male and 88 female patients, and the total number treated at the institution up to that date was 411. The cures have exceeded 40 per cent. The report asks for an appropriation of $75,000 and it should have it by all means.

Morgan Street.

We are pleased to note, that in addition to the feeble calls the Visi or has from time to time made for the extension of Morgan street, the meeting of the chamber of commerce last Tuesday night, added the weight of its influence. It is, of course, presumed that the chamber represents the business interests of our city, and hence the call upon the board should at least meet with respectful attention. Let us hope, at least, that the board of aldermen will now act, or let the public know why. The time for temporizing on this subject is passed, and the people demand speedy action. The board should either carry out the order that it has long since made or rescind it.

Swedish Quartet.

The great musical event of the season will take place tonight at Metropolitan Hall when the Swedish quartet will render one of their admirable performances which has taken the public by storm. The press everywhere terms with its praise. The Washington, D. C., Star says: Was "Home, Sweet Home" ever sung without affecting some of the audience to tears? and as the last notes died away in a silvery whisper, the silence in the grand tabernacle was almost oppressive. From the first until the final number the Swedish quartet and their audience were thoroughly en rapport, pleasure and good feeling being manifested throughout.

The Right Spirit.

We take pleasure in printing the following extract from our esteemed contemporary, the Wilmington Messenger. It is certainly refreshing to us at the capital to get words of encouragement from such a source, they being in striking contrast with some that evidently have their birth in a spirit of mean envy, not to say malice. Alluding to the establishment of the Baptist Female University, the Messenger says:

Unless the Baptists shall agree to establish their Female University in Wilmington, where the death rate is not higher, we think, than at Raleigh, and where the winters are milder and the breezes fresher in summer, we hope that the State Capital will be chosen. We will be glad to see Raleigh grow and flourish with unwanted speed in life.

Prof. D. H. Hill, will deliver his lecture on "Analysis of a joke" tomorrow night at the Young Men's Christian Association. The entertainment will be free to members and their lady friends. Friday evening 8 o'clock.

Look over the list of advertisers in the VISITOR. They all say that the investment is bringing them in fine returns. Can you afford to be left out in the cold?

Owing to the entertainments in the city, the Swedish Quartet will not commence their performance until about 8:45 tonight or perhaps a little later.

Rev. J. L. Michaux, of Greensboro, will soon revive the "Central Protestant" of which he was the former editor.

Pay your taxes, and, whatever is left, can be devoted to fixing up for Christmas.

The Supreme Court will probably adjourn next Saturday.

Eggs are scarce and unusually high.

A Present.

A nice article in jewelry is a Christmas present any one will appreciate and enjoy for a long time, and will think of you every time it is worn. At Swindell's they are especially prepared to show any kind of jewelry. Cheap, good and fine. See it by all means at Swindell's.

Please do not wait till the last 2 or 3 days to select your presents. Come early. Woolcott & Sons.

Holiday Goods at Swindell's.

Any quantity of Christmas goods can be had at Swindell's, and that means you have the chance to buy good and useful presents and at the same time buy them for less money than others charge. Look through the stock of scarfs and handkerchiefs, perfumery, jewelry at Swindell's.

Pure blackberry wine for medicinal purposes. Refer to any physician in Raleigh. 15 5 A. Dughl.

What's the Matter With a Suit of Clothes.

At Swindell's they have a good stock of clothing left and they are selling all clothing at exactly what the goods cost in New York. Make a friend in need a present of a suit of good warm clothes. Get it at Swindell's; it won't cost much.

Mr. D. T. Johnson is receiving and selling lots of the good things that our people must have in order to enjoy the holiday season. Yesterday he received 25 boxes Florida oranges direct from the plantation. Today he is receiving a lot of New York apples and a fine lot of turkeys. Don't wait until the last moment to make your purchases. It is much better to provide your pantry supplies before the rush sets in, and by placing your orders with Mr. Johnson NOW you can save money, time and annoyance.

Buy your Christmas fruits, nuts, &c, from (to) MANN & CO.

Norfolk oysters fresh and excellent, every day at A. Dughl's.

Junaluska claret $1 a gallon, 25c a quart at A. Dughl's.

Lemons 25c a doz. Telephone 133, 13 6 A. Dughl.

Appropriate Christmas Gifts.

Why waste your money in trifles when dispensing gifts in this the season of giving and receiving? Tailor made coats, Burt & Paekard's "Kor-rect Shape" shoes, nice dresses, kid gloves, felt slippers, "Common Sense" trunks, initial silk handkerchiefs, apron gingham, stockings, overgaiters, rubber shoes, fireless slippers and thousands of other useful gifts we can suggest that will give comforts and pleasure.
