

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1893.

NO. 59

CITY IN BRIEF.

Quite a flurry of snow today. Senator King, of Guilford, is here. Several roofs of houses in Durham were damaged by the recent thaw. Treasurer Tate may as well get out his small change for mileage. Business is now full under way for 1893. Schools girls coming in and the city is brightening up accordingly. There are many new faces among the members. The street cars have resumed their run on Hargett street. Are we to have the proverbial bad weather when the legislature meets? Mr. John R. ONeal who has been quite sick, is out again. Emancipation day was observed in Wilmington and Charlotte. Here's to the outgoing and incoming. May they all prosper. Very little politics in 1893, so we may look out for more business. The pressure for the repeal of the merchant's purchase tax will be heavy.

Let the committees work up so that these can be a general attendance at the presidential inauguration.

Democratic caucus of Senators and Representatives in their respective houses tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

There is no United States Senator to elect this session. This is a source of congratulation.

Capt Noble, of Johnston county, is here, and wants to be door keeper of the Senate.

Regular meeting of the Royal Arcanum tonight at the office of Messrs. Jones & Powell at 7:30 o'clock, sharp.

Many members have arrived today and there is now a quorum of both houses in the city. A gentleman remarked today that he thought there was as many candidates as members.

The Board of County Commissioners are engaged today in the investigation of the matter of granting license to parties to sell liquor near the fair grounds in what is known as the "West End" suburbs.

The latch strings of the Visitor office are on the outside. Call and see us. Perhaps we can arrange to make your visit to the city agreeable, even if we don't talk too much about politics.

There will be a considerable pressure in the legislature for the abolition of the homestead. As the subject was not an issue in the campaign, it might be well enough to go slow on it.

Mr. Theo F. Klutz of Salisbury received a fee of $100 by the decision of the Supreme Court involving the right of an incorporated town to tax the shares of stock held by a citizen in an incorporated company doing business outside of the town.

The reception, to which cards were issued for Monday evening last at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. has been postponed until next Monday evening. Those who have promised donations will please send them to the association rooms next Friday afternoon the 6th.

Mr. W. J. Norward of Warrenton, has placed on exhibition at the State Museum a handsome cubical block of granite from his new quarry near Warrenton. The block is cut in several styles and polished, and is a handsome and attractive building stone of light color and even texture. Being favorably situated as to transportation it ought to command a ready sale.

Manteo Lodge, No. 8, I. O. O. F. Will hold a regular session tonight. Installation of officers and other important business. Members requested to be present. All visiting members will receive a cordial welcome.

GEO. L. TONNOFSKI, Recording Secretary.

The Weather Today.

For North Carolina: Fair, except showers on the coast. Local forecast made at station for this vicinity: On Wednesday: Clearing weather, considerably colder. Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today: Maximum temperature, 48; minimum temperature 31; rainfall, 0.00.

False Pretense.

Some time since, Dr. M. E. Gattis, of Auburn, this county, purchased a horse from a colored man named Addison C. Smith. Mr. Gattis afterwards discovered that Smith had executed a mortgage for the horse, and he had him arrested in Anson county. He was brought to Raleigh, where he is waiting legal investigation before Justice Barbee to take place on the 9th inst.

Our Tobacco Trade.

It is a source of much gratification to the people of Raleigh to know that the tobacco interest is looming up into great proportions. The receipts of leaf tobacco commencing with the new crop of 1892 in September last, and running through October, November and December, have been the largest since 1895, and the prices have been well sustained to the satisfaction of buyer and seller.

It is expected that this year there will be many additional buyers, and several millions pounds will be required to meet the demands of manufacturers and fill orders in the hands of leaf dealers.

The Raleigh market offers inducements inferior to none in the State, and those engaged in the trade are highly experienced. We hope our business men will look well after this matter, so that the year 1893 will find us not a whit behind our neighbors in the handling of the weed.

Unwise Action.

In common with what we believe to be the sentiment of nearly all the whites, and every well meaning colored person, we most unhesitatingly declare the resolutions passed at the meeting held yesterday relative to the Union Depot, to be not only unwise, but calculated to produce a breach in the hitherto good feelings subsisting between the two races in the first place as far as we can ascertain there is no cause for discontent, unless the colored people are determined to force upon the whites the necessity of resisting what has ever, been in now, and will continue to be, the most obnoxious idea of social equality.

The idea in our opinion of legal prosecution of the railroad authorities simply because the colored people discover, or think they discover, some little discrimination, is simply ridiculous. It is too absurd for serious thought.

The better course for our colored people is to let well enough alone, and as their well wisher we would so advise.

At any rate they will not be allowed to use any department in the new depot than that assigned them. Of course they should be received kindly when they so act, and we think that an official should be in charge of the depot with discrimination enough to so act. But when the colored people overstep the bounds of common propriety, they should be made like other folks to behave themselves—and it will be done.

A Good Showing.

The following is an extract from a letter to Mr. T. O. Harris, of this city from Mr. Hugh B. Sloan, of Kosciusko, Iowa.

"I am glad North Carolina will make a special effort to exhibit herself at the World's Fair. I was never in a state where the resources seem to be more varied, and I hope that your people will make an effort to develop them. I think the North Carolina exhibit will do the state much good. Northern people have very little idea of the South, and are invariably surprised when its resources are properly shown up."

A New Road.

The Charlotte News says: The Atlantic Coast Line has made preliminary survey for a new rail road from Wadesboro, on its Cheraw and Salisbury branch, to Winston, N. C. The road, says the Baltimore Sun will be nineteen miles long and penetrate the Valley of the Yadkin river, which has one of the most remarkable water powers in the country, the fall being 200 feet to the mile. At Winston the new road will connect with the Roanoke and Southern road a branch of the Norfolk and Western, which has its terminus at that place. The building of this connecting line will give the Norfolk and Western a southern outlet for the products of the Pocahontas coal fields, and therefore the Norfolk and Western is in close sympathy with the enterprise and it will aid in its construction operation. It is said that the Coast Line and Norfolk and Western endorse mutually for a term of years the bonds for the construction of this new link. When completed the road will be owned and operated by the Atlantic Coast Line. The work of construction will be commenced as soon as the locating surveys are completed and will be pushed to a rapid completion.

There will be a meeting of Raleigh Typographical Union tomorrow evening at 6:15 o'clock.

Have an Object.

We said last spring we would move from Raleigh which we should have done if we could have sold near enough out. This time we have a Red Letter sale and the result of this sale will determine our move.

Yours truly,
D. T. Swindell's.

Evening Fabrics.

During the week beginning Monday, January 2d, we will make a special display of Evening Dress Textures. In this collection of dress materials will be found a liberal assortment of inexpensive qualities. These will be shown upon tables near our elevator, and may be seen in the evening, as well as during the day. This exhibition is worthy of careful consideration.
