LEAST CITY CIRCULATION

RALEIGH, JAN. 7, 1893.
CITY IN BRIEF.

Col. P. B. Means is in the city. There is a slight moderation in the weather.

Not many country people in the city today.

Very few market wagons in town today.

There will be a business meeting of the L'Allegro club on Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Lee Denson, of the weather service at Albany N. Y. who has been spending a month with relatives here, returned yesterday.

Gov. Holt speaks in the highest terms of the state guard and recommends it to the favorable consideration of the general assembly.

No flowery rhetoric can tell the merit of Hood's Sarsaparilla as well as the cures accomplished by this excellent medicine.

The reception at the executive mansion last night was well attended. All were highly delighted with the generous hospitality displayed. It was a notable occasion.

This is hard weather on the poor, and those blessed with a supply of comforts should remember them. Contributions for the citizens relief committee can be left with Mr. Pullen at the Savings Bank Contributions can also be left at the mission rooms of the King's Daughters, corner of Wilmington and Morgan streets. Remember that the 'Greeks are at your doors'

What It Does.

1. Purifies the blood.
2. Creates an appetite.
3. Strengthens the nerves.
4. Makes the weak strong.
5. Overcomes that tired feeling.
6. Cures scrofula, salt rheum, etc.
7. Invigorates the kidneys and liver.
8. Relieves headache, indigestion, dyspepsia

Elected.

The following officers of the Raleigh Academy of Medicine have been elected for 1893. President, E. B. Haywood; Secretary, Dr. W. H. Bobbitt; Treasurer, Dr. P. E. Hines; Board of Censors, Doctors, W. I. Royter, P. E. Hines, Hubert Haywood.

The Inauguration.

The legislative joint committee has determined that the inaugural ceremonies shall be held on Wednesday the 18th, inst. This change is made in order that ample time may be had for arrangements as are suited to the occasion, as railroad fares &c

Joseph Barstow who learned to stick type in Norwich, Connecticut, in 1824 is performing on the same old case and still sticks. He and Horace Greeley used to set 'em up together and swapped sorts like twins

A writer of nearly two centuries ago expressed the New Year's sentiment of his time in the following manner: "If I send a New Year's gift to my friend, it shall be a token of my friendship; if to my benefactor, a token of my gratitude; if to the poor, which at this season must never be forgot, it shall be to make their hearts sing for joy, and give praise and adoration to the Giver of all good gifts."

ODD FELLOW'S COLUMN.

The officers for the ensuing term have all been installed by the district deputy Grand Master in the three lodges here. We are very much in hopes that the present term will be the most prosperous the Order has had in many years. It will be so if the members will it so; it will be just whatever you see fit to make it. If you wish it success, show it by your zeal for its prosperity. Professions are nothing where work is needed

Among the brethren sojourning in the city, being members and connected with the general assembly, we have had the pleasure of shaking hands with the following: L. H. Potter, P. G. from Beaufort, J. S. Crabor, P. G. from Wilkesboro, Allan K. Smith, P. G. from Smithfield, W. J. Adams, P. G. from Carthage, D. B. Nicholson, P. G. from Clinton, Bro. I. B. Midgett, from Dare county, and Bro. Oaks, from Wilkes county. We are always glad to see the brethren from a distance and hope they will visit our lodges while here.

We are glad to know that the members of Eth Lodge, No. 4, Degree of Rebekah continue to kindly remember the Orphans. The following letter from the Superintendent of the "Home" is an acknowledgment of a Christmas present sent the children: THE ORPHAN HOME, I. O. O. F., GOLDSBORO, N. C., Dec 26, '92. Mrs. E. J. Williams Raleigh, N. C.

Dear Friend—The boxes you sent were safely received and I tell you that they were appreciated. The little ones were simply delighted to get the dolls, horns &c. I believe you ladies are the best friends our orphans have.

Should I chance to pass your city I hope to avail myself of the pleasure of calling upon you and forming a personal acquaintance with yourself and others who, with you, have proven the sincerity of your profession as Odd Fellows by such liberal and continued acts of charity.

Sincerely yours, fraternally,
WM. COBB WHITEFIELD,
Supt. &c.

LODGE VISITATIONS.—Too much cannot be said of lodge inter visitations. In some parts of the country these visits are frequent and productive of great good. Few or many of the members may participate, but in all cases the visits should be without expense to the Lodge visited except it may be for a slight lunch given voluntarily. The object should not be physical enjoyment through the palate; but the opening up of new acquaintances, the establishment of friendships and the cultivation of the social virtues which are inseparable from genuine Odd Fellowship. Intimately connected with these results will be the better development of the plans and purposes of the order through brief and pertinent speeches and characterization of the true mission of our great and popular fraternity. For these and many other reasons apparent to all thinking persons, we say commence and keep up lodge visitations.—Union.

Mr. S. G. Derry
Of Providence, R. I.,

Widely known as proprietor of Derry's Water-proof Harness Oil, tells below of his terrible sufferings from Eczema and his cure by

HOOD'S Sarsaparilla

"Gentlemen: Fifteen years ago I had an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, which was followed by eczema or salt rheum, breaking out on my right leg. The humor spread all over my legs, back and arms,

A Foul Mass of Sores, swollen and itching terribly, causing intense pain if the skin was broken by scratching, and discharging constantly. It is impossible to describe my suffering in those years of agony and torture. I spent in futile efforts to get well, and was discouraged and ready to die. At this time I was unable to lie down in bed, had to sit up all the time, and was unable to walk without crutches. I had to hold my arms away from my body, and had to have my back and legs bandaged by my faithful wife twice a day. Finally a friend who was visiting at our house, urged me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I began by taking half a teaspoonful. My

Thousands of Dollars

Stomach Was All Out of Order

But the medicine soon corrected this, and in six weeks I could see a change in the condition of the humor which nearly covered my body. It was driven to the surface by the Sarsaparilla, the sores soon healed, and the scales fell off. I was soon able to give up bandages and crutches, and a happy man I was. I had been taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for seven months; and since that time, nearly two years, I have worn no bandages whatever and my legs and arms are sound and well.

The Delight

of myself and wife at my recovery it is impossible to tell. To all my business friends in Boston and over the country, I recommend

Hood's Sarsaparilla
from personal experience." S. G. DERRY, 45 Broad street, Providence, R. I.
If you are Bilious, take Hood's Pills.

The University Club of Washington recently blackballed a married man's application on the ground that he never accompanies his wife to social gatherings. Though the lady is young and pretty and the home life of the couple apparently congenial, her husband studiously avoids taking her about with him.

WHY WOMEN ARE NOT HUMOROUS

A writer in the open letter department of the current "Century" asks why in literature there are no lady humorists. He then goes on to answer his question by explaining that from childhood men find the sawdust dropping out of everything, and soon discovers the worthlessness of much that passes for valuable. Therefore he learns to smile and say: "Is it not absurd?" just as if allowing his passion for something to a fore override his growing desire for truth. But, on the other hand, a woman's idols are so much a part of her life that when they are broken she cannot snap her fingers, nor seek death as an avenue of escape. Women may possibly grow artificial, but satire is only a form of humor. When life ceases to be in some way hot, or at any rate ideal, then woman's creative faculty ceases," says the writer. "He ends where man's talent as a humorist begins"

NO OTHER Sarsaparilla has the merit to secure the confidence of entire communities and hold it year after year, like HOOD'S Sarsaparilla.

WOODWORTH CITY!

In the heart of the Iron and Coal District of Tennessee.

WOODWORTH CITY lies about 30 miles north of Chattanooga, within a few miles of Altamont, the county seat of Grundy county, and between Tracey City and the celebrated Beersheba Springs, the Saratoga of the South. It is in the centre of the rapidly developing coal and iron district of Tennessee, and within its borders are found coal, iron, zinc, marble and asbestos, with various hard woods, such as oak, chestnut, maple, peach, locust, hickory, ash, pine, cherry and black walnut in abundance. The village of Woodworth, with several hundred inhabitants, contains Churches, schools, Stores, Post office and telegraph station, and a number of manufacturing industries, all of which are located on the property and form part of Woodworth City.

The proceeds of the sale of these lots will be used to develop the mineral resources of the property and build up a large and thriving city. Quick application for these lots should be made, as the right is reserved to advance the price without notice.
