RALEIGH, MONDAY, JANUARY 9, 1893.

NO. 64

Married.

On Wednesday night last, in Kingston, Mr. Mortimer Marks, of New Bern, was united in marriage to Miss Ella Rosenthal, of Kingston.

There were many congratulatory telegrams received from different parts of the United States. After the ceremony the happy couple left for an extended tour through the northern states and Canada.

Let us Unite.

Now that the day is fixed for the inauguration of Governor Carr, we hope to see perfect unity of action between the citizens of Raleigh and the legislative committee, so that it may be an affair of which our city, no less than the state at large, may be justly proud. The committee is now hard at work and we doubt not such a program will be marked out as to do credit all around.

Important Meeting.

Next Tuesday, there will be an important meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. A most interesting feature of the season will be an address from our fellow citizen Dr T D Hogg, who represented North Carolina at the recent meeting in New Orleans to discuss the Nicaragua Canal question. Dr. Hogg is a most interesting speaker and no man in our State is possessed of more information on the subject to be treated. It will be an event of much interest.

Good Proposition.

President Winston, of the University, has offered a big thing to the graded schools of the State. He has tendered a free scholarship to one pupil every year, who completes his course in the graded schools with the highest average. By this, each graded school is allowed to send one every year, and as many as four from one school may be in attendance at once, as it takes four years to complete the course at the University. This is a worthy act on the part of Mr. Winston.

Died.

On Saturday night last, at the Exchange Hotel, in this city, Mr Nathan Gulley, aged 83. Mr Gulley was a highly respected citizen and had the confidence of our entire community. No man was held in higher esteem for many noble traits of character. The funeral took place this morning at 11 o'clock.

At his residence, near Moncure, in Onatham county, on Friday evening last at 7 o'clock, Mr. T B Buchanan, in the 47th year of his age. He leaves a widow and four children to mourn their loss. He was a brother of Mrs. B H Woodell, of this city.

"The hardest winter in many years" is the unanimous declaration of all the old folks.

We are promised much warmer weather tomorrow, for which let us all be thankful.

Our young friend, Mr. Pell, reading clerk of the senate, is entitled to the hearty thanks of the press reporters for courtesies rendered, in giving them the name of such senators as introduce bills, resolutions &c. It is certainly a great convenience and we can assure him that it is heartily appreciated. Both Mr. Burkhead and Mr. Pell are untiring in their efforts to aid the reportorial corps to all extent in their power.

The carriage shops of J. W. Evans, corner of Blount and Morgan streets, has been a busy place during the past week. The rush for sleighs has been considerable, but the snow, like other things in this life, is very uncertain. One gentleman left an order to be finished at a given time. The work was ready but had to be hauled away on wheels. We can most cordially recommend Mr. Evans' as a reliable place where you can have your sleigh fixed should we have another snow, and many are predicted.

Stockholders' Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Raleigh Building and Loan Association will take place in the mayor's office on Tuesday evening, January 10, 1893, at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of electing a board of directors and receiving the report of the auditing committee. If a member cannot be present he must fill out a proxy sheet and authorize one of the stockholders to act in his stead.

Fine Specimens.

The curator at the State Museum has received a lot of fine roofing slate for exhibition at the World's Fair. It was brought from the newly discovered slate quarries in Staidly county and is said to be equal to the best Rockingham slate. It was finely adapted to the manufacture of school slates and is useful for many other purposes. The manager of the slate is Mr. C O Wade, and his postoffice is Albemarle, N. C.

The Inauguration.

A meeting of the sub committee of the General Assembly and citizens of Raleigh met last Saturday in the office of Col. J. M. Heck, for considering the matter of the inauguration ceremonies. A sub committee was appointed, consisting of Messrs E C Smith, Frank Stronach, Geo Heck and Josephus Daniels, to act with the Legislative committee. Such arrangements are on foot as will make Gov. Carr's inauguration a most memorable event in the history of North Carolina.

The Electoral College.

The eleven electors, forming the electoral college, met today at noon, in the senate chamber. Mr. O. B. Aycock presided. Mr. J. A. Barringer being Secretary. Associate Justice Clark administered the oaths. Mr. J. G. Shaw placed Mr. Cleveland in nomination for President of the United States. Mr. L. L. Smith seconded. Mr. Cleveland received the unanimous vote. Mr. Augustus Learz nominated Mr. Adlai E. Stevenson for vice-president, Mr. Locke Craig seconded. Mr. Stevenson also received the unanimous vote. Mr. R. B. Glenn was elected messenger to take the returns to Washington.

On the morning of the 18th instant the new governor will be inaugurated and on the night of the same day the inauguration ball will take place. On the 19th, the State Road Congress will be held. In the latter case all commercial organizations and towns that elect delegates should, at once, notify the secretary Mr H W Ayer.

The report of the State Board of Public Charities states that the jails in many of the counties are in a bad condition. This is a still further reason why the Legislature should act promptly in the matter of a reformatory school for youthful criminals, and an additional room at the Insane Asylum.

The anniversary exercises of the Young Men's Christian Association, which was to have taken place yesterday afternoon, have been postponed until Sunday the 15th, on account of the inclemency of the weather.

Gov. Holt's message will pass into history as one of the most practical ever offered by a North Carolina governor. It comes right down to business, with all the "sentimental" cast off.

An intelligence bureau for furnishing situations is a new feature at Wilmington. Such an establishment might be of mutual benefit, if properly carried out.

The Executive Committee of the State Fair met in the office of the Secretary at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Wm G Hill Lodge No. 218, will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Visiting brethren invited.

London Sports at Metropolitan Hall next Monday night.

See notice of land sale by C. T. Horton, commissioner.

Provisions continue to rise on account of the inclement weather.

The same old matter of electing justices and county commissioners by the people, is looming up again. Well enough might be let alone in this case.

Our two young fellow citizens, Masters Charles Turner and Robt Gray, have returned to the university after a very pleasant sojourn with relatives and friends.

There is no more important bill to come before the legislature than that relating to the regulation of assignments. It will be pressed to a passage at an early day, we learn.

Yesterday was the anniversary of the battle of New Orleans when Gen. Jackson whipped the British badly. It was bought after a treaty of peace had been signed, but our folks did not know it. So much for the want of telegrams and telephones.

Our fellow citizen and artist, Mr. W. G. Randall, has opened a studio in Washington, D. C., at 735 Thirteenth street, Northwest. He will remain there for awhile when he will go to Europe to prosecute his studies. We doubt not that there is a bright future before him.

Governor Holt commutes to life imprisonment the death sentence of William McKinney, of Robeson county. He has appointed thirty delegates at large to the state road congress here on the 19th inst. He is notified that August 18 is designated as North Carolina day at the world's fair.

Vital Law to Pass.

The members of the legislature will hold a caucus to consider an action of vital importance to each living citizen, the babe in arms and the silvery haired old man as well as the blushing girl of sixteen summers. This legislature has a grave question before it. If the worst is realized, when the people must mourn and bow to the powers that be. The uncertainty of this thing has been sprung. All know the stock of goods in D. T. Swindell's mammoth store is now being sold out at actual wholesale cost, and the uncertainty is whether this public benefactor will move from Raleigh. Whether Swindell stays or moves is uncertain, but the people know he is selling all goods at cost, and many lines of goods at less than cost. Fifty thousand dollars worth of goods to be sold. Bleaching, blankets, table linen, dress goods, carpets, underwear, shoes, clothing and thousands of other things to go. The entire stock is offered. Swindell means something by this sale.
