THE ONE WHO IS MISSED.

The three beautiful children kneel at night
By the mother's side to pray;
But ever she misses with aching heart
The one who has gone away.

And if you ask her which of these
Is the darling, she can't say;
But of all of her children the dearest
Is the one who went away.

Gay ringing voices fill the house,
And thrill her with love and pride;
But none of them all has tone so sweet
As the little one who died.

And which are the loveliest, who can tell?
These eyes, brown blue and gray;
But none have the look of the violet eyes
Of the one who went away.

Here's Alice, graceful and pure and fair,
Brave Charlie and gentle May;
But the sweetest, loveliest one of all
Was the one who went away.

These rest at night in the mother's arms,
Close sheltered from harm and cold;
But the safest of all is the little one
In the Savior's guarded fold.
—Congregationalist.
