

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

SENATE.

January 10, 1893.

Called to order at 11 o'clock by President King.

Prayer by Rev Mr Boons.

The following petitions were offered.

For repeal merchants purchase tax. For appointment sundry Justices of Peace.

The following were among the most important bills introduced:

To restore to the tax list all lands omitted and collect tax on same.

To prevent treating at elections.

A resolution requesting our members of congress to use their efforts to secure passage of a law to graduate income tax—free coinage of silver—extending jurisdiction of state courts so that parties out of state can be sued for amounts not exceeding $10,000, or less than $2,000.

Resolution to adjourn February 16th, was tabled.

A message was received from the governor asking that new furniture be provided for executive mansion.

At the hour of 12, the senate upon invitation of that body, proceeded to the house of representatives for the purpose of participating in the joint session for counting the votes for governor and other state officers.

HOUSE.

Rev J N Cole offered prayer.

Mr W J Shaw, of Bladen, sent up notice of contest of the seat now held by S M King.

Among the bills introduced the chief were as follows:

To protect purchasers of commercial fertilizers.

(Mr Merritt) to provide for the issue of the banks of circulating notes and fully protect the same.

To amend the law in regard to the disposition of mortgaged property.

To authorize owners of land surrounded by a lawful fence to impound stock.

To repeal the act authorizing the collection of agricultural statistics.

To provide for the support of the soldiers' home by imposing a tax on manufacturers and dealers in compound lard.

To amend the law relative to forclosures by personal representatives of deeds of trust.

To prohibit the pronouncing of judgments in cases of suspended judgments in criminal cases after two years.

To establish banks of the state and increase the circulating medium of the state.

To incorporate the bank of Madison.

To require discharged convicts to be furnished with transportation to their homes.

To regulate assignments by preventing preferences.

The first bill to pass the house was the following: To render more convenient the release and discharge of deeds and trusts.

A bill also passed to extend the time of registering land grants to two years from January 1, 1894.

At noon the senate entered and a joint session was held to canvass the vote for the state officers. There was 47 senators and 177 members of the house present. President King of the senate presided. The following was the result of the canvass, Senators Means and James and Representatives Holt and Axley being tellers:

Governor: Carr 185,519; Furches 94,684; Ezum 47,840; Templeton 2457

Correspondence of the Visitor.

Although the Visitor has frequently called attention to the disgraceful condition of the sidewalk on East Hargett, between Wilmington and Blount streets the same old state of things exist, to the serious detriment of pedestrians. Would it not be well for a committee of our city fathers to examine the locality so that their visions may be opened to the true condition of affairs? If something is not done, this, too may become an issue in the election next spring. WALKER.

Funeral

The funeral of the late Nathan Gulley was held yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from the residence of his daughter, Mrs. N. W. Smith, on Hillsboro street. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Carter of the First Baptist church, and the interment was made in the old city cemetery.

A GAS WELL BEYOND CONTROL.

Chicago Inter-Ocean.

What is undoubtedly the strongest natural gas well ever found in the Indiana belt is a roaring monster north of Muncie, Ind., which cannot be gotten under control. A few days since Walley & Spellacy, contractors, drilled in a well on the Spilker farm. Next day it was discovered that the pressure had raised to an enormous degree, and it has since increased until it has become impossible to anchor the well or do anything with it. It is impossible to force a sledge hammer, crowbar or anything into the hole and the gas roars until a man's voice cannot be heard within several hundred yards of the well. The earth trembles in a frightful manner. A great deal of fright is entertained as to what the result will be. The well is estimated at over 10,000,000 feet, and the apparatus used to anchor the monster Jumbo well at Fairmount is useless. Great caution is being used to prevent the gas from becoming ignited.
