VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, JANUARY 17, 1893.

NO. 71

CITY IN BRIEF.

The road congress meets tomorrow. The grand inauguration tomorrow. It looks like we are in a jam of ice all over the country.

The directors of the North Carolina railroad were in session in this city today.

There are two reports in the contested election case from Warren, but the majority report has an almost unanimous endorsement of Dr. J. P. Leach.

Rehearsals for "the Mascot" will be held at the residence of Mrs McVea, on each Monday and Thursday evening of this month.

The Moran Library, consisting of about 600 volumes, bequeathed by the late Robt. S. Moran, of New York, to Trinity College, has been received.

The following sheriffs settled with the State Treasurer yesterday afternoon: H V McCall, sheriff of Caldwell, $4,778 73; J P Cherry, sheriff of Clay, $1,489 11.

Dyspepsia victims find prompt and permanent relief in Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones the stomach and creates an appetite.

Let Charley Heart attend the National Association of Superintendents of chiefs of police in Chicago, May 18th. We know Charley will uphold the dignity of the City of Oaks, and a little recreation won't hurt him.

The Rev. Sam Jones has returned to his first love of journalism. He is now on the staff of the Atlanta Constitution. There is an old saying that if a fellow ever gets the smell of printer's ink on him, it sticks through life. It looks like it.

The Weather.

Local forecast made at station for this vicinity:

On Wednesday: Fair weather, slowly rising temperature.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 22; minimum temperature, 2; rainfall, 0.0.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Capital Lodge, No. 147, I O O F., this evening at 7:30 in hall over Citizens National Bank. Every member of Capital Lodge requested to be present. Work in the second degree. Visiting Odd Fellows invited to attend.

Just Received.

The Durham Sun says: A negro who was arraigned in the Charlotte, N. C., police court, on a trivial offense, was unable to pay his fine and offered an old gold watch as security. The chief of police opened the watch and found engraved on the case the name: "Dr. Howz, Wadesboro, N. C." He telegraphed to Wadesboro and learned that the doctor was long since dead, but that his widow was still living, and that the watch was stolen from her house at the time Sherman's raiders passed through that section. It was rather remarkable that the watch should have been recovered, after so many years, in such a manner.

"Apron strings must be left alone," said Judge Ermentrout, of Reading, Pa., to the jury on Tuesday. "People have no business with other men's wives, whether in a playful way or any other way." This bit of wisdom was spoken at the close of the trial of Isaac Gross for assault and battery. A month ago Augustus Pottier met Mrs. Gross on the street and playfully untied her apron strings. Gross saw the proceeding from across the street, walked over promptly and knocked Pottier down. The judge told the jury to acquit Gross, and the costs were put upon the man who untied the apron strings.

HORRIBLE ACCIDENT.

The Daughter of a Well Known Former Citizen of Raleigh Killed by a Railroad Train.

This morning about 2 o'clock Mr. McMaekin received a dispatch from Greensboro stating that Miss Lena McDonald, aged about 18 years old, the daughter of Col. Jno. A. McDonald formerly of this city, had been found dead on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. near Greensboro. A later dispatch and a letter from Prof. Melver confirmed the news. We have been unable to obtain the full particulars of the sad affair further than the following: It seems that Miss McDonald, who is employed as a teacher in the Industrial School at Greensboro, left the institution yesterday after lunch with the intention of visiting the family of Gen. Glenn, on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R., a short distance beyond the corporate limits. For some reason not known she went beyond Gen. Glenn's residence, and about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon her dead body was found on the side of the railroad. The presumption, as we learn, is that she was killed by a train, but the most remarkable part of it is, that as the accident occurred in broad daylight, the body was left on the side of the track and no report of it was made, either by the engineer or conductor. This, of course, is subject to further comment, when the full particulars have been received.

LATER.

Prof. Melver, who came down with the remains and is now in the city, says that although Miss McDonald left the institution early in the day, news of the sad affair was not received until about 6 o'clock p. m. It is undoubtedly the fact that she was killed by a train about 2 o'clock and that she was not seen by the engineer.

A gentleman acquainted with the locality says that there are many turnouts and switches on the C. F. & Y. V. R. R., near Greensboro, and that trains frequently back in and out of the city going to and fro. His impression is that the unfortunate young lady was killed by a train that was backing, as it has not transpired that either the conductor or engineer was aware of the accident until it became public. The body is crushed nearly in twain, and otherwise mangled. There is the deepest sympathy felt here over the unfortunate affair.

The remains arrived here this afternoon on the train from the West and were deposited in the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Inauguration Rates.

For the above occasion the Seaboard Air Line will sell round trip tickets to military companies in bodies of twenty-five or more on one solid ticket at the rate of one first class for the round trip.

We invite the special attention of the public to the advertisement of Mr. L. R. Wyatt, who is prepared to furnish the best cow feed for milk, rich cream and butter, during the coldest weather. All who try it pronounce it the best cow feed ever offered here. Also wheat and corn chops and Wyatt's horse feed which is unrivalled. Be sure to give it a trial. Telephone 87.

Gent's Fine Footwear.

The Bert & Packard "Korrek Shape" for gentlemen is accorded a high place in the estimation of consumers. For sale at

C. A. Sherwood & Co's

Hard Times.

The Greensboro Record says: The birds are starving and freezing, and buzzards are getting desperate in order to obtain something to eat. One scooped down in a man's yard the other day and carried off a hunk of beefsteak which he had just purchased and brought home.

Very Special.

The most sacrifice we are making in our stock is in dress goods and men's stiff hats. All the stiff hats are marked down greatly below cost, and several lines of dress goods are below cost. Most prominent is our line of pattern lengths in all wool suitings, 36 inches. These goods cost 88c, we are now selling this line at 84c, regular price was 90c in every store but ours; this reduction you see is 10 per cent. less than cost. All goods at cost at D. T. Swindell's mammoth store.

Blankets, Comforts, &c., at Woolcott & Son's.

You Need Not, and You Do Not

Care whether Swindell will or will not leave Raleigh; what you care for is the price of goods. If Swindell sells goods at and below cost, you can bet he has an object in view and that he is selling goods at cost. Any one with two grains of sense can tell if they try.

All kind of rubber shoes very cheap at Woolcott & Son's.

SPECIAL

Carpet: Sale.

A carpet business as large as ours naturally requires a great number of patterns, a portion of which must be on hand at the close of the season.

New patterns and colorings are brought out each succeeding season. The residue stock must be sold to make room for new goods.

We soon "take stock" and immediately thereafter begins new carpet work for spring and we wish these carpets sold by that time.
