LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

RALEIGH, JAN. 19, 1893.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Gen W R Cox is here. Judge Phillips is in the city. Now, write it Governor Carr. Judge and Mrs. Avery are here. Here's health, prosperity and long life to Thomas M. Holt. The visiting military companies left for their homes today. Hon O M Cooke, of Louisburg, attended the inauguration. Col. R M Douglas, of Greensboro is in the city. Col. P B Means, of Cabarrus county, is in the city. The students of the Agricultural and Mechanical College attended the inauguration yesterday.

Governor Carr's inaugural address is highly commended on all sides. It is an admirable state paper.

Chief Marshal Stronach and his assistants filled the bill to perfection yesterday. "Frank" knows how "to get there."

To the memory of ROBERT E. LEE, the patriot, hero and statesman. May it ever linger in the hearts of his countrymen.

Catarrh in the head is a constitutional disease, and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, to effect a cure.

The record is beaten now, sure. No use for the "oldest" inhabitant to talk. This is the roughest weather we have had in the century.

We had the pleasure of seeing Ex-Senator Ardrey of Mecklenburg on the floor of the Senate yesterday. He is looking remarkably well.

The bill which passed the Senate yesterday allowing clerks of Register of Deeds to cancel mortgages, &c, is a good one and will remove frequent difficulties.

A citizens relief meeting is suggested. There is great suffering among the poor in this vicinity, and we hope the idea may be carried out. In the meantime, remember that Mr. J T Pullen at the Saving's Bank will receive contributions. Also the Mission at the corner of Wilmington and Morgan streets.

"I Can't Eat."

Is often heard. People who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla highly recommend it for loss of appetite, indigestion, sick headache, and similar troubles. This medicine gently tones the stomach, assists digestion, and makes you "real hungry."

Constipation, and all troubles with the digestive organs and the liver are cured by Hood's Pills. Price 25c. per box.

Fire.

The alarm of fire this morning was caused from the burning of the kitchen on the premises of Mr. W O Stronach in the northern part of the city. The house which was a two room one was entirely consumed. The department responded as promptly as possible. We learn that the fire originated from some clothing which had been washed and hung up to dry, taking fire. The loss will be several hundred dollars.

Democratic Banner.

In the hall of the house of representatives this evening at 7:30 o'clock the democratic banner will be formally turned over to the representatives of the county having the largest democratic majority. Several impromptu speeches will be made. All are invited. Representative Kitchen and others will speak.

DEATH OF EX PRESIDENT HAYES.

Baltimore Herald. The entire country will be shocked to learn that Ex-President Hayes died at his residence in Fremont, O., at 11 o'clock last night. Although the dispatch of the previous day contained the information that he had been attacked by a neuralgic affection of the heart, necessarily creating apprehension among his friends and family, it was not anticipated that the end would come so soon, nor, indeed, was his affliction supposed to be necessarily fatal.

It had been scarcely a month since the Ex-President was in Baltimore officiating as the presiding officer of the Prison Reform Congress, and those who saw him at that time, in the flush of seemingly perfect health, will be painfully surprised to hear of his sudden demise.

During his eventful career General Hayes had many critics, especially at the time of and since his occupancy of the Presidential chair, but even his severest censors never went so far as to impugn the purity of his moral character nor the sense of broad and liberal patriotism. As a commanding officer during the war, as Governor of Ohio and as President of the United States he was always the conservative, humane and enlightened American citizen. As a high and responsible official, his first care was always for the welfare of the people and the peace of the country.

NO OTHER Sarsaparilla has the merit to secure the confidence of entire communities and hold it year after year, like HOOD'S Sarsaparilla.

IN LOVE WITH HIS WIFE.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Jan. 14.—Charles Miles and Miss Katie Wickinger were married in 1884. They quarreled in 1881 and the husband came to Wilkesbarre to live. He wooed another lass Miss Rennard, but on the evening he was to have married the second woman wife No. 1 came on the scene and amidst great excitement in the church put a stop to the wedding.

Some weeks ago Miles and his wife met at a masquerade ball. Neither knew the other. Miles while dancing with his wife said he would like to correspond with her. She asked him his object, and he replied matrimony.

"And you love me enough to marry me?" she asked. "I do, I do," was the answer. Mrs. Miles then threw off her mask. The former husband was astounded, but he was as good as his word. Rev. O H Hayes united them the second time in marriage yesterday.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

SCARED, BUT UNREPENTANT.

CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 17.—Thomas Rodgers, the young ruffian who shot his father, mother and sister, was committed to the county jail by Mayor Coates today to await the action of the coroner, who will hold an inquest tomorrow.

The body of the murdered man lies at the Chester hospital, and in the same building the mother and sister are dying. Both are shot in the left lung and cannot recover, surgeons say. The ante mortem statement of the daughter, who was a bride on New Year's day, was taken this morning. She corroborates the statements made by her parents, and claims that after shooting down his father and mother the miscreant chased her into the street and shot her from the doorsteps.

The boyish looking murderer was removed when informed of the death of his father, and expressed no pity or sympathy for his other victims. Before being taken to the county jail he sent for and engaged a lawyer to defend him at the next term of court. His defense will be temporary insanity, but public sentiment is against such a proposition, and threats of lynching have been openly made.

The Wilmington Star says, in the Northwest water powers are being taken up to be utilized in generating electricity for lighting towns, running factories, &c. Some of these days the towns in the uplands of North Carolina will be lighted and manufacturing will be run by electricity generated by the water powers which so numerously abound.

Mr. Warren D. Wentz of Geneva, N. Y.

Tells of His Fearful Sufferings After Gastric Fever and His Cure by Hood's Sarsaparilla

All who know Mr. W. D. Wentz give him the best of recommendations for honesty and integrity. For many years he has worked for Mr. D. P. Wilson, the harness maker and member of the Geneva Board of Health. He says:

"I was taken sick last October with gastric fever and my chance for recovery was considered almost hopeless. After 7 weeks the fever slowly left me, but I could not eat the simplest food without terrible distress. It seemed that I had recovered from the fever to

Die of Starvation

I took pepsin compounds, bismuth, charcoal, cod liver oil and malt until my physician confessed that his skill was about exhausted and he did not know what else to try. Everything I took seemed like pebbles melting lead into my stomach. I happened to think I had part of a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla that had been in the house for two or three years, that I found had benefited me previously for dyspepsia. I began taking it and soon began to feel better. I have now taken a little over two bottles and can truthfully say I feel well again and can eat anything without distressing me, even to which I have been unable to touch for years. The English language does not contain words enough to permit me to express the praise I would like to give to Hood's Sarsaparilla." W. D. WENTZ, 184 Castle St., Geneva, N. Y.
