VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, JANUARY 20, 1893.

NO. 74

CITY IN BRIEF.

Rev. Dr. Hall is sick. Now for a slush and a plenty of it. Several senators went home today. It looks like a general thaw has set in.

Beautiful weather overhead, but, oh, the walking.

The jingle of the sleigh bells is heard far in the night.

Loaded wagons are crossing the Yadkin River on the ice.

Col. J. S. Carr, of Durham, was in the city yesterday afternoon.

The Franklinton cotton product company has been chartered.

Let 1877 take the back seat. The oldest inhabitant has given it up.

Market wagons are still scarce, and provisions consequently continue high.

The graded schools of Durham suspended on account of the rough weather.

Remember, brethren, the disappointed always outnumber the appointees.

The railroad authorities are doing all in their power to keep up the supply of wood.

Remember that the sunshine of today may give way to clouds tomorrow. Remember the poor.

Meet the soliciting committees with open hearts, open hands and open purses—especially the latter.

The mother-in-law joke should take a back seat, now that an Ohio man has eloped with his, and $800.

The Raleigh committee is hard at work and some suffering from cold and hunger will be at an end soon in our midst.

The great value of Hoods Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh is vouched for by thousands of people whom it has cured.

The bursting of a water main on Fayetteville street caused a considerable flood around the market house and vicinity this morning.

Owing to the bad weather the presentation of the banner to the county giving the largest democratic majority was postponed indefinitely.

There are too many lobbyists in Washington this winter for the good of the country, to say nothing of the good names of some Congressmen.

The senate cleaned up its calendar today. The committees are hard at work and the session may now be said to have commenced in dead earnest.

Mr. Joseph A. Parker, an old railroader, died in Launenburg recently. He was formerly master of transportation on the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad.

Hon. J. R. Mendenhall, mayor of Greensboro, and chairman of the chamber of commerce in that place, is in the city, the guest of Mr. H. H. Crocker, on East Hargett street.

Mr. S. Otho Wilson was arrested yesterday afternoon on a true bill found against him by the grand jury on account of his alleged connection with a secret political organization. He was recognized to appear at court on his own recognizance.

A notable story, "Reiteration," from the pen of Miss Dolly Higbee, author of "In God's country," and other well known writings appears in the January number of Fetter's Southern Magazine (Louisville, Ky., Fetter & Shober). This is a study of exceptional interest and is pronounced by critics to be decidedly her best work.

The railroads are BLOCKED, but Dugli gets the finest Norfolk oysters ALL THE TIME. He never fails and his restaurant is therefore the great resort of the city for strangers and citizens. Don't fail to call. You will not be disappointed. Remember that Dugli NEVER fails to have the best the market affords, not only in oysters but all the delicacies of the season.

Appointments.

Gov. Carr has made the following appointments: Private Secretary, S. F. Telfair.

Executive clerk, O. L. Hinton. These are most excellent appointments in all respects. We congratulate both young gentlemen as well as Gov. Carr. He could not have made better selections.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair, warmer Saturday.

Local forecast made at station for this vicinity: On Saturday: Fair weather, slightly warmer.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 30; minimum temperature 10; rainfall, 1.07.

Die,

At his residence, in St. Matthews' Township yesterday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock Mr. L. E. Reagan. He leaves a widow to mourn his loss. The burial will take place tomorrow at 11 o'clock in Oakwood Cemetery.

Capt. Reagan was a most estimable gentleman and was well known in our city and vicinity. For many years he was conductor on the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad where he gained many friends.

At Rest.

The remains of the late Miss Lena McDonald were laid at rest last Wednesday afternoon. The funeral services took place from the Church of the Good Shepherd, Rev. Dr. Pittinger officiating. The pallbearers were: Messrs. Henry Litchford, Edgar Haywood, Geo. Bergen, James Anderson, Henry King and John Stronach. The floral offerings from loving friends were beautiful.

Wake Superior Court

The following cases were tried today:

State vs Burwell Perry; bigamy; continued for defendant.

State vs Burwell Perry; r. w. l.; defendant in jail until April 8, 1893, and costs with leave to commissioners to work on road's.

State vs Otho Wilson; secret political society; set for Tuesday first week March term 1893; bond filed.

State vs J. M. Yarborough et al.; conspiracy; defendant Yarborough 8 months on roads; Debnam and Richardson 6 months on roads, and R Carpenter, Ed Carpenter, Will Carpenter, Sam Jones and Spence Carpenter 4 months on roads and each to pay costs.

State vs Jno Price; l. and r.; mortgage discharged upon payment of costs.

New Counties.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger says:

There are said to be plans on foot before the Legislature for some important changes in counties. For instance, it is proposed to carve a new county out of Richmond with Laurinburg as the county seat; one out of Chatham with Siler City as the county seat, and one out of Guilford with High Point as the county seat. It should be borne in mind however, that it is extremely difficult to pass a bill creating a new county. Few things are more difficult, as the promoters of such schemes have found any time these ten years past. There are also some plans under consideration for changes of county seats. These are to change the county seat of Surry from Dobson to Mt. Airy; of Stokes from Danbury to Madison; of Rockingham from Wentworth to Reidsville. These plans will lead to a fight no doubt.

FROZEN UP.

Correspondence of the Visitor. MACKAY'S FERRY, Jan. 18

We are undergoing the worst weather known in this section for years. The boat from here to Edenton has been frozen in one week from today. The Albemarle sound is a solid sheet of ice, filled in some places six feet high. Four gentlemen walked from Edenton to Mackey's Ferry yesterday evening, leaving Edenton at 11 a. m. and arriving here at 5:30 p. m. bringing a sleigh with all their baggage on it. The distance is 92 miles. Their names are Dr. H. R. Phillips, Capt. Henry Morse, Capt. Henry Morse, Penn Yan, N. Y., and F. Griswold, Hammondsport, N. Y.

The keeper at Laurel Point light house left his house Sunday night it having been rendered unsafe by ice.

Tobacco Users Smile Sometimes

When told that tobacco hurts them; their wives never do, because that tarred nerves, weak eyes, chronic catarrh and lost manhood, tells the story. If your husband uses tobacco, you want him to quit, post yourself about No-to-bac, the wonderful, harmless, guaranteed tobacco habit breaker by sending for our little book titled: "Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away," mailed free. Drug stores generally sell No to bac. THE STERLING REMEDY CO., Indiana Mineral Springs, Indiana. Jan 13 p

Very Special.

The most sacrifice we are making in our stock is in dress goods and men's stiff hats. All the stiff hats are marked down greatly below cost, and several lines of dress goods are below cost. Most prominently is our line of pattern lengths in all wool suitings, 36 inches. These goods cost 88c, we are now selling this line at 34c, regular price was 50c in every store but ours; this reduction you see is 10 per cent less than cost. All goods at cost at D. T. Swindell's mammoth store.

You Need Not, and You Do Not

Care whether Swindell will or will not leave Raleigh; what you care for is the price of goods. If Swindell sells goods at and below cost, you can bet he has an object in view and that he is selling goods at cost. Any one with two grains of sense can tell if they try.

Carpet : Sale.

A carpet business as large as ours naturally requires a great number of patterns, a portion of which must be on hand at the close of the season.

New patterns and colorings are brought out each succeeding season. The residue stock must be sold to make room for new goods.

We soon "take stock" and immediately thereafter begins new carpet work for spring and we wish these carpets of by that time.
