THE BILLVILLE BANNER.

Atlanta Constitution.

This free pass business is no good. Last Wednesday the conductor made us help grease the engine, put off tramps and shovel coal clean to Atlanta. Hanged if we hadn't rather pay our way.

We hope Lieutenant Satterfield won't leave Georgia for good, as we are now a brigadier general, and we want him to tell us what that kind of man generally does. We believe he was in the war, and he must know something about it.

We don't want Mrs. Felton to tackle us in the newspapers, so we've quit preaching and gone to splitting rails. You'll never catch us takin up a collection when she's around.

One preacher has gone off on a business week's vacation for the benefit of his health. This means that he is a week's groceries.

A NEW IDEA.

It is published in the papers that Dr. N. D. Fetzer, of Concord, this state, has made the license question a special study for some time, and comes to the conclusion that the best way to deal with the liquor business is to license the man who drinks and not him who sells. He wants any one who wishes to drink to go before the county commissioners and get his license to do so and then present it to the barkeeper and get his drink. He also wants this system so enacted that when a man drinks over a certain quantity he forfeits his license. Under this system the names of those who are legalized drinkers will be published in the papers quarterly. He thinks that this would bring a larger revenue into the treasury than the system now in vogue and would forever settle this perplexing problem. He hopes the legislature will consider this system, and if found to be constitutional, enact it into law.

There are 15,000 men and boys, 2,500 horses and 100 steam engines at work gathering the ice crop of the Hudson. The intense cold last week has made the ice so thick that it is almost too unwieldy to handle. In the main channel off Hudson it is nearly a foot and a half thick, and is all solid pure water ice. The indications are that it will be the biggest crop harvested in twenty years. There is good sleighing all through the Hudson river valley. Almost every morning last week the mercury touched zero. In the country some of the streams are frozen solid to the bottom.

The Spartanburg Herald says that the merchants of South Carolina are in good spirits. Collections have been good and they start out upon the new year with renewed zeal and expect to do a larger business than ever.

Rochester Express: "What do you mean, sir," asked the irate bishop of the newly ordained Boston minister, "by ending your prayers 'eternally gratiated amen?'" "But, my dear Bishop," expostulated the minister, "don't you think it sounds better than 'twirled without end?'"
